

All The Things We Used To Do

Cheerleaders Rendetta Cutler, Derelle Jamison and Wanda Ferguson discuss the upcoming pep rally.

"Those weren't my legs!" exclaims the guilty Whitney Stringfield.

Daydreaming . . . Joette Manigo ponders over how to make her one and only notice her.

"We've got legs! Proclaims Whitney Stringfield, Brady Howe, and Harold Whatley.

Back in our high school days we really did some crazy things. Remember the games and pep rallys, the leg contests, all the excitement yet there was always a quiet moment or two. It is bad to think that it is coming to an end. Only two years at Walterboro High School and then graduation. Ten, twenty, fifty years from now we'll look back and remember all the crazy things we use to do.

"I wanted you to take my picture, but this isn't what I had in mind!"

"What's happening?" Patricia Barnette, Tony Memminger, and Barbara Youmans wonder what could be next?
