

Away We Go!

Apparently these youngsters are enjoying life to the fullest. No one has to tell them, "Enjoy it while you can!" Some people go through life not seeing and enjoying the little things around them. Little people have the knack of getting pleasure out of everything they do.

Once we have all grown up, those times are gone forever, lost amidst the responsibility and time associated with making it in this world.

Now our high school days have come to an end we have left all these things with only memories of the past and dreams for the future.
