

During the fall each senior was asked to choose three senior girls to run for Miss Senior. These nominations were then tallied by the senior class officers. The winner was Louvenis Manigo.

The junior class, using this same procedure, elected their junior class queen, Wanda Gibson.

"Catch me, if you can," says Wanda Gibson, Miss Junior, as she peeks from behind a giant oak tree.

Everything is beautiful, especially Louvenis Manigo, the 1976 Miss Senior at WHS.
