

Throughout the school year, our Varsity cheerleaders have cheered the varsity football and basketball team on to the thrill of victory and sometimes the agony of defeat.

Walterboro High School should be proud of its cheerleaders and alternates. All eleven girls worked long and hard perfecting their movements and working on new ways to stir up the crowd. Long hours well spent just trying to "get it all together".

In spite of all the hard work, they were still enthusiastic and spirited.

"Bright-eyed and bushy tailed," Louvenis Manigo smiles. This is her first year as a cheerleader. She hopes to be a Furman Paladin cheerleader next year.

The photographer catches Sharon Hutto as she hustles into formation for the next cheer. She has cheered for 2 years.

"This is the way it's done", as shown by Kathy Roberts. Kathy has been a cheerleader for 2 years. She hopes maybe someday to continue as a college cheerleader.

"Let's do it like the Chinese do", says cheerleader Julianne Stuck as she straddles a split. This is Julianne's first year as a cheerleader. She hopes to cheer for the Clemson Tigers next year.

"Those are my girls!" exclaims cheerleader sponsor Mrs. Fannie Simmons. Mrs. Simmons has served as cheerleader sponsor for almost 2 years.
