Time In A Bottle

Senior High School Gym
Friday Evening
April Eighteenth
Nineteen Hundred Seventy-five

If I could save time in a bottle, the first thing that I'd like to do is to save every memory of the great time we had the night of our Junior-Senior Prom. The band, Funny-Bone Express, from Augusta, Georgia played until we were too tired to dance any more.

If I could make days last forever, if words could make wishes come true, I'd wish that the nights of our prom and our Junior-Senior weekend could have lasted forever. But there never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you find them. I've looked around enough to know you're the one I want to go through time with.

"I wish they would play our kind of music" say Mr. Padgett as he and Mr. Oliver L. Barnes, Sr. watch the younger generation do their thing.

"I've got it now" says Mary Barnes as she gets a lesson in dancing from her partner Billy Smoak.

"Caught in the act" of taking a break are Robert Frakes and Cindy Simmons.
