

Prior to the start of the basketball season the NEWS AND COURIER picked Walterboro as the top contender in the 7AAAA. The Walterboro Bulldogs started off their 74-75 season traveling first to Ruffin for a win, and next to Ridgeland for a loss.

Then came Christmas holidays. Taking only a two day rest, Coach Smalls' Bulldogs practiced constantly through the holidays to assure a good start in the new year.

January 3 came and the Bulldogs were host to three consecutive home games which brought a win against the Summerville Greenwaves, a loss to Ridgeland and a win against the Ruffin Patriots.

Coach Smalls 11-man squad, headed by Juniors Joe MacBright and Kenny Bennett, went on to take their first conference victory on January 10 against the Beaufort Eagles.

These two victories were followed by five more straight wins, over Summerville, Roberts twice, St. Andrews, and then Berkeley.

Joe MacBright, the big center for the Bulldogs, goes up over two Greenwaves to score two of the Dogs' 68 points.

"Sputnik" Maree steals the ball from Ruffin in a game the Dogs won 93-42.
