

It's All Part of Teaching

Let's get it straight! Minnilyn Byrd, Mrs. Skardon, and Beth Fox make preparations for the N.H.S. ceremony.

Affectionally known as Mr. Neely, Mr. Ackerman served the Transportation Dept. for four years. Cooperation, kindness, loyalty, and a good sense of humor were trade marks of the man with the busses. "Mr. Neely," the bus driver would say, "You need a substitute?" Ironically we will never get a substitute for Mr. Neely.

"Where have you been?" Mrs. Hughes seems to be asking Harold Whatley.

Do you think so? Mrs. Gaskin and Mrs. VonLehe discuss seniors.

Mr. Haltiwanger, Coach Rice, and Mr. Jarvis have a general discussion on life.

Mr. Haltiwanger waits for the bell.
