OPERATION

Happy Anniversary! In fifty years, Walterboro High has undergone numerous changes, but continues to produce many educated, useful citizens.

Our parking lot may not include asphalt and parking meters, but it is one of the many improvements that has been made over the year.

Believe it or not . . . 200 years ago, people actually dressed like these eight original officers of the Spirits of '76.

CELEBRATION

While the entire country can participate in the Bicentennial, only WE can rejoice in the 50th anniversary of WHS. Since 1926 numerous changes have come about but learning and involvement still prevail.

September 1975 marked the end of five successful years of integration and this has definitely been the biggest change to occur.

So Walterboro High School . . . Let's Celebrate!

Celebrate to proclaim publicity with festivities and exhilaration. Walterboro High has many things about which to celebrate.

Everyone in the country is celebrating America's 200th birthday. Even at Walterboro High we have students actively involved in the Spirits of '76, a youth group dedicated to promoting and spreading the enthusiasm that should accompany this festival.

The 76 members are led by Mrs. Laura Lynn Hughes, Social Studies Chairman for, Walterboro High.

Is it gonna blow? Five years of integration have brought about togetherness and concern for one another.

WE'RE PROUD!!

Good game, Coach! Mr. Jones congratulates Coach Rice after our 13 to 7 win over Summerville.

These words speak for themselves, for we did beat Keenan in our first game of the lower state football playoffs.

These 3 students were selected as Sr. Eastern Region Band Members on Feb. 5: They are Robert Hiott, Wanda Elkins and Nicky Stratton.

Baldies!!! That's what Robert Hiott, Mack Padgett and Travis Beeson will be next year when they go to the Air Force Academy in Denver, Colorado.

The Fearsome Foursome . . . Melvin Williamson, Dunky Crosby, Lonnie Stanfield, and Nick Pinkney were chosen as 7-AAAA All Conference football players.

Gov. Edwards acknowledges the accomplishments of the Spirits of '76 by presenting them with a plaque.

Has Mrs. Gaskins joined the army? No, but she has received a certificate for her help in recruiting for the U. S. Army at Walterboro High.

Lynette Walker received the Miss Betty Crocker Award for scoring the highest on a test taken Dec. 2.

Miss Louvenis Manigo was chosen as a finalist for the Nat'l Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students.

We're Proud Of It! Leonard Pinckney and Lander Manigo proudly sit in front of their beautiful work of art, the Walterboro High Bulldog.

Activities and honors engulfed our students during this Bicentennial year. Many organizations were started in connection with the Bicentennial. One of these was a group of high school students coming from all the Colleton County high schools, called the "Spirits of 76." The "Spirits" were sponsored by the Colleton County Bicentennial Commission and this organization was the first of its kind in the United States.

Another Bicentennial related activity was the local Heritage class, a semester course which focused on what part Colleton County played in the United States history. The members of this class took trips to historical land marks and attended meetings on different aspects of our Colleton County heritage.

Our clubs were also very active this year. Besides their normal procedures and club trips, they also participated in Bicentennial projects in the lower state.

We can also remember our Bicentennial year as the best year of our sports program. Football, baseball, basketball, track, and the golf teams really outdid themselves.

All sports were made exciting with large student participation. Pep rallies showed a lot of spirit due to the contributions of the cheerleaders, players, band, and the entire student body. This was indeed a year we may reflect back on and be proud of ourselves, our accomplishments, and our activities.

STUDENT LIFE

That Really Was Funny. Constance Hopkins, Louise Williams, and Mrs. Barnes enjoy a joke made during a Student Council Meeting.

Beauty Reigns At WHS

In May 1975 the Miss Walterboro Pageant was held. Twelve young ladies ranging in age from seventeen to twenty-four competed for the title. Several students from Walterboro High — Louvenis Manigo, Shonda Chaplin, Ilka Drawdy, and Cheryl Anderson — participated.

Practice for the pageant began in April. Judges met the contestants and interviewed them after a luncheon which was arranged for the young ladies at the Ramada Inn.

The program held at the Hampton Street Auditorium went smoothly and just before the winners were announced the Miss Congeniality award was presented to Shonda Chaplin, a student at WHS. She was voted the friendliest by the other contestants.

Chosen as Miss Walterboro was Joy Collins, a graduate of Walterboro High; and the first and second runners up were Lynn Hiers and Ilka Drawdy also WHS graduates.

Let Us Entertain You. Shonda Chaplin and Louvenis Manigo dance while doing one of the numbers the Miss Walterboro contestants performed during the pageant.

Leaving Already? Louvenis Manigo, Miss Senior, prepares to get into a car just as a sneaky photographer gets her picture.

During the fall each senior was asked to choose three senior girls to run for Miss Senior. These nominations were then tallied by the senior class officers. The winner was Louvenis Manigo.

The junior class, using this same procedure, elected their junior class queen, Wanda Gibson.

"Catch me, if you can," says Wanda Gibson, Miss Junior, as she peeks from behind a giant oak tree.

Everything is beautiful, especially Louvenis Manigo, the 1976 Miss Senior at WHS.

Several students who were interested in working on the 1976 yearbook staff attended the South Carolina Scholastic Press Association Seminar which was held last spring at Garret High School in Charleston.

During sessions on layout and copy the students were taught what to do and what not to do when putting a yearbook together.

With April first came April Fool's Day and our Miss April Fool Pageant. Young men were selected from each homeroom to participate. They then donned their most beautiful outfits and proceeded to dazzle the judges with their charm and grace.

Obviously Carl Spells impressed the judges most and he was chosen Miss April Fool 1975.

Are You Kidding? Jean Bishop looks a little doubtful at some of the things she heard at the editor's session.

Don't Talk So Fast! Becky Murdaugh and Kathy Roberts try to catch a few notes as Mike McDonald listens to Les Howell's session on layout.

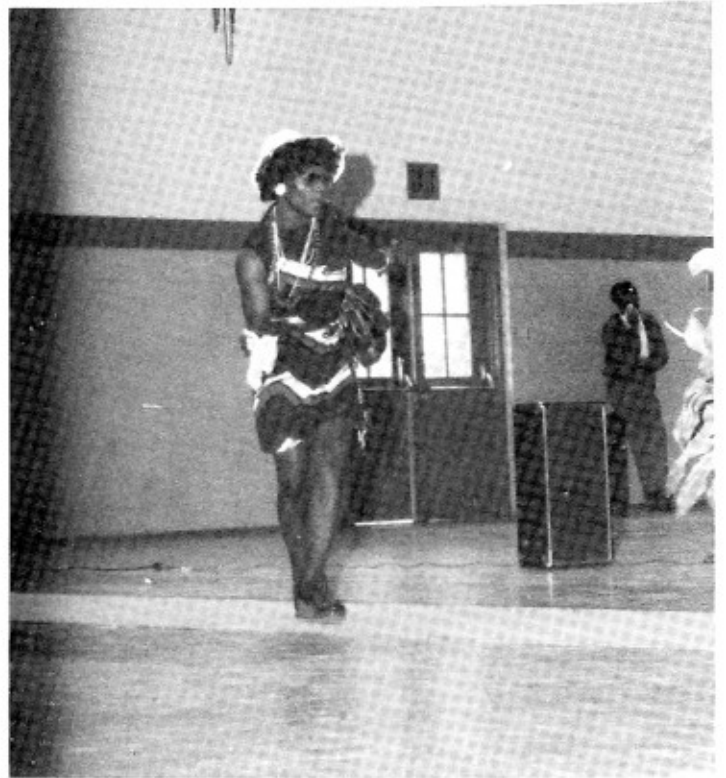

Copy Is A Must For Yearbooks. Dr. Mary Chandler, a journalism instructor at the University of S. C., stressed the importance of being direct and interesting in copy writing, during one session at Garret High School.

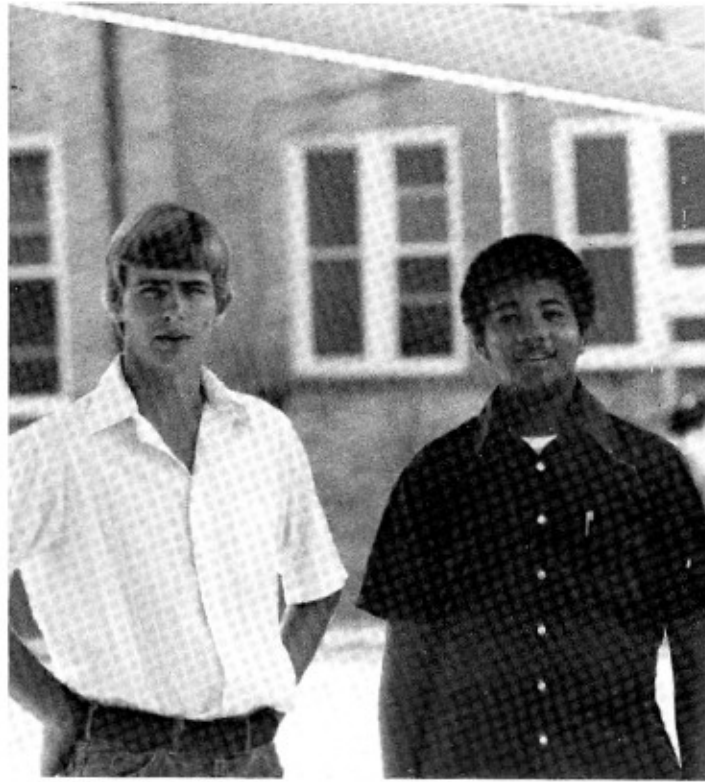

Isn't He Lovely? Tony Babilonia creates excitement as he models his most beautiful dress.

There He Is . . . Carl Spells, Miss April Fool, models one of the latest Paris fashions.

He's A Lady. Gracefully, James Taylor walks to his waiting fans.

Are they royalty? Mack Padgett and Travis Lights may be: they are this year's King Teens.

Wes White, Mackie Padgett, and Howell Sweat are on top of Walterboro High as Boy's State Representatives.

From the academically top twenty young men at WHS, Mack Padgett and Travis Lights were chosen to be this year's King Teens. The two young men were voted on by the junior teachers according to their academic standing and their ability in leadership.

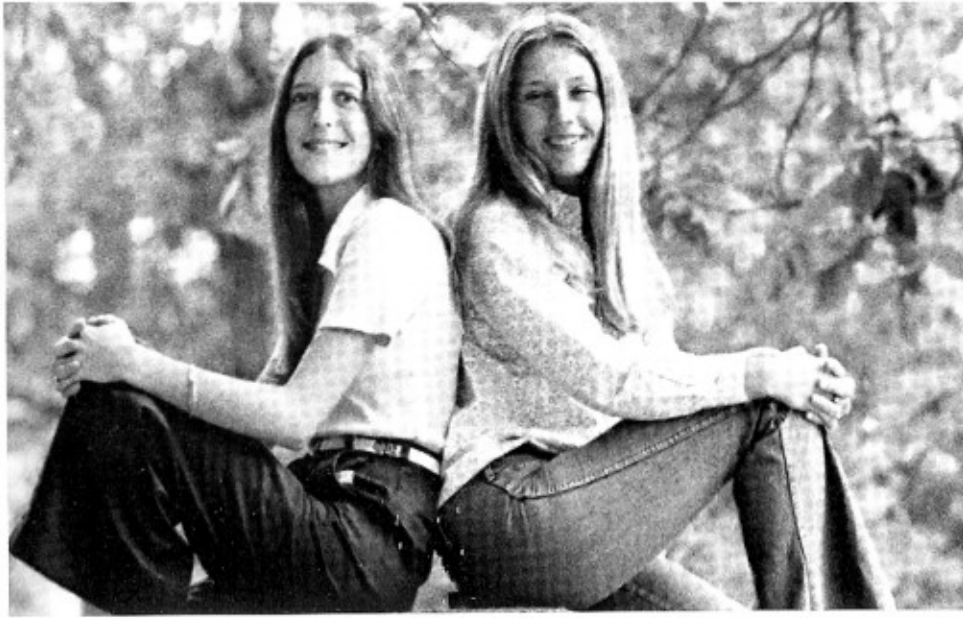

Daughters of the American Revolution sponsored the Good Citizenship Award and presented it to Sandy Socha. Received with this was a DAR pin and a certificate in recognition of Sandy's qualities of leadership, service, dependability and patriotism.

Louvenis Manigo was chosen to be a PSAT/NMSQT semi-finalist for 1975-76. To qualify for this award given to black students only, he or she must have a score of approximately 1100 on the PSAT/NMSQT. If a semi-finalist achieves a same or higher score on the SAT than on the PSAT, he may also receive a scholarship.

Brenda Manigo was elected secretary of the South Carolina State Broadcasting Association held in the Columbia Coliseum on April 17, 1975. Each district had four votes and of about ten districts, Brenda won by eight votes.

Active Students Exhibit Leadership

Last year Mrs. Skardon sent a list of junior National Honor Society members to the American Legion Auxiliary. From this list, Mack Padgett, Howell Sweat and Wes White were chosen as Boys' State Representatives. Jean Bishop and Julianne Stuck were selected as Girls' State Representatives with Grace Lyn Lyons and Beth Fox as alternates. These choices were made by the Auxiliary on the basis of leadership, character, scholarship and service.

Good Friends Back Each Other. Julianne Stuck and Jean Bishop, Girls' State Representatives, prove this is true as they wait for a photographer to snap their picture.

I Know I'm Right. Brenda Manigo, South Carolina State Broadcasting secretary discusses a point with Broadcasting club advisor Mr. Dreyer.

Just Hanging Around. Sandy Socha, Miss DAR, relaxes on the hood of her car before school starts.

"I'm not that smart," declares Louvenis Manigo. Louvenis was chosen as one of the National Merit State Qualifying Test semi-finalists.

50's Fashions In Style

Are the fifties back? Not quite, but the clothes that are being worn by the students at WHS this year are similar to those worn in the fabulous fifties. The girls especially are returning to the knee-length dresses that were so popular in those days.

Also frequently seen around WHS are such accessories as neck scarves and wide sashes. In the line of jewelry, large rings, puka shells, and necklaces with a single star are being worn by male and female alike.

Even though dress clothes are still popular, faded jeans and overalls are still a familiar sight and as always tennis shoes are at the top of the list of favorites.

CHECK'EM OUT! Also among the styles in boots are the desert style boot.

The popular mood ring darkens with the passion of the scene.

RIDING IN STYLE! Barbara Brown gets ready to take a spin in a Jam-Up corvette.

Jeans, one of the favorites in apparel at WHS, shared the number one spot with new styled overalls.

REACHING FOR THE STARS . . . Tammie Crosby wears the popular star necklace.

KEEPING UP WITH THE CURRENT FASHION, Grace Lyn Lyons is attired in a knee-length skirt.

THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR WALKING . . . Comfortable desert sand boots were a favorite on campus.

How'd They Get Up There? The 1975 ushers Minnilyn Byrd, Howell Sweat, Beth Fox, Rhonda Rhode, Joy Nettles, Whitney Stringfield, Tony Smith, Constance Hopkins, and Travis Beeson pose for yearbook pictures on the shelter over the sidesteps. Not shown is Christine Wagner.

What Do They Think They are Doing? Well the 1975 marshals are posing for pictures on the fire escape. The marshals are Julianne Stuck, Robert Hiott, Jim Williams, Jean Bishop, Mack Padgett, Blaine Lyons, Wes White, Celeste O'Quinn, and Louvenis Manigo.

Chalk one up for Women's Liberation at Walterboro High. The Senior class elected all female officers: (seated) Celeste O'Quinn, Louvenis Manigo, (standing) Deborah Brooks. (not pictured) Sandy Socha.

The Junior Class Executive Committee consisting of Mary Bowers, Marisette Broadney (seated) Tammie Crosby and Timmy Beach (standing) was formed second semester because two of the former officers were declared ineligible. (not pictured) Wayne Bryant.

Last Months of School Bring Many Activities

Is She Really An Author? Colleton County Historian, Beulah Glover, tells History Club Members about her studies of Colleton County.

That's Interesting! Members of the History Club listen with interest to the speakers present at the club's special spring meeting.

We Didn't know That! Wes White, Beth Bishop, and Claudia Baldwin learn something new at a yearbook workshop held last spring.

Spring arrived with a great flurry of activities. Clubs and special organizations held many programs and meetings before the last few weeks of school were over.

Special honor guests helped the history club learn more about local history when they held their party-meeting in the lunchroom. Buelah Glover, Colleton County Historian and author of several books on the subject of Colleton County spoke.

Workshops for the Junior yearbook staff were held in the room of Ms. Connie McIntyre. The students learned many things about the putting together of a yearbook.

The FTA talent show was also held in the last months of school. Many students participated in songs, dancing, and skits performed during the show.

"Just the three of us" isn't what Rhonda Rhode, Letty Mocha, and Christine Wagner were singing, but the three did a beautiful version of Touch the Wind in English and Spanish.

Don't! was the advice Cheryl Anderson's mother gave to her in the FTA skit, The Twelve Grades of High School.

One of the longstanding traditions of the Homecoming game is the election of a senior girl as Homecoming Queen. This year was no different. Each senior student was asked to turn in to his homeroom teacher the names of three senior girls as nominees for Homecoming Queen. The nominations were counted and the three girls with the most votes were then voted on by the football players.

During half-time at the Homecoming game, the three nominees, Mary Barnes, Jean Bishop, and Louvenis Manigo, were introduced to the fans. Then the winner was announced and Principal Mack Jones crowned Louvenis Manigo Homecoming Queen 1975.

October 14, 1975 was no ordinary day. The Bulldogs were to play the Berkley Stags in celebration of Homecoming that night and excitement was felt throughout the entire day.

Cheerleaders started the day's activities by selling special ribbons, shakers and pennants. At lunch several of the football players, as well as many students created a "pep train". They marched up and down the halls singing and cheering.

The height of the school day, however, came at the end of sixth period in the form of a pep rally. Students gathered in the gym to watch the skits, listen to the band, and cheer along with the cheerleaders.

The highlight of the evening was, of course, the game between the Mighty Bulldogs and the Stags. The Bulldogs, naturally, would not disappoint their fans and won the game with a final score of 13 to 17.

"Who loves ya, baby?" We do because Kojak is number one with us.

In October the yearbook staff polled the homerooms to find out who and what are the favorite celebrated people, things and events at WHS. We came up with some surprising winners and a few very obvious returnees. Good Times took the comedy slot with a landslide second only to that of The Young and the Restless in the soap opera category. Music is popular everywhere but especially in our halls at lunch. The Eagles and The Spinners tied for this spot, and sports and music also ran a close race for general passtime. Believe it or not, "Playboy" didn't even get in the finalists! Our students have voted for more conservative means such as "Jet", "Sports Illustrated", and two drama shows, Kojak and Medical Center. Kotter and the Sweathogs did break through, though, by being voted the favorite new show of the year. When asked about contrasting, more serious matters, our prospective 1976 voting students felt that President Ford will be returned to office for yet another term.

As a favorite passtime, Sports rated the highest. This may be due to the outstanding records set by our athletes this year.

"Hello there, Mr. Kotter!" Kotter and his Sweathogs were real favorites at Walterboro High.

The eligible voters at Walterboro High seem to consider Gerald Ford as a good bet in the 1976 elections.

The spotlight goes to Elton John and Al Green for the best male performers according to the WHS poll. The best movies chosen were "Jaws" and "Cornbread, Earl and Me." Taking another look at the best performer, we find Olivia Newton John and Millie Jackson being our female stars. The familiar "Peanuts" and "Blondie" cartoon characters were chosen as the most read comic strip. The favorite news source was the famous "T.V." set with the radio and newspaper running a close second and third. Finally, 380 students were planning to further their education. 180 plan to attend college; 101 said they will attend a tech school and the remaining 58 said they were unsure.

In the music and album phase of the students' lives, the Spinners and the Eagles were found most frequent.

The variety of interests of our students is reflected in their choice of favorite magazines- Ebony, Jet, and Sports Illustrated.

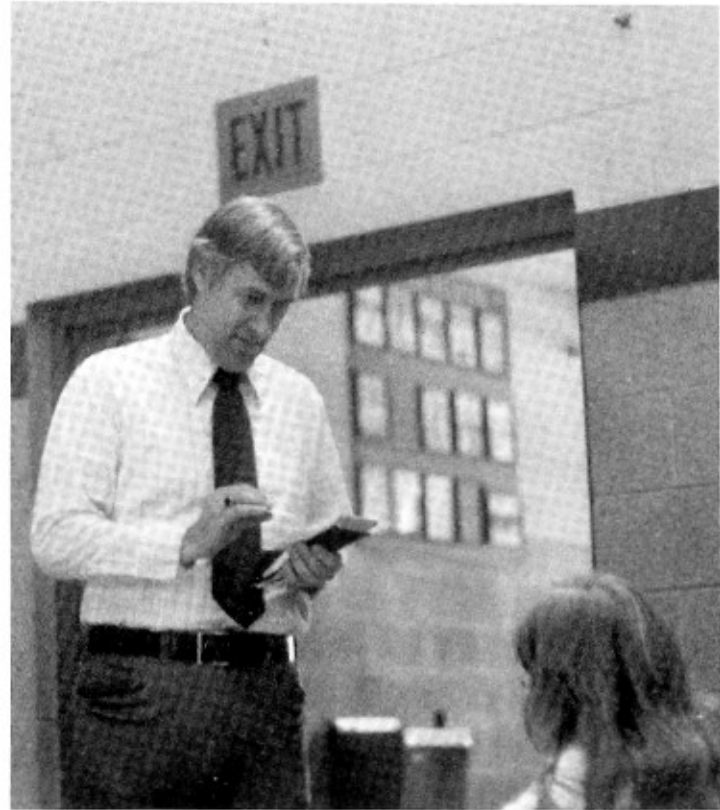

"Dy-no-mite!" That's how Jimmy Walker rates at WHS.

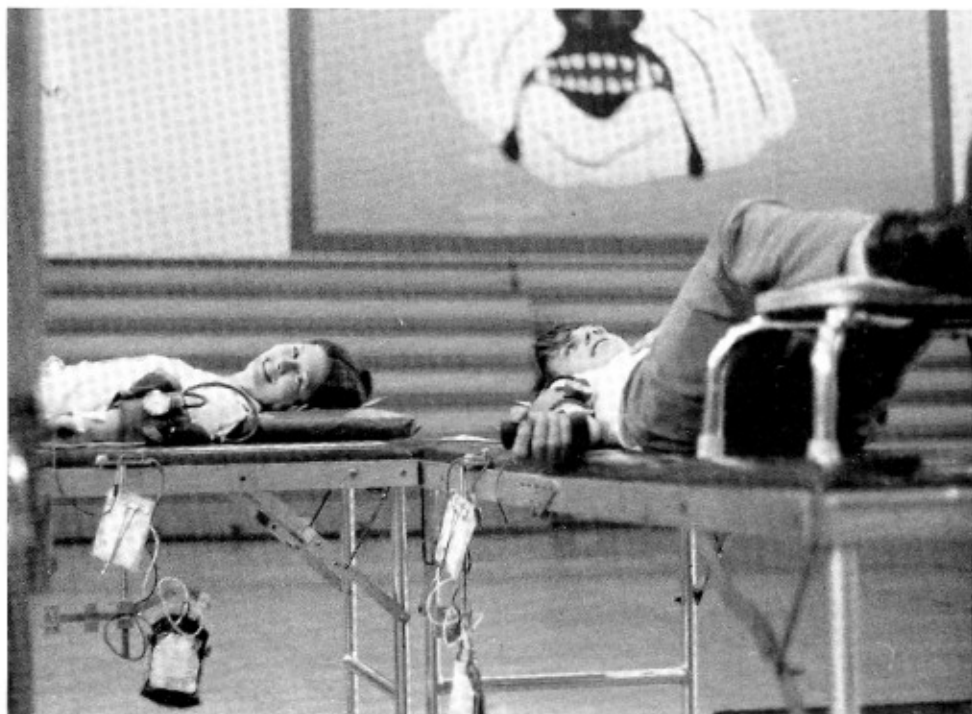

Sleeping on the job? Tim O'Quinn pauses for a few minutes rest as he gives blood.

Even Mr. Jones has to prove he is eligible to give blood as he pulls out a necessary card to give to Minnilynn Byrd.

Nurses and local volunteers arrived early November 3 to set up the gym for blood donors. Students over eighteen (seventeen with their parents' written permission) and with suitable medical histories were allowed to donate pints of blood to the Red Cross. Several teachers also participated in donating blood. All together the students and faculty contributed many much-needed pints of blood.

"I'm wounded" remarks Brian Gatch as he and Joy Nettles patiently wait while giving their pint of blood.

"Sing a song," says the eleven members of All State Chorus. "You may not make All State, but it may make you happy."

We did It! Glenn Seigler, Jean Bishop, and Rhonda Rhode smile proudly after having made Honors All State Chorus.

Tryouts for All State Chorus are held annually in Columbia. Required score to make All State is a 45 and anyone with 52 or above is selected for Honors All State.

This year the members of our chorus who tried out, practiced very hard for many months. In reward for this, fourteen students made All State.

All State Chorus members from W.H.S. were Celeste O'Quinn, Letty Mocha, Julie Crosby, Sandy Socha, Bonnie Carter, Stephen Carnie, Wes White, Wally West, Robie Crosby, Travis Beeson, and Paul McDurfee. Honors All State members were Jean Bishop, Rhonda Rhode, and Glen Seigler.

Activities Provide Entertainment.

Sho' I can play with this thing! Guard, Dottie Dribble will tell that to anyone.

Watch it, honey! Foward Betsy Backboard is worth watching.

Can they really do that? Members of the D. E. Club show surprise at finding that the Press and Standard prints not only the newspaper, but many other things.

Special occasions were at a height at WHS. Field trips and after school programs became more frequent and very popular. Sports drew increased attention from students. The Band traveled to several contests and received many awards for their fine performances.

Several clubs participated in field trips and other projects pertaining to their particular organizations. The Literary club visited the Dock Street Theater, the D. E. club visited the Press and Standard printing office, and the Science club visited the Canady's Electrical Plant.

Many things happened at school after hours such as the game between the California Cuties and Applebee's Darlings. The Cuties won against the local Darlings. Among the losing players were many prominent local celebrities.

"And the Band plays on." The Band of Blue performs one of the many exercises necessary for competition in the marching contests.

You call that a play? Coach Joel Rice confers with Bill Finnigan about the results of a play.

Surprise! Mrs. Buckner is pleasantly caught by the surprise gifts her chorus students gave her after the Chorus Christmas concert.

Two-Hundred Years are celebrated by the Spirits of '76, a community program that began with students at WHS.

Assemblies became one of the main attractions around WHS. There were of course the usual pep rallies during football season. Christmas brought the Chorus Concert and special programs by the Spirits of '76 held at Hampton Street Auditorium. Nearing spring the induction of new members into the National Honor Society was held in the gym.

Sports as always was a big attraction for crowds. Both football and basketball games drew huge crowds into the stands.

Hallelujah! sing chorus members during a segment of their annual Christmas concert.

"Does it hurt?" asks Coach Richard Starks to Kenny Broughton. Kenny suffered a broken bone just below his knee while playing basketball.

"We got spirit" screams excited fans at one of the many pep rallies held to raise the spirits of fans.

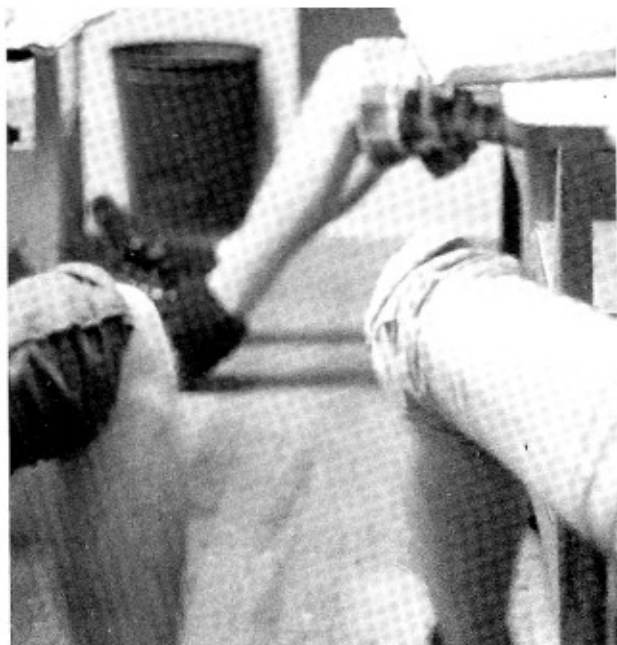

"I do solemnly vow" repeats the newly inducted members of the National Honor Society. The members were inducted in a special program held in the gym.

One, two, three, four. The Marching Band of Blue keeps in time to their music during the half time show at a football game.

All The Things We Used To Do

Cheerleaders Rendetta Cutler, Derelle Jamison and Wanda Ferguson discuss the upcoming pep rally.

"Those weren't my legs!" exclaims the guilty Whitney Stringfield.

Daydreaming . . . Joette Manigo ponders over how to make her one and only notice her.

"We've got legs! Proclaims Whitney Stringfield, Brady Howe, and Harold Whatley.

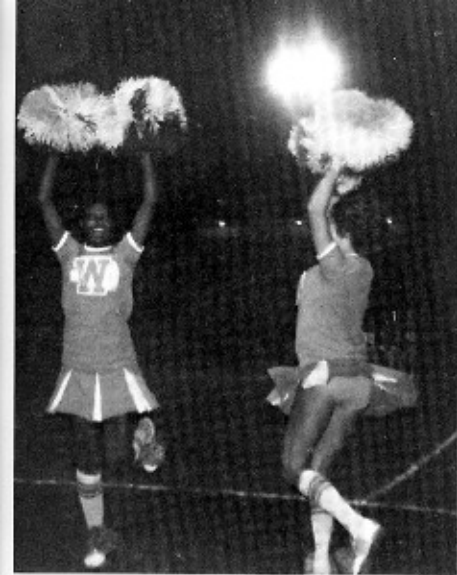

Back in our high school days we really did some crazy things. Remember the games and pep rallys, the leg contests, all the excitement yet there was always a quiet moment or two. It is bad to think that it is coming to an end. Only two years at Walterboro High School and then graduation. Ten, twenty, fifty years from now we'll look back and remember all the crazy things we use to do.

"I wanted you to take my picture, but this isn't what I had in mind!"

"What's happening?" Patricia Barnette, Tony Memminger, and Barbara Youmans wonder what could be next?

Dance to the Music! Cheerleaders Kathy Roberts and Linda Lawton dance as the band plays "Shaft."

The early spring weather brings happiness to Wanda Elkins.

What A Day . . . Band members Debbie Reynolds and Elizabeth Duck relax after practice.

Variety '76 Creates Excitement

Variety '76 became the largest undertaking ever recorded in the history of Colleton County entertainment. Months were spent in planning by Charlie Tuna and the Walterboro-Colleton County Recreation Commission before any rehearsals began. Then another two months were spent in the actual rehearsing of the show.

When it was all put together, Variety '76 was a show Walterboro would never forget. It consisted of two and one half hours of singing and dancing that was as fine as any produced in larger cities. Variety '76 was an impossible dream, but with the dedication and hard work of everyone involved and, especially, the director Charlie Tuna, the impossible became reality.

"Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is," sings Charlie Tuna in the opening song of Variety '76.

"This is fun," says Karen Jernigan and Steve Carnie in the number "Everything's Coming Up Roses."

"I'm the roughest, toughest . . .," boasts Mamyie Windham as Ma Barker in a humorous skit presented at the beginning of the show.

"Someday My Prince Will Come." Cassandra Moyihan performs her wishful song in the Golden Horseshoe section of Variety '76.

Step one! Kick one! Charlie Tuna and the chorus perform the opening number: "Everythin's Coming Up Roses."

Nineteen Hundred Seventy-five

If I could save time in a bottle, the first thing that I'd like to do is to save every memory of the great time we had the night of our Junior-Senior Prom. The band, Funny-Bone Express, from Augusta, Georgia played until we were too tired to dance any more.

If I could make days last forever, if words could make wishes come true, I'd wish that the nights of our prom and our Junior-Senior weekend could have lasted forever. But there never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you find them. I've looked around enough to know you're the one I want to go through time with.

"I wish they would play our kind of music" say Mr. Padgett as he and Mr. Oliver L. Barnes, Sr. watch the younger generation do their thing.

"I've got it now" says Mary Barnes as she gets a lesson in dancing from her partner Billy Smoak.

"Caught in the act" of taking a break are Robert Frakes and Cindy Simmons.

"Just the two of us," is all Mr. and Mrs. Jones are aware of as they take time off from dancing to have a talk.

"Where you lead I will follow," says Coach Smalls to Mrs. Smalls as they take advantage of an almost empty spot on the dance floor.

"Dance to the Music!" Many Couples get into step as the music begins for the next dance.

Newly Inducted National Honor Society Members were: (front row) Louise Williams, Constance Manigo, Margaret Griner, Cindy White, (rear) Mathias Chaplin, Melvin Williamson, Tammie Crosby, Maria Smith, Christa Arney, Marisette Broadney, Sandy Socha, Stacy Brink, Mary Bowers, Linda Beach, Jeanette Fishburne, Bonnie Carter, Wanda Elkins, Randall Nettles, and Timmy Beach.

That's great! No way! Jim Williams and Wes White express differing opinions about refreshments offered at the special NHS induction reception.

Groups filled the months after midterms with projects and activities. Trying to outrun the rush of research papers and other projects loaded on students at the last of school, groups held many activities in January and February.

The National Honor Society held its induction ceremonies on February 24. This year the new members were kept in suspense until just before their names were announced. Instead of having relatives of inductees witness the opening ceremonies, they were kept in a separate area until just before the list of new members was read. This way, no one knew who was to be inducted until time for the NHS pledge. After the program, old and new members and guests retired to the library for a reception.

The FFA held its annual Talent Show in the gym on January 26. Jean Bishop headed up a small committee to plan the program and they incorporated a fine group of talented students—singers, dancers, dramatists—who worked hard and performed well. Mr. Pendergrass added a special attraction by doing a little vocalizing of his own. Also, at lunch, Lu and the Grooves gave a special concert just for WHS and some of the students really "got down!"

Valentine Beauties

WITH HEAD UP AND SHOULDERS BACK, Charles Washington shows his form.

BASKETBALL BEAUTY! Basketball player Robin Gerideau showed she wasn't a complete tomboy when she won the Miss Queen of Hearts Contest. She was surrounded by her court, Linda Blocker, 2nd runner-up and Mary Barnes, 1st runner-up.

"That's nice," seems to be the comment of the WHS Bulldog as he watches Kathy Roberts, Mary Barnes, and Joanne Pierce perform in the FTA Talent Show.

February 13 was full of activities at both Walterboro and Colleton High. At CHS, students enjoyed the Mr. Valentine program presented in their gym. It was an interesting occasion as young men dressed as women and competed for the title. Dennis Green was crowned the winner.

At Walterboro High, time was spent appreciating authentic feminine beauty which was offered by the contestants in the Miss Queen of Hearts Contest. Robin Gerideau took top honors while Mary Barnes and Linda Blocker came in as first and second runners-up, respectively.

"Hustle Bulldogs Hustle!" was the chant of cheerleaders Mary Barnes, Julianne Stuck, and Derelle Jamison.

Football players Charles Breland and George Cochran hustled on the football field for WHS.

Methods Of Learning

Listen! That's the way Robert Wiggins learns.

The best way to learn is through one's own experiences!

Some folks learn through discussions as indicated by Tammy Crosby and Mike Hall.

One can learn through observation as demonstrated by history teacher, Mrs. Barnes.

Others learn from much reading and studying as does Travis Lights.

Away We Go!

Apparently these youngsters are enjoying life to the fullest. No one has to tell them, "Enjoy it while you can!" Some people go through life not seeing and enjoying the little things around them. Little people have the knack of getting pleasure out of everything they do.

Once we have all grown up, those times are gone forever, lost amidst the responsibility and time associated with making it in this world.

Now our high school days have come to an end we have left all these things with only memories of the past and dreams for the future.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Walterboro High School Student Council is really a student government. Each class elects a representative and alternate at the beginning of the year. Officers are elected in the spring of the previous year. These elected officers meet every first and third Tuesday of each month. Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Mrs. Margaret Lytchfield, and Mr. Walter Pelzer serve as the council's sponsors. The main objectives of the Student Council are to: try to resolve problems within the school, to instill the ideals of citizenship, cooperation and leadership, to encourage student participation in school activities and to provide for the general improvement of our school.

Student Council Officers: Secretary Mary Barnes, Parliamentarian Julianne Stuck, President Mack Padgett, Treasurer Beth Bishop, Members at Large Cassandra Oliver, and Louise Williams, Asst. Treasurer Wanda Ferguson.

During a Student Council meeting Derelle Jamison listens attentively.

Painting the bathrooms was one of the Student Council projects. Caught on the job are Glen Seigler, Rhonda Thode, Mary Ann Carter, and Travis Lights.

Student Council sponsors Mrs. Lytchfield, Mr. Pelzer, and Mrs. Barnes discuss upcoming Student Council activities.

I tried! Robert Marvin discusses his design for the proposed student parking lot.

“Complainity” was one of the favorite pastimes at WHS. Among the most often heard complaints were those about the parking spaces (or rather the lack of them), the decrepit condition of the school building, and anything else that seems to warrant a fuss. It would be unfair to assume that this time was wasted since most of the objects of complaints really needed to be discussed.

One of the most talked about problems at WHS was the physical condition of our school. Many jokes have been spread about the number of times our building has been condemned. This wasn't the only object of unhappy students. The condition of the driveways in front and behind the school building was also a frequent subject of discussion.

The lack of parking spaces, which has plagued students since the closure of Strickland Street, was partially alleviated with the clearing of the lot next to the school grounds. This lot is to be levelled and paved eventually for complete student use, but the date of these wonderful renovations is still a mystery to all.

YUK! That was the word for the condition of many of the bathrooms at WHS before the Student Council cleaned them up.

Heave! Cindy White and Sharon McNeil help clean up the lot to be made into a student parking lot.

They call that a nourishing lunch? We call it junk. This is one of the attempts of school dieticians to come up with a nutritious and well balanced lunch. Not even fancy names could save this one though. What horrible disaster led to this delight of indigestion is unimaginable. Even a dozen Alka-Seltzers and a gallon of Pepto Bismol could not help the poor innocent victims of this so-called lunch.

Are we really expected to eat that? It seems that we are, but many students feel it is safer to leave campus to find something better. Although this is forbidden, no one can blame us. Still, they wonder why we cut!

Rugged country describes the drive that runs in front of the school.

Didn't they condemn that place? The old band room presents a sorry sight in its terrible condition.

ACTIVITIES

We are the proud beavers of thirteen active clubs. They are divided into two groups which meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. Some clubs help acquaint students with occupations while others offer background in such subjects as history, science and Radio Broadcasting.

Sponsors of these clubs are teachers who have dedicated much of their time to make the clubs successful.

It is up to the officers and members to decide what type of program they wish to have. However, it was found that most of the clubs were more concerned with refreshments than with the business at hand.

Many prominent citizens were invited to be guest speakers. Trips were scheduled and fund raising projects were planned.

Several organizations reached milestones this year. The band obtained a new name: "Band of Blue." Other things to celebrate included a pay raise for busdrivers, the founding of the Lumberjack Club, and the first male president of Future Teachers of America. Also, a record number of twelve made All State Chorus.

HARMONY

Chorus members combined hard work, determination, and long hours to obtain happiness. They had the chance to pass on this happiness to others as they presented their annual concerts.

"Christmas is Forever" was the theme of the 1975 Christmas Concert held on December 14. Songs ranged from traditional to contemporary. The music for Spring Concert incorporated the twelve months of the year.

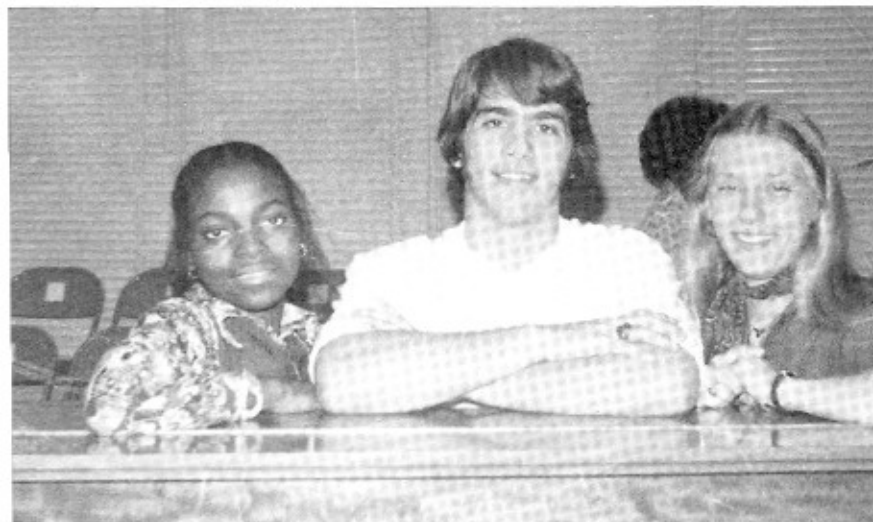

The chorus was fortunate to have had two talented accompanists . . . Leadership responsibilities fell on the student directors as they kept study halls and carried on in Mrs. Buckner's absence. Minnilynn Byrd, assisted by Jeanette Pollard, handled financial affairs, while Rhonda Rhode and Brenda Manigo acted as librarians.

Sixteen chorus students auditioned for All-State Chorus. A record number of fourteen was selected. Three persons earned positions in the Honor's Chorus.

Music fundamentals were stressed in Chorus I. Meeting fifth period, the small class of girls enjoyed singing and learning basic music theory.

Mrs. Buckner continued to be a constant source of inspiration and vitality to her students. She willingly gave of her time as she taught at three schools. Past students will always remember her, present students love and respect her, and future students look forward to being a part of her chorus.

STUDENT DIRECTORS Deborah Brooks, Melvin Williamson, Jean Bishop held positions of leadership in chorus.

WHAT WOULD WE DO WITHOUT THEM? Accompanists Kathy Smith and Julie Crosby were indispensable.

"BAND OF BLUE"

A new feeling of pride was instilled in the band members as well as in the citizens of our community when the band adopted the name "Band of Blue."

The title seemed to have a magic effect. It compelled the musicians to strive harder to be number one. Their efforts proved worthwhile as much success was achieved.

The year began with practice for appearances at football games, pep rallies, and marching contests. Spectators were held spellbound by the "Band of Blue's" intriguing routine. Their performances also impressed judges, which resulted in their winning superior trophies at Coastal Carolina and Southern States Marching Contests. The band was awarded an excellent rating at the State Marching Contest in Spring Valley.

There was no slowdown in the busy schedule after marching season. All-State, Eastern Region, the Pops Concert and Spring Concert kept band students occupied. Much time, work, dedication were required as the band participated in the initiation ceremony for the Spirits of '76, Colleton County's Rice Festival and graduation exercises.

The Band students were rewarded for their faithfulness to their responsibilities with a trip to Six Flags Over Georgia. "Band of Blue" you truly made us proud of you this year.

In developing proficient and efficient farms, FFA is aiming for leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

They will participate in local and district FFA contests including Soil and Livestock Judging, Land Treatment and Parliamentary Procedures. In February they observed National Future Farmers of America Week.

Members of the Distributive Education Club receive on the job training in sales, advertising and marketing. Mr. Jarvis sponsors the club and works with the employers in placing and training the students. The D.E. Club is a branch of the D.E. classes and is the social side of the academic and vocational training the students receive.

Future Business Leaders of America helps develop competent and aggressive business leaders. Through their meetings the members learned how to conduct business and how to become efficient business leaders.

The Trade and Industries Club is designed to inform students of jobs and help place them. Since it is job related it has helped many students grow in the business world.

MALE LIB

The first Future Teachers of America was founded at Walterboro High Oct. 21, 1938 by Mrs. Ruth Thomas. Mrs. Thomas' organization was the beginning of a nationwide program. Since the founding of the name has been changed to Student Action for Education but Walterboro High has retained the original title of FTA to honor its organizer. In the FTA's 38 years it has only had three sponsors: Mrs. Ruth Thomas, founder, Mrs. Leitha Stroud and its present advisor Mrs. Laura Lynn Hughes.

Projects achieved by the FTA included the annual talent show and the opportunity for each member to teach in the elementary or junior high schools. Teacher Appreciation Day was held in the spring.

A MALE PRESIDENT OF FTA? Travis Beeson calls the meeting to order.

Comedy, drama and reporting; creativity, imagination, and spirit; hardwork, fun and enjoyment: This was Broadcasting 1975-1976. The club highlighted the school life at W.H.S. It was the students' response to a week at 803 Hampton Street. The club, for the students and by the students, expressed the free spirit of Bulldog life.

Through the help of Radio Station WALD, students were informed, entertained, and educated. The program was broadcast every Sunday at 1:30 P.M. In a period of crises and recession, the W.H.S. Broadcasting Club lifted hopes of a few while entertaining the many.

FACT AND FICTION

Curiosity about the past, appreciation of the present and anticipation for the future was the History Club's desire. Since this was the Bicentennial year, it was an opportune time for its members to absorb all knowledge possible about their heritage.

The Literary Club educated students in various fields of literature. Guest speakers included a journalist who furthered the member's knowledge in the world of news. A trip was made to Dock Street to see Oscar Wilde's play, "The Importance of Being Ernest."

Languages and Layouts

Spanish and French came alive for the members of the Foreign Language Club. The club's main objective was to learn about cultures in order to develop a better understanding and appreciation of the people and their language.

The highlight of the year was the club's participation in the Foreign Language Day activities in the spring in Columbia.

Preparing juniors for the task of producing an annual was the function of the Annual Club. The advisor, Mrs. Blue and the senior staff instructed the group in preparing copy, drawing layouts, photography, and ad sales techniques.

BLOWUPS AND BLOWOUTS

Introducing interested students to the world of engineering and technology was the aim of the Science Club. Mrs. Lytchfield led the club in exploring scientific areas outside of school. During the year the club enjoyed field trips to the Canadys Electric Plant and the Medical University of South Carolina.

A new awareness of the heritage of black people was sought by the Afro-American Club. Members used an assembly, the bulletin board, and the Bicentennial minutes to enlighten others to the customs, culture, and accomplishments of our black forefathers.

ORDER! ORDER! Mack Padgett presides with authority during a meeting.

Providing for general improvement of Walterboro High, instilling high ideals of citizenship, and encouraging student participation in school activities—these were the goals of student council. Student Council and its committees accomplished much this year. A parking lot adjacent to the school was cleaned and used, bulletin boards were maintained, a trash can contest was held and then the receptacles were placed around the school. Munerous dances were sponsored and an alma mater was accepted. All these things helped to create and foster a spirit of understanding and cooperation between students and faculty.

Fresh Off The Press

The newspaper staff had the job of informing the students of school happenings. For the first time students had the chance to buy a year's subscription to "The Bulldog". A new format was also used this year. Outstanding events were recognized and readers were entertained by each issue. Those working as staff members gained valuable experience in journalism and photography.

Our Driving Forces

These two clubs, in a sense, are the "driving forces" of our school. Literally the bus drivers are and figuratively speaking the Pep Club is. Through their enthusiasm and spirit the members of the Pep Club drive our athletic teams to victory. They attend home games as well as out of town games carrying the Bulldog spirit. This organization assists the cheerleaders in arousing the emotions and voices of the fans.

Driving a bus can be trying, but it also entrusts the student drivers with a great responsibility, the lives of thousands of young people. These young men and ladies keep very different hours from other students. They leave their beds as early as six o'clock and return home as late as five o'clock. But without our bus drivers there would be no school!

TIMBER!

Lumberjacks, Walterboro High's newest club, strived to strengthen students' confidence in themselves and to develop leadership. They participated in local and state pulpwood contests, Harvesting Field Day, and visited industries in the area. Their float won them third prize in the Christmas parade.

The National Honor Society stressed the ideas of scholarship, leadership, character, service. Meetings were held monthly. Several local personalities, including city manager Tuck McConnell and school psychologist Salvador Ingles spoke to the group.

NHS members presented a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family, sponsored a Toys for Tots drive in December, and held a bake sale in the spring. They also participated in a district rally at Summerville.

The organization was under the leadership of Mrs. Gerry Skardon. Julianne Stuck and Wes White were selected by their fellow members to compete for National Honor Society scholarships.

CLASSES

If you're happy of course you smile. Often you wondered what there was to smile about. Stop and think; there were small events to celebrate and shout about and those should have brought a smile to your face or maybe even a grin.

This year students weren't faced with the inconvenience of reporting to homeroom every morning. It was really aggravating having to come to school just for homeroom if you didn't have first period class. If you were lucky enough to have a third period study hall you got a head start on every one else by being first in the lunch line.

What else was there for students to celebrate or smile about? Those crafty enough managed to trick the guidance counselors into letting them schedule work instead of classes during fifth and sixth periods, and then since they couldn't find a job, they had those two hours to walk the halls. One student was grateful to the computer for giving him four study halls.

There were other little events worthy of celebrating; Whenever that sickening teacher was absent, and lovable Mrs. Shook replaced her, the day when the bells rang completely off schedule, getting out of school early for the Christmas parade and remember all those activities that caused your classes to be interrupted or even missed!

I bet you can't tell I like smiling for Cameras!

Picture Problems

Seniors pictures were quite a mystery around the campus this year, and we all began to wonder if they were going to come back. They were made in September and problems had already arisen. Many male students refused to wear ties and some even got as tacky as to have their photographs made with hats on. The proofs took approximately two months to return to us and we did not receive the final prints until March. The company lost many of our faculty pictures and the annual black and whites came to us very scrambled and in much disarray. The Senior Yearbook staff sincerely hopes that next year's staff finds a way to alleviate these problems.

Senior pockets were really emptied this year. The last year of school was a financial burden to many. There seemed to be more "necessary" items or souvenirs than in previous school years.

The largest expense during the junior year was the class ring, but some seniors put that off until their senior year which strained the pockets and pocket books even more. A ring was priced as high as $70.

Another important memento was the senior key which ranged in price from $6 to $10. Then senior pictures arrived, and some students had rather expensive tastes when it came to ordering their full-color images. The college bound found that expenses got out of hand before they were even accepted at the school of their choice. Application fees, the SAT and transcripts were a financial pain.

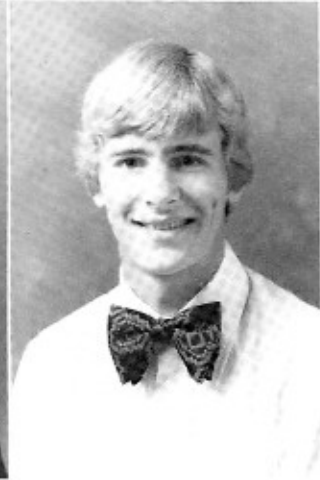

Last but not most important the graduation caps and gowns had to be ordered. Of course invitations had to be bought and thank you notes so that all gifts could be acknowledged.

Those seniors lucky (or unlucky?) enough to have jobs did far better than those dependent upon their parents for all income. This was indeed good experience and preparation for life in the adult world; but it also might have made some wonder if they were ready for that step.

Mug Shots

Identification cards were used for the first time this year and it was a hectic day when the cards were made.

Students really took advantage of the situation — some constructively and others not so constructively. The former group assisted the photographers by doing paperwork and attempting to handle the noisy and excited crowds. The other students had a super time prolonging their wait in line in order to stay out of classes and also took this time to converse with friends.

Surprisingly the picture taking activity went smoothly and all students and faculty present were photographed before lunch.

SENIORS' CONTEMPLATION

As Seniors there was much that we needed to impress upon the underclassman. Being a senior was much more than just completing four years of high school; it carried with it responsibilities of leading the student body and setting examples which underclassman should have proudly followed.

High School, as a testing ground, prepared the mind and body. Our personalities, outlooks, and habits were molded and reshaped again so that we might be the best individual possible.

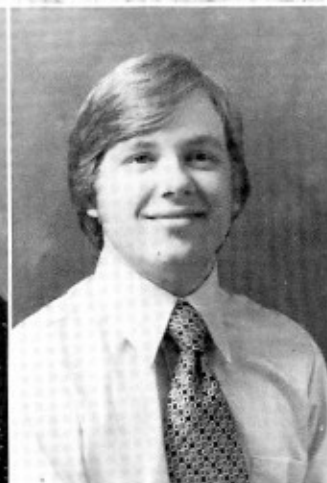

Now, that we have received the best training possible we face the realities of the world. We learned in high school to meet each challenge calmly and with a determination that will enable us to overcome any obstacle. With this conclusion we say good-bye to "Good ol' W.H.S." reluctantly.

Juniors Arrive

Hey! Juniors, remember our first year at Walterboro High? What was it like?

At the first of school we all were frightened and worried. That's really not uncommon. Most students are a little scared when they enter a new school for the first time. "How will I ever find my way around this big school?" asked many lost juniors.

Well, now the time has arrived for all juniors to become seniors! Next year will be the same. We'll all be running around like a flock of chickens when the bell rings to start school for our last year at Walterboro Senior High School. As seniors, we will help the incoming juniors become a part of our school's history, just as we have made our mark on Walterboro High.

December 10th was a red letter day for the junior class. Class rings, symbols of "senior status" arrived in time for Christmas.

The juniors were eager to show off their treasures. Whether you were interested or not you had to look and admire; and some were worthy of admiration. The stones were every color of the rainbow; priced from $45 to $95 and ranging from size 4 up to size 12! Settings could be gold or silver with designs indicating various school activities such as chorus, athletics and academic symbols.

Time passed very quickly once we made it to high school. It seems only yesterday we were in junior high and suddenly we found ourselves at Walterboro High. Even though the years raced by it was amazing how slowly three o'clock came and Fridays came even more slowly.

It really does slip up on you — time that is. Just this year we're celebrating our country's 200th birthday and our school's 50th anniversary. Sooner than we realize the class of '77 will be celebrating their tenth class reunion.

Worries

Headaches

Salaries

Can you believe some of these students? This seems to be what Mr. Smoak is asking Mr. Carmicheal as they stand in the hall.

Being on the Faculty isn't just worries, Headaches, and salaries, it's also teaching, as Mrs. Talford proves here.

MENTORS

In case you don't know what mentors means — don't feel bad — not many people do! Mr. Dreyer came up with the fabulous idea to use it.

After looking in dictionaries and encyclopedias, this is what we found . . .

Mentor was a faithful friend of Ulysses, whom he trusted with the care of his domestic affairs during his absence in the Trojan War. Thus the education of Telemaches, Ulysses's son, befell upon him. When young Telemaches set out on his voyage in search of his father, he was accompanied by Mentor, who served as his teacher.

Since this time "mentor" has come to mean "a teacher or instructor."

Hey you guys cut it out! Mrs. Simmons tries to keep order in class.

Teachers really know what to celebrate. They celebrate everything from babies to Senior cut day. This year we have had three teachers to become parents. Mr. Haltiwanger's wife had a baby. Ms. Johnson and Ms. Bridwell both had babies, also we've had a marriage. Coach Simmons and Miss Nimmons were married on December 21.

Talking about coaches; our new head coach is fantastic! Coach Rice has come up with a super team of Bulldogs. Mr. Atmore, another new member of our faculty and his band participated in one of the well-known New York Christmas parades. Keeping with music Mr. Young has done a great job improving our band.

Faculty also celebrates Ms. Pearce. She keeps the state attendance register and they really come up with a super celebration on pay day.

Holidays are favorites. Their favorite is Christmas 'cause it's the longest and that's when Santa comes. They also find Thanksgiving and Easter interesting. They even think weekends are relaxing. One teacher was heard saying T. G. I. F. (thank God it's friday). The favorite time of the whole year is the end.

And senior cut day, that's the happiest day of a teacher's life. Can you imagine—a day without students?

Mrs. Annette Johnson-English Voc., English II & III Aca.
 Mrs. Margaret Lytchfield-Chemistry, Physics.

 Mrs. Christine Stoble — Secretary

Don't take my picture! Ms. Shook turns away from the camera.

Caught Ya! Coach Smalls and Mr. McMillian question a student about being out of class.

Can I help you? Coach Rice looks up as someone enters.

What a day! Ms. Hamilton sighs after a hard day.

Resting? No, just trying to get things together! Mr. Pendergrass leans for a minute.

It's All Part of Teaching

Let's get it straight! Minnilyn Byrd, Mrs. Skardon, and Beth Fox make preparations for the N.H.S. ceremony.

Affectionally known as Mr. Neely, Mr. Ackerman served the Transportation Dept. for four years. Cooperation, kindness, loyalty, and a good sense of humor were trade marks of the man with the busses. "Mr. Neely," the bus driver would say, "You need a substitute?" Ironically we will never get a substitute for Mr. Neely.

"Where have you been?" Mrs. Hughes seems to be asking Harold Whatley.

Do you think so? Mrs. Gaskin and Mrs. VonLehe discuss seniors.

Mr. Haltiwanger, Coach Rice, and Mr. Jarvis have a general discussion on life.

Mr. Haltiwanger waits for the bell.

Yes—Mr. Jones! Ms. Fowler's class enjoys a party.

A pencil belongs there, Mr. Dreyer! Mr. Dreyer carries out the duties of being a teacher by keeping his pencil sharpener working.

Ouch! Mrs. Talford does some small stitches by hand.

"Hold me tight!" Coach and Mrs. Simmons dance close at Jr.-Sr.

La clase no comprende! Miss Frasier explains Spanish articles to her class.

Hello!!

Watch the film students! Mrs. Litchfield explains nuclear fission to Chemistry students.

Winners

Hard working

Spirited

It became harder and harder to block Kenneth's shot.

Cleveland Bouges, David Whay, and Charles Breland watch the game and are able to smile at the results.

SPORTS

The arrival of Mr. Joel Rice as athletic director ushered in a new era in our sports history. Football, as always, proved to be a favorite among the fans. Our thrilling victory over Summerville produced an air of excitement that lasted for days. Long hours of practice and lots of determination paid off as the Bulldogs, for the first time, went to the 4-AAAA play-offs.

Praise and hopes were high as basketball season began. Although our won-loss record was not the greatest, Coach Simmons and the team never gave up the fight. Several games were lost by only a few points. We were proud to have two basketball players, Joe Mack Bright and Stevie Peters, named to the all-conference team.

Golf and track were not among the most popular sports at Walterboro High, however, we were well represented at various events throughout the year.

Spring brought along a new surge of spirit in baseball. The team under the leadership of Coach Applebee, with their new uniforms, made a great showing.

Our 1975-76 sports program truly gave us reason to celebrate!

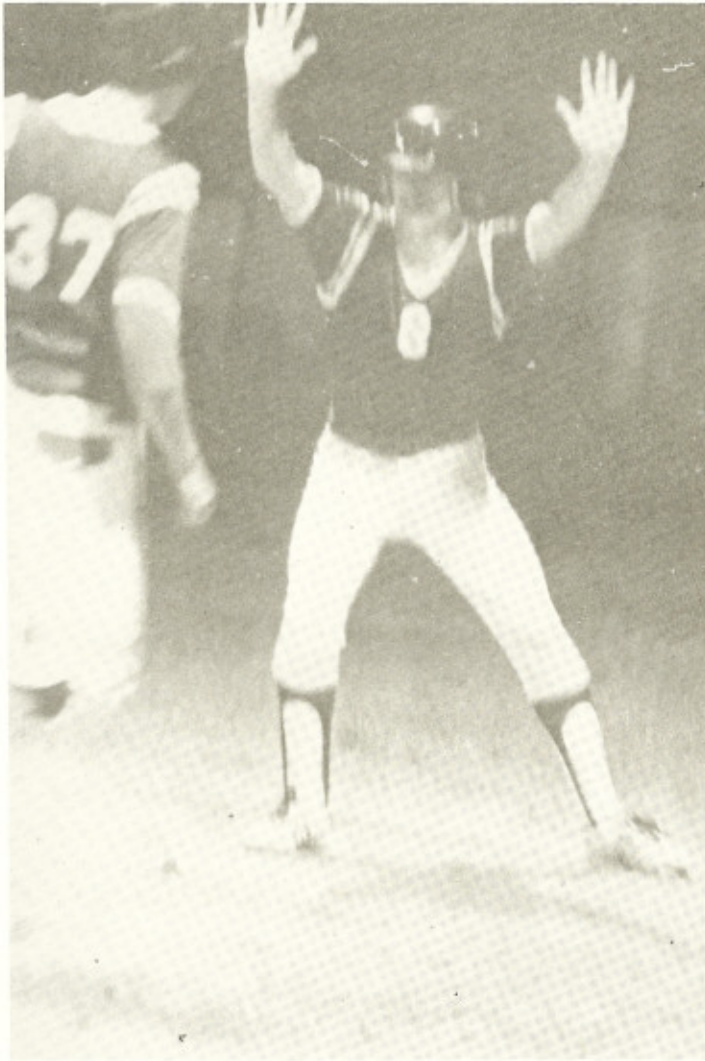

Practice! Practice! Practice! Does it really make perfect? The JV team certainly knows that.

Whe-e-e! Mark Herrin is slipping into the darkness as he scores one of the runs for the night.

Hey guys, what are you looking at? The baseball team watches as their teammate goes to bat.

Hold up! Coaching third base, Casey Price stops Nick Pinckney.

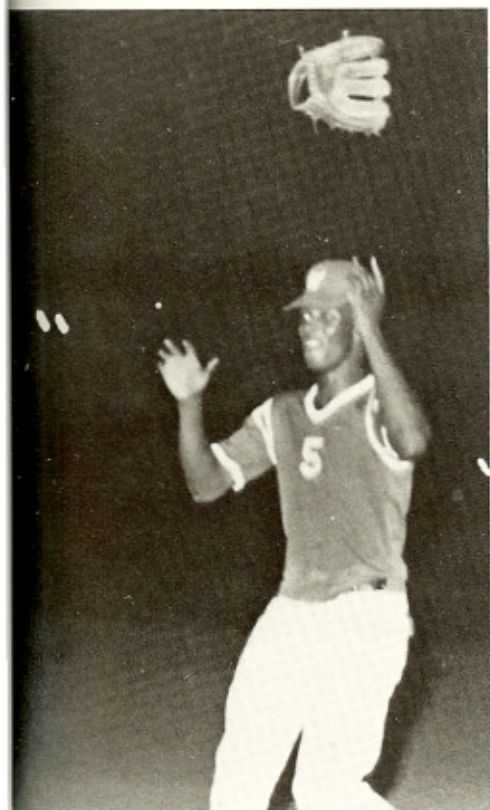

We did it! We did it! "The Juice" Raymond Ford and Mike Drawdy come together in glorious jubilation after the game is over and they have a victory.

Dogs Prove That Their Bite Is Worse Than Their Bark Bulldogs Stand Superior In Baseball

Smashing describes how our baseball season got under way. Of the eighteen games we played, we lost four games by a margin of one run. The action started off booming. By the fourth game the action temporarily slowed down. We lost the next two games to St. Andrews and Battery Creek. The energetic boys refused to be defeated. We came back full of energy, to claim victory over Summerville, Wando, Roberts, and Berkley. The highlight of this season was the second game with St. Andrews. Raymond Ford set a school record for striking eighteen outs in one game. The game was won with a score of 20-3.

There was only one homerun this season. Bert Bazzle hit it in the game against St. Andrews. We were victorious over Battery Creek. The best player award wasn't given this season. To us, each of our boys deserved the best player award.

"Nice try Nick, but I'm a fast one!" A St. Andrews Rock slips past third baseman Nick Pinckney.

Coach Rice and Raymond Ford, one of the team superstars, show their delight while observing the ball which Raymond sent out of the park. Raymond's homerun was a great aid in our win over Wando, 3-0.

... and it's another homerun! The Bulldogs blasted their way through the 1976 season with a 14-4 record and became the 7-AAAA conference champs. They went on to the district playoffs with hopes of winning the state finals. Raymond Ford, Nick Pinckney, and Vic Radcliffe made up the strong pitching staff, and almost every man on the team managed at least one homer.

All home games were played at the new industrial park instead of at the stadium. This possibly weakened game attendance until the Bulldogs proved their strength and made a reputation for themselves. WHS is very proud of these fine, young representatives of our school.

"I've got you. Now I'll try for another." Billy Smoak tags one out and tries for another one.

"I've made it chump!" Melvin makes it not a minute too soon.

WOW! Steve, Great tee! Too bad you only needed a putt. Steve Powell tees off in a goal match.

Victories Were Not A Major Factor

Steve Powell, Robbie Hogan, Wes White, Brad Bradley, James Ackerman and Steve Till, were the backbone of the golf season. The boys were coached by Danny Thomas. Victories weren't a major factor in this season but the young team was spirited and had the desire to win. Only one senior was on the team. Even though there weren't many victories, they gained valuable and much needed playing experience.

Don't forget to hit the ball: Wes White puts in a goal match.

Not too hard, Wes. Wes White tries to tip the ball in the eighteenth hole.

PREAMBLE OF THE BULLDOGS

Varsity Football Scoreboard

Walterboro	14	Battery Creek	12

Walterboro	13	Summerville	7
Walterboro	40	Roberts	2
Walterboro	16	Berkeley	0
Walterboro	7	St. Andrews	6
Walterboro	13	Berkeley	9
Walterboro	41	Gaffney	6
Walterboro	12	Goose Creek	20
Walterboro	21	Wando	6
Walterboro	20	Keenan	7
Walterboro	14	Summerville	6

When in the course of Bulldog history it becomes necessary for one team to destroy the teams which they play, and to rely upon the laws of training, and the demanding and explosive powers to which the rules of the Coach entitle them, a decent respect for the people who support them requires that they declare the causes which impel them to their wins.

We hold these truths to be self-evident that all Bulldogs are endowed by the Coach with certain rights, that among these are: battling, stomping, and crushing any other team to win.

Where are you going Coach? Coach Stark walks around while the team warms up.

Those dummies lost the ball! Nick Pinckney goes for the loose pigskin as one of the Dolphins watch carefully.

Dogs Swallow Dolphins

This was a crucial game for both teams. The game was tied at the beginning of the 3rd quarter and we made some costly mistakes. First we almost lost the game because of interceptions; fumbles also were a major factor in the game being so close and hectic. A pass from Nick Pinckney to Charles Price was the first maner to put us on the score board. As the game continued, Brady Howe added some extra points to the game, with point conversions. These points proved to be the winning points of the game.

"Here I go, mud and all." Raymond Ford, "the Juice", goes for some yardage.

Dogs Ride The Green Waves

Get down! Floyd Ferguson is thrown down by his opponent as Charles Breland comes to lend a helping hand.

Let me through! Let Me through! Gary Bodison tries to come through while Ted Brown clears the way.

Don't know what hit you do you? Bernard Grant slaps his opponent to the ground.

You can't get me! Jerry Cockrum runs toward the end zone as Tony Smith clears the way with the help of Ted Stanfield.

Hallelujah! For the first time in 14 years the Bulldogs finally rode on top of the Green Waves. Unfortunately, this victory was without the help of Teddy Brown, Tony Memminger and Billy Smoak who were sidelined because of injuries.

All players played far beyond their potential; but the defensive team was the star of this game. On the left side stood Bobo Stanfield, Dunky Crosby, David Whay, and Brady Howe. On the right stood Lester Robinson, Charles Breland, Bernard Grant, Floyd Ferguson and Dean Glover. Casey Price slapped the ball out of Summerville's hands, and ran the first touchdown.

The offensive team got jealous and wanted to get in the show. Behind blocking Stuart Crosby, Cleveland Boughes; Ted Stanfield, Reginald McNeil, Lander Manigo, and the Smith brothers (Tony and Nickie), Nick Pinckney let loose and threw what was called by the Walterboro fans, "the big BOMB." "The Juice", Raymond Ford received it and burst through to make the second touchdown. At this time we backed off and allowed Summerville to make seven points. Then, Gary Bodison and Jerry Cockrum turned the tables on the Green Waves, keeping their team in possession of the ball. The game was over. Hallelujah!! We did it!!

What are they doing? Coach R. Starks watches and worries.

They got me! They got me! Jerry Cockran is taken down by his opponents. Reggie McNeil, Lander Manigo, and Gary Bodison come to his rescue.

Let's see how you look on your head! Dunkey Crosby stops his opponents, as his team mates run to help.

Dogs Tear Tigers To Pieces

Get off me you clown. Raymond Taylor is taken down on the way to the end zone.

Dynamite is the only word that describes the game we played Friday. Our first big break came right after the opening kick-off. Nick Pinckney was the first to put us on the score board. A few minutes later we put seven more points on the board. Roberts fumbled the ball and it flew in midair for Lester Robinson to stop on the eleventh yardline. Raymond Ford, "The Juice," ran it in the end zone making the score 12-0. Brady Howe added his contribution of a one point conversion. Early in the second quarter Melvin Williamson passed the pigskin to Bobo Stanfield who received it in the end zone. Four minutes later we set up an outstanding run, led by Cleveland Bouges who was clearing the way for Raymond Ford who ran the ball in the end zone. Brady Howe then did his job with an after point. Melvin Williamson decided he wanted a piece of the action. He stole the ball away from Roberts and ran the fifth touchdown of the night. Later in the third quarter Raymond Taylor ran three yards and Nick Pinckney ran thirty-seven yards into the end zone. That was the final score of the night.

Stags Gives Dogs Homecoming Victory

We got a touchdown! The players scream out with joy when they get a touchdown.

Stardom is where this game would carry us and it would also decide whether we would make the playoffs.

Gary Bodison, Raymond Taylor, Jerry Cochran, "The Juice" Raymond Ford and Nick Pinckney with their outstanding skills in running attacks brought the record up to 6-1 overall and 4-0 in the conference. We were tops until the third quarter. Scott King footed a 27 yard field goal. The tables turned; and the Stags were in the lead but we wouldn't allow them to cover any ground. Bobo Stanfield went into action by intercepting a pass, setting us up for a touchdown. A 21 yard pass to Charles Price by Nick Pinckney moved us closer to the end zone. Jerry Cochran ran the end zone.

After intercepting a pass Melvin Williamson was left holding the ball as the clock ran out.

I said stop! Raymond Taylor takes down one of the Stags.

Get away from me tur-key! Raymond Taylor pushes one of the Stags as he heads toward the end zone.

Watch Out we'er coming to get you. Charles Price and Danny Williams take control in the game against Gaffney!

Oh He's got me!
Nick Pinckney tries to get away as two of the Gaffney Indians attack him.

I'm the wind! Jerry Cochran flies toward the end zone.

Dogs Scalped Indians

Gaffney presented our sixth winning victory. Bobo Stanfield stole the ball from the Indians. By doing this, Bobo Stanfield gave his teammates a field position on their own forty-seventh yardline. Jerry Cochran got the ball and ran fifteen yards. At this time, a one yard penalty was called on us for clipping, but that did not stop Jerry who came right back and ran fourteen yards, turned around and ran four more. By this time Raymond Taylor got the idea and ran seventeen yards. Nick Pinckney ran the next six. Jerry Cochran came back and burst through with the first touchdown. Brady Howe added one point to the score with an after point. Gaffney, wanting revenge, put together a drive trying to match the score that was on the board. But the attempt was killed when they fumbled the ball and Floyd Ferguson recovered it on our thirty-one yardline.

Gaffney finally worked themselves on the score board after much strain and made the score seven to six in our favor. Bobo Stanfield couldn't stand it. He stole the ball from Gaffney and broke through for another touchdown. Nick Pinckney, Raymond Ford, and Wes White were responsible for the next touchdown. Brady Howe ran the after score point. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Danny Williams broke through and made the fourth touchdown. The after point attempt was no good. The action kept booming. Melvin Williamson intercepted a pass which left us on the seventeen yardline with five minutes on the clock. Jerry Cochran made another touchdown and Casey Price made the extra point, leaving the score thirty-four to six.

Danny Williams carried the ball twenty-seven yards. Gary Bodison got two yards and Victor Radcliffe, with the blocking of Ted Stanfield, ran the final six points.

You're not going anywhere! Raymond Taylor downs one of the Goose Creek players.

In Hot Pursuit! Casey Price and Brady Howe move in on a Goose Creek Gator.

WE TOOK GOOSE CREEK TOO

In the trench! That's where Dunky Crosby captures the Gator running back.

"Get off me, Turkey!" One of the Goose Creek players tries to upset Gary Bodison.

Watch out Ford and Pinckney are on the loose!
Nick Pinckney goes for several yards as Raymond Ford makes his way possible.

What happened to the ball? Jerry Cochran wonders where the ball went. It was fumbled by Keenan.

Champion is a word that enchants us and Dynamite describes how our champs play. This was shown in full force in the Keenan game. Two defensive players stole the show and got the ball rolling at the same time. David Whay and Melvin Williamson turned the Raiders' errors into valuable points for his teammates. David Whay grabbed Danny McCaskill's fumble out of mid-air and flew into the end zone. David Whay's defensive playing caused a Raider to fumble the ball, throwing it up in the air. David Whay caught the ball and high-tailed it to the end zone. Stanley Mitchell blocked Brady Howe's attempt for conversion. As the game went on it looked as if Keenan was in control; but looks can be deceiving! We proved that in the beginning of the fourth quarter. Melvin Williamson put the action back on the right track. He grabbed a pass on our forty-fifth yardline herding it back to their thirty-four yardline. Nick Pinckney threw a quick pass return back to Keenan's thirty-four.

"The Juice," Raymond Ford ran four yards and on into the end zone. Brady Howe's after point left the score thirteen to seven in our favor with eleven minutes and six seconds on the clock.

Keenan tried to come back with a long pass from Mike Reed to Danny McCaskill, but Casey Price put a stop to that. He jumped up and grabbed the ball putting his teammates in possession of the ball, with just two minutes and twenty seconds in the game.

Time was against the raiders, so they surprised us with a gun formation on their fourteenth yardline. At this time Melvin Williamson took things into his own hands. He made his second interception of the night. He grabbed and returned the ball in the end zone. Victor Radcliffe ended the game by kicking the extra point.

First Round Of Playoff Captured By Bulldogs

Follow the leader! Dunky Crosby goes down followed by David Whay and Bobo Stanfield.

Green Waves Claim Revenge

I made it! I made it! Jerry Cochran throws himself in the end zone.

There are no words to describe this game with Summerville. But we don't blame the players. Although there were some mistakes, the game started off smoothly. We controlled the first advantage over Summerville. They had trouble controlling Raymond Fords' opening kick off. But, Gary Bodison got the show on the road. Bodison ran 20 yards and penalty was called on Summerville, we had the ball on Summerville's 42 yard line. The game was back in our hands! Those plays went by and we were on the 11 yardline. Nick Pinckney ran 3, then Jerry Cochran took control by running the final yard. He was jammed hard at the 4th, but that didn't stop him. He knocked his attacker off and kept on trucking, as a result he threw himself in the end zone making the first touchdown for Walterboro. There was 5:17 on the clock when Jimmy Sanders blocked Brady Howe's after point attempt. Just before the 2nd quarter ended an unsportsman like penalty was called and the table turned again, but this time on us. Late in the 3rd Nick Pinckney snatched the ball from Summerville and carried it along with two Green Wave defenders into the end zone. We didn't get any more points in the game. Finally the game was over. The Green Wave claimed victory and got their revenge.

"Why not!" exclaims cheerleader Mary Barnes as she does a split. Mary has been a cheerleader for seven years and is co-captain of the squad. She hopes to continue as a cheerleader at Clemson University next year.

"I know the eyes, but don't forget the thighs." Susan Weissenstein recites this line from a previous cheerleader skit. Susan has been a cheerleader for five years and is captain of the squad. She hopes to someday be a college cheerleader.

Throughout the school year, our Varsity cheerleaders have cheered the varsity football and basketball team on to the thrill of victory and sometimes the agony of defeat.

Walterboro High School should be proud of its cheerleaders and alternates. All eleven girls worked long and hard perfecting their movements and working on new ways to stir up the crowd. Long hours well spent just trying to "get it all together".

In spite of all the hard work, they were still enthusiastic and spirited.

"Bright-eyed and bushy tailed," Louvenis Manigo smiles. This is her first year as a cheerleader. She hopes to be a Furman Paladin cheerleader next year.

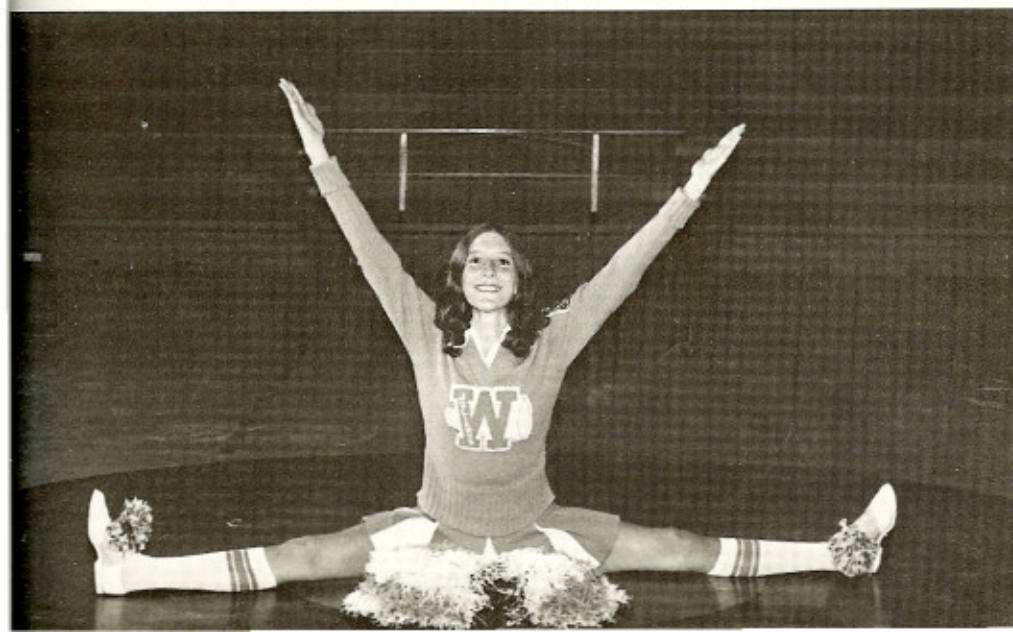

The photographer catches Sharon Hutto as she hustles into formation for the next cheer. She has cheered for 2 years.

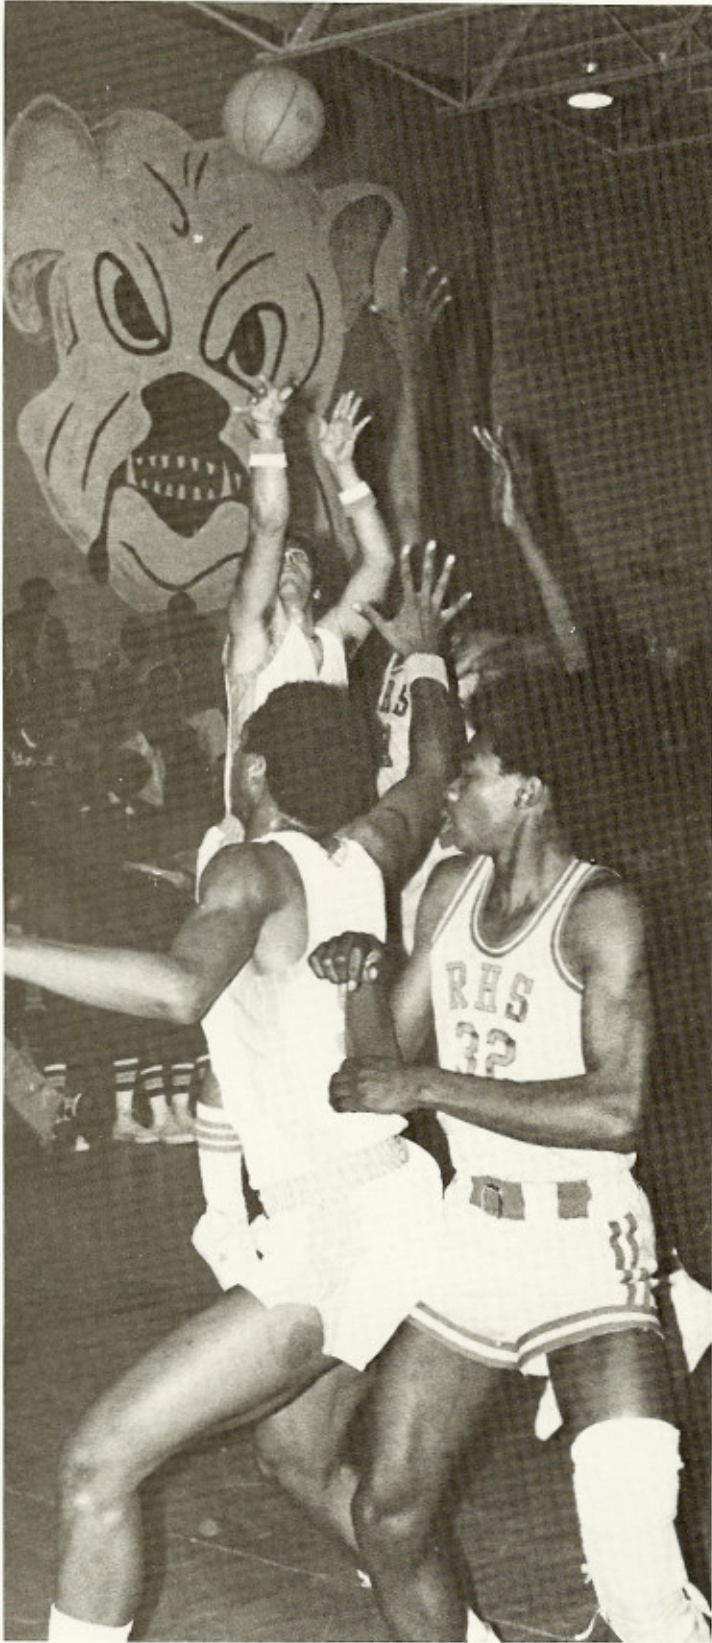

"This is the way it's done", as shown by Kathy Roberts. Kathy has been a cheerleader for 2 years. She hopes maybe someday to continue as a college cheerleader.

"Let's do it like the Chinese do", says cheerleader Julianne Stuck as she straddles a split. This is Julianne's first year as a cheerleader. She hopes to cheer for the Clemson Tigers next year.

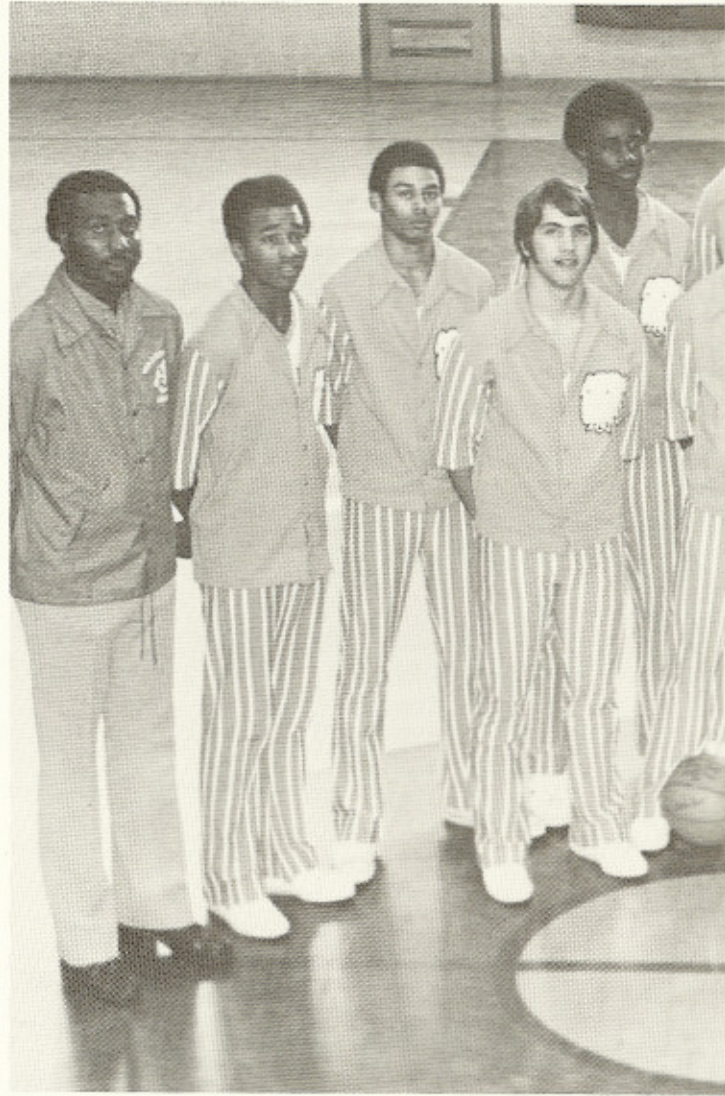

"Those are my girls!" exclaims cheerleader sponsor Mrs. Fannie Simmons. Mrs. Simmons has served as cheerleader sponsor for almost 2 years.

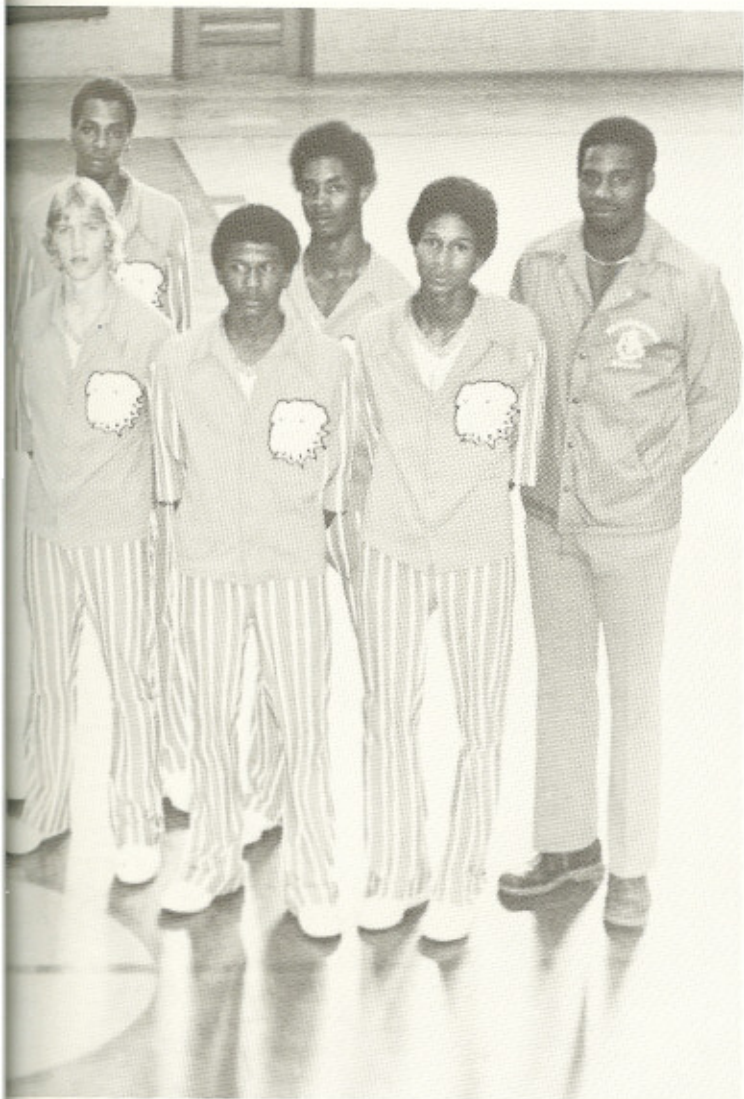

Jump high if you want the ball because Roberts is out to get it!

Walterboro	65	St. Andrews	68
Walterboro	74	Berkeley	56
Walterboro	57	Wando	58
Walterboro	54	Beaufort	44
Walterboro	83	Battery Creek	56
Walterboro	44	St. Andrews	49
Walterboro	52	Battery Creek	51
Walterboro	36	Wando	46
Walterboro	51	Dreher	54

This is the only position you'll ever find Joe Mack in on the Basketball Court.

Victor Radcliff declares he's so hungry he could eat a basketball as he goes to shoot against Beaufort.

A skying leap is all it took to put Stevie Peters under the basket for 2 points.

BULLDOGS PAW RAMS

The Bulldogs started the season fighting, scoring, and winning.

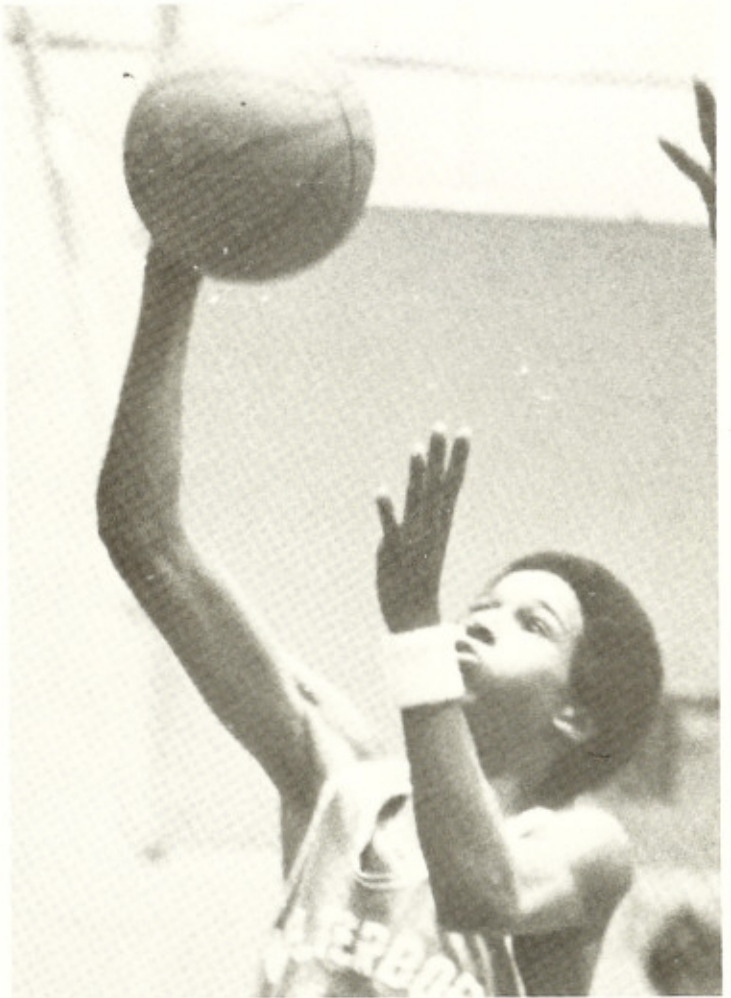

The James Island Rams traveled to Walterboro and became the first team to face the Bulldogs for the season. We had the advantage of an early lead over our visitors.

The bite of the dogs put the Rams out of action in the third quarter; and the Rams managed to shake off the dogs' treatment. However we came back with another bite which gave us a victorious score of 67-59.

GET UP FOR THE BULLDOGS

After long hours of practice, we were ready for our victims. Everyone got a piece of the scoring action. We held the lead throughout the entire ballgame. Joe Mack Bright, a senior at center, contributed highly to the game with a total of 23 points for the entire night. "Skippy" Woodson also did his thing by adding 14 points to the score board. The game ended with the score Battery Creek, 56 and Walterboro Bulldogs 85.

Looks like Kenneth Bennett and the Berkeley players cannot decide who gets the ball.

Do you think Stevie will make the shot with that guy trying to block his shot?

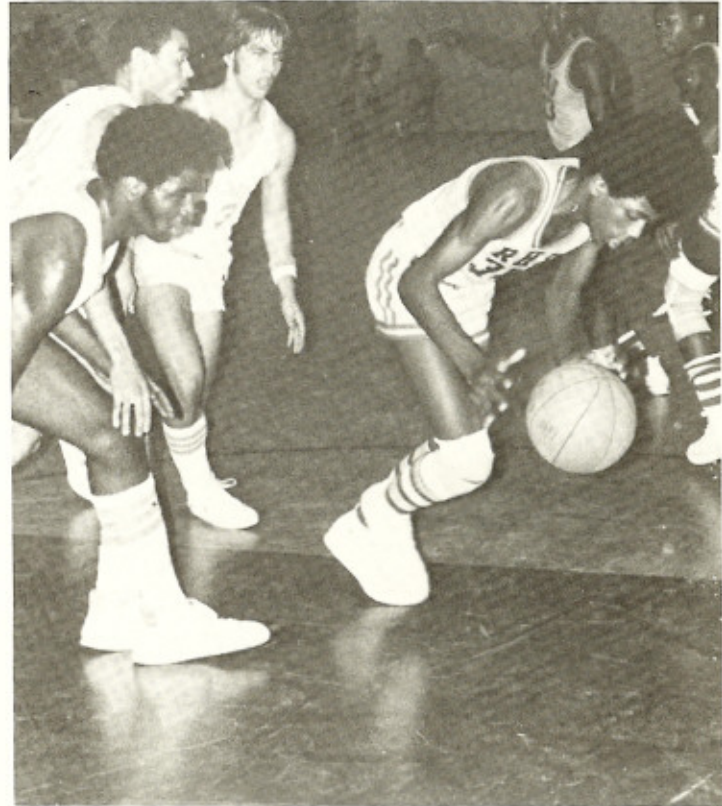

Improving his style of playing each year Skip gives an opponent the run around on the court.

Roberts Shocks Us

WHAT GOES UP MUST COME DOWN. It's anybody's ball as Stevie Peters jumps for possession.

GET THAT BALL! Determination is shown by Kenneth Bennett, Furman Woodson, Melvin Williamson as they battle for the ball.

HANDS UP . . . Joe Mack Bright shoots over a Roberts Tiger.

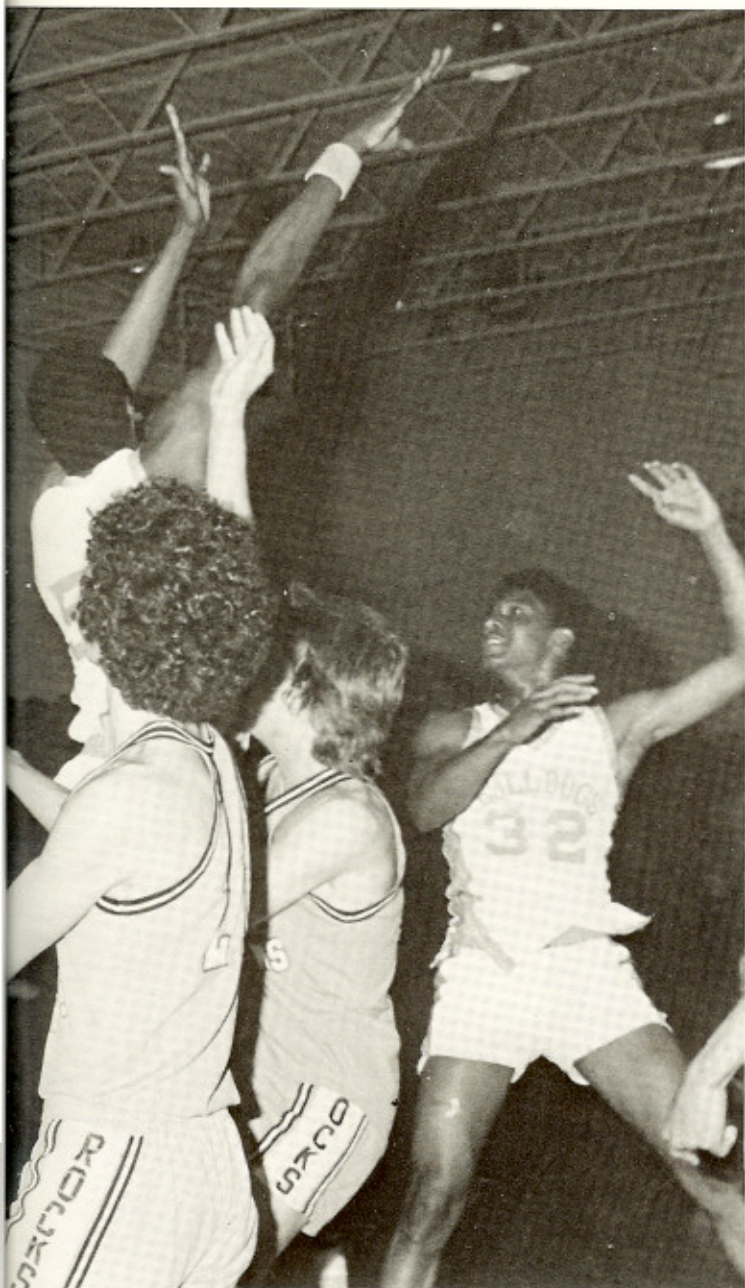

STRETCH! "The Juice" grabs the ball from a Roberts opponent.

DREHER SURPRISES US

Sadness and disappointment surrounded us after the defeat with Dreher. After holding the lead until the 3rd quarter, the loss was almost unbelievable. Though we lost, our players played one of their hardest games. The game was lost in the last quarter. In the fourth quarter, we didn't score any points. This was when the game changed hands. The scores were 46-51 in our favor. In the final moments of the game, Dreher scored 10 points which left the score 51-56. We were defeated.

Everybody asks where's the ball in the St. Andrews Rocks game.

Well, it's looks as if they finally found the ball in the Rocks game.

The Juice steals? As the ball comes off the goal, Raymond Ford takes the ball from one of the Rams.

Two Points! Matthew Williams does his part in the game against the James Island Rams.

Let's get started! Coach Simmons gives his team a pep talk before the game.

"That's the way I like it!" says Raymond Ford as he shoots over one of the Rams.

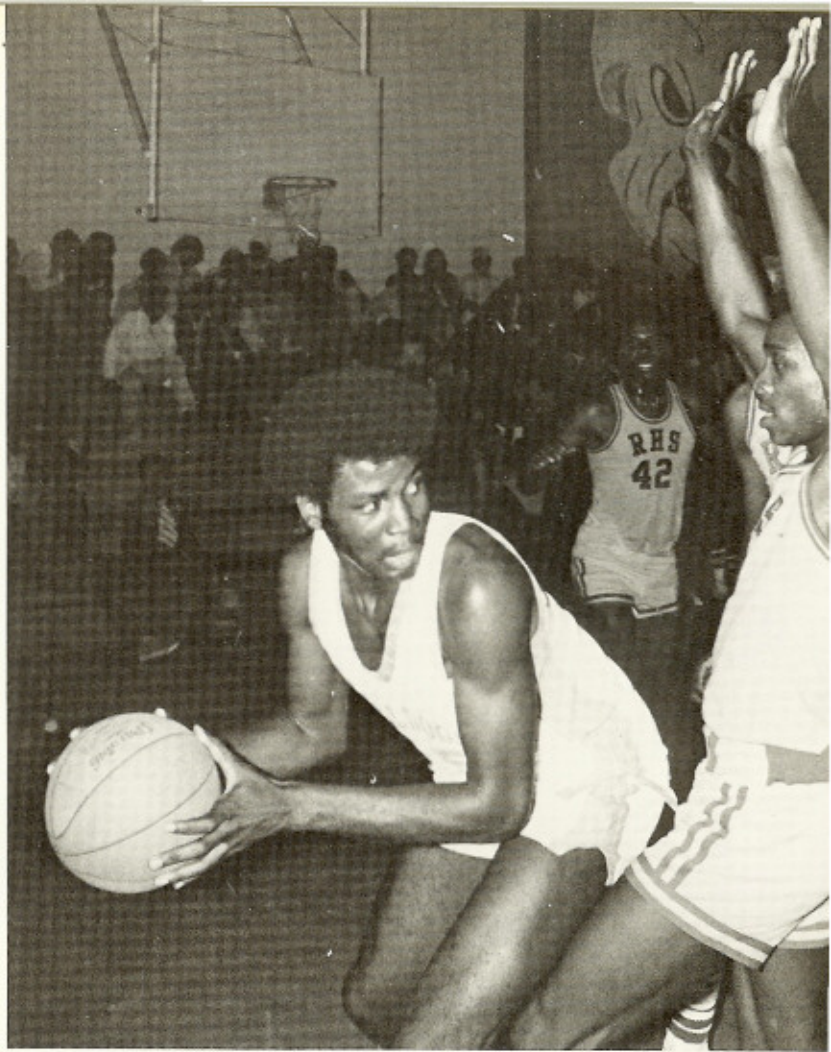

Watch out Stevie Peters is in control!

"Don't let it go Kenny!" Kenneth Bennet jumps up to rebound the ball, but finds out he has help from one of the Roberts team members.

"Help me somebody" says Kenny as he looks for help in the game against Roberts.

"I'm coming through like it or not", screams Kenny Griffin.

Struggling is the only word that comes close to telling how the girls played. They had many problems to overcome, with the two largest ones being injuries and new members. There were only three returnees from last year. The veteran captain, Darlene Brown, was grounded from several games because of a knee injury, and Rose Moultrie was sidelined because of a slipped joint. The girls managed only three victories: two against Battery Creek and one against Dreyer. Parents' Night happened to be during one of the winning efforts over the Dolphins and the players dedicated that game to Miss Belton.

The ball is in the air! I must get it!

THEIR STUFF IN BASKETBALL

Donna Williams, Robin Gerideau, Mary Lee Gethers (back) Gracie Bright.

Get out the way chump! Darlene Brown is fouled by her opponent as she goes up for a shot.

Bullpups Break About Even For Season

The JV football team broke about even for the season with a 3-3-1 record under head Coach Robert Driggers and assistant Coach Francis Simmons. The young Bulldogs defeated Roberts, Beaufort, and Wando by the scores 31-6, 13-0, and 19-0 respectively. Losses came at the hands of Summerville, Goose Creek, and St. Andrews with points running 0-22, 7-28, and 7-13. Only one deadlock occurred and that was with Berkeley—neither team managed to cross that magic line.

The Bullpups had some rather large but young ballplayers, and with maturity, some of these will make top-notch Varsity prospects. Coach Simmons seemed to think that the few weeks of layoff between games caused the boys to lose momentum and be absent more often from practice. Play at the end of the season was much better and more consistent than that of the earlier part, and excluding one sloppy game, the team always put forth quite an effort for victory.

Get fired up! J. V. Cheerleaders urge the basketball team on to victory.

Cheerleaders are the background of any team, and it is no different for the J. V. Cheerleaders. These girls practiced long and hard after getting a slow start at the beginning of the year. Their loyalty to the team made them special at Colleton High School.

When it comes to being spirited, the J. V. Cheerleaders proved to be very qualified for the positions they held. But everyone should know that without the support and leadership of Mrs. Gale and Ms. Whittington, a successful cheering team would not have been possible.

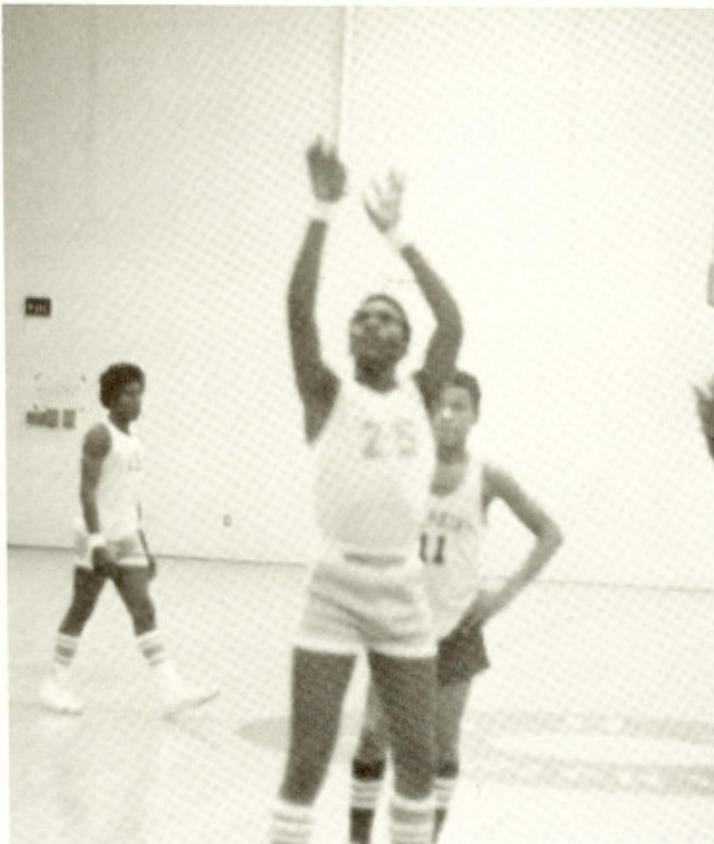

We're not dressed but we're best at CHS! J. V. Cheerleaders and sponsors were as follows: Mrs. Gale, Karen Haskel, Susie Nettles, Vicky Payne, Kathy Kirkland; 2nd row: Marcella Ford, Karen Varnadoe, Wandell Ford, Jackie Warren, Ms. Whittington.

That's two points for our team.

J. V's Repeat

Guess who we are? (Front row) David Williams, Willis Armett, Kenneth Mincey, Ronney Fields, Kenneth Blakeney, Isreal Williams, Hansel Taylor, Kenny Rohn, Coach Starks, (back row) Manager Todd Washington,

Winning Season

Kenneth Broughton, Edgar Driggers, Paul McDurfee, Joe Flournoy, Lenord Greene, Gary Bodison.

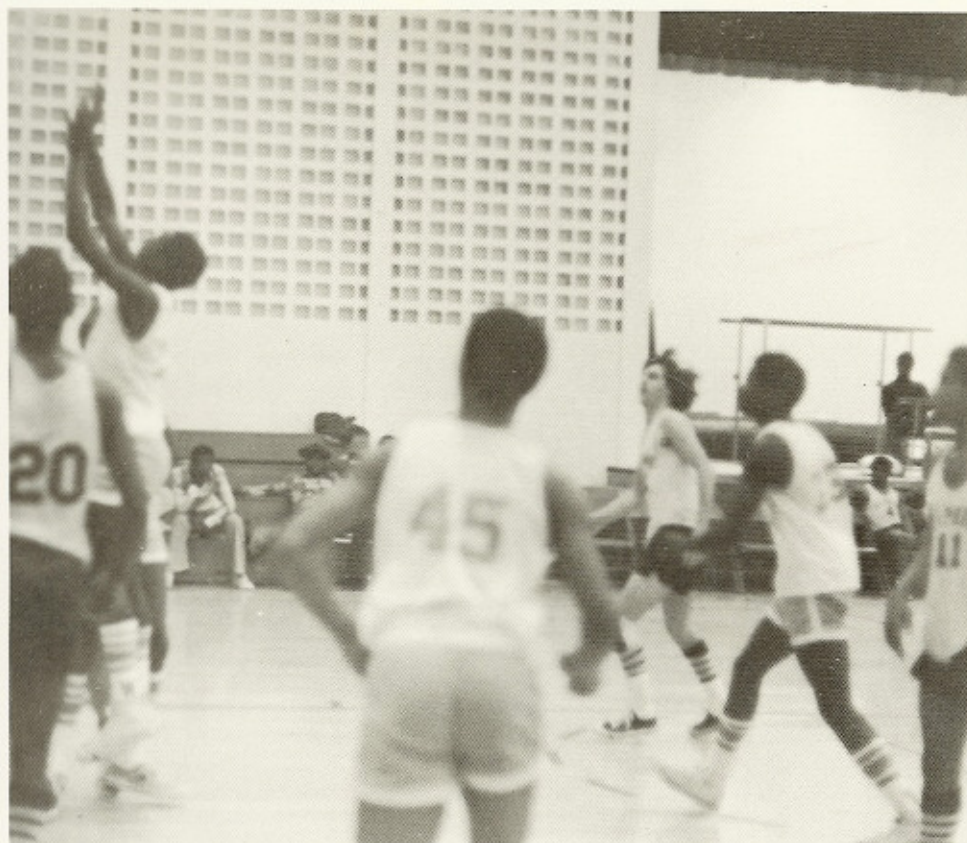

"I've got to make it everyone is watching", said Gary Bodison as he shoots in the game against Battery Creek.

OOPSI! Almost didn't make it.

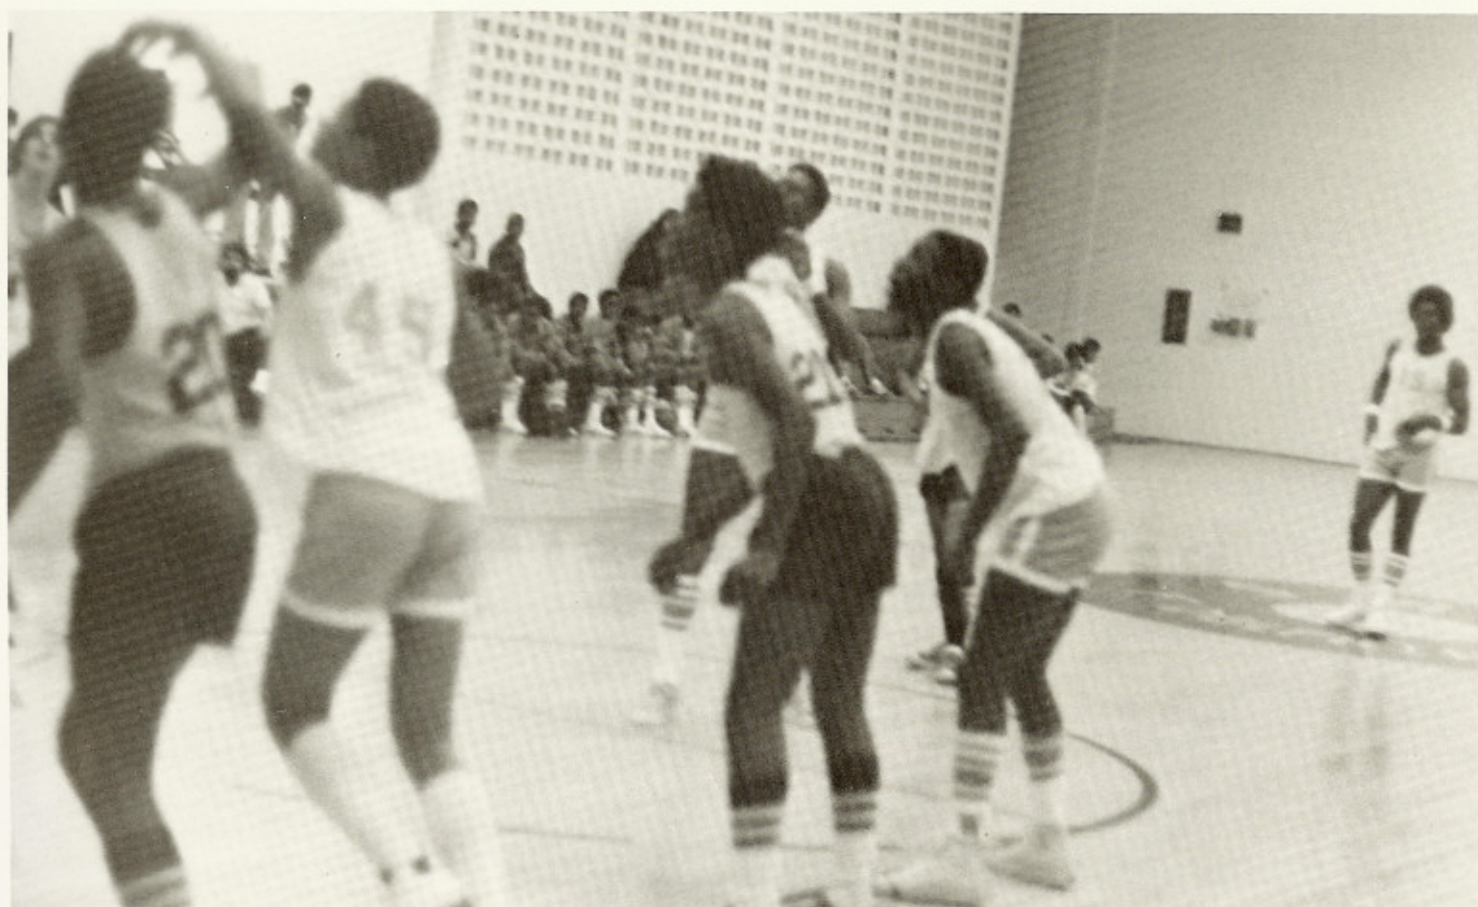

We're working on the scoreboard! David Williams goes up for a shot after being fouled.

BULL PUPS SHOW THEIR STUFF IN BASKETBALL

Practice, determination, and Dog Pride again helped our J. V. Boys basketball team to reign as conference champs. They posted a season record of 14-4 and 7-1 in conference play. We are indebted to our boys for helping us to keep our pride in their ability to make WHS proud of them. They were coached by Richard Starks who's starting out his basketball career by showing that he has what it takes to put together a successful team both offensively and defensively.

JV boys show Battery Creek how the dogs shoot.

WHERE'S THAT SMILE? Coach Robert Driggers poses with the players and their trainers: Mattie Edward, Colanithia Farmer, Annie Bradley, Jackie Sander, Cathy Ammond, Rachel Reed, and Conrad Smith.

Hard work was the key which led the Junior Varsity girls basketball team to a very exciting season and a winning streak. One of the goals of the players was to gain the ability to join the Varsity team.

Their season record helped them to become one of the top 10 teams in the state. The girls have worked hard and their battle was well fought.

JV GIRLS SHOW THEY CAN DO IT TOO

Colleton

School's

It seems like the more I walk, the more I have to study.

Hey, we're smarter than you think, we stay where the books are.

Looks like we've got it all together. Let's Celebrate.

CLASSES

Colleton High School, which houses ninth and tenth grade, has a separate physical plant, faculty, and different course offerings: but it is also an integral part of Walterboro High.

Junior Varsity sports participants and cheerleaders come from Colleton. Their Pep Club, too, helped cheer the teams toward victory. Two teachers from Colleton Ms. Belton and Mr. Applebee, coached our girl's Varsity basketball team and the baseball team.

Annually the choruses from both schools combine to present the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert. Band members from CHS and WHS unite for the Pops Concert and the Spring Concert. Both schools share the school publications; events at Walterboro High as well as those at Colleton High are covered in the school newspaper and annual. Another activity both have in common is the Student Council. WHS Council members travel to Colleton each year to assist Colleton's Student Council with their elections of Student Council officers and class elections for the rising juniors.

In some ways we are separate but there is also an invisible bond.

I guess you think that we never pay attention.

Colleton Mentors

This year many Colleton High School teachers were involved with students. Mrs. Simmons has been greatly involved with the Spirits of '76 and took the SAE group to a convention in Myrtle Beach. Mr. Davis and Mrs. Wittington took a group of students on a trip. They planned to take the Activity Club to Atlanta.

All this goes to show that we really have some great teachers who care about students.

Really! Mr. Stephens just can't believe an excuse from one of his students.

Sure, I'll smile!

Just strolling along! We caught Coach Driggers getting his exercise.

Where was I? — Ms. Randal seems to have lost her place in her notes.

Come in — Mr. Gale invites visitors inside.

Yes, Honey! — Mrs. Williams has a smile for everyone.

Mrs. Simmons takes a minute to relax.

Mrs. Michaels is one of many teacher's aids.

Mrs. Pringle checks one of her student's homework.

STUDENT COUNCIL AT WORK

Bulletin Board — Wanda Ferguson, (chm.) Pearl Cook, Cassandra Oliver, and Dale Bright (not pictured) Bonnie Carter (co. -chm.) Helen Saunders and Rhonda Rhode.

"Raise it high!" Mike McDonald and Eagle Scout Cranny Boensch do just that. Raising the flag daily is one of Student Council's responsibilities.

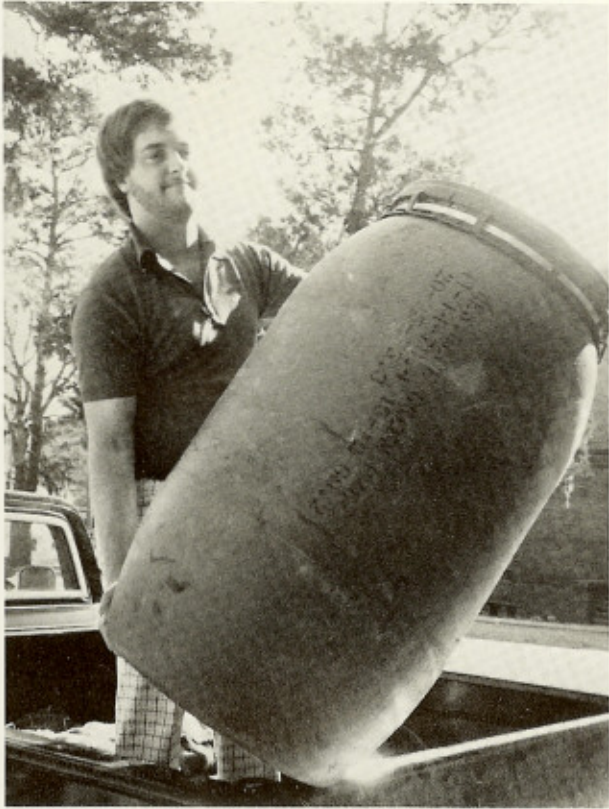

General Problems — Julie Crosby (co. -chm.) Louise Williams (chm.), Kenneth Williams and Mary Barnes (not pictured) Rosa Nebo, Jean Bishop and Wanda Gibson.

Helping to keep our school clean is one of Student Council's responsibilities. Several conscientious students volunteer to clean up our student parking lot.

Activities Committee — Mathias Chaplin, Kim Lomen, Julianne Stuck (chm.) Cassandra Oliver (co-chm.) and Georgia Floyd (not pictured) Janie Ford and Sheila Washington.

It takes a real he-man to lift one of those Verona trash barrels. Travis Beeson is that man.

The girls take over the morning announcements. Beth Bishop and Mary Barnes await their turn as Shonda Chaplin reads Bicentennial minutes.

Building and Grounds — Chairman: Travis Lights hands out work assignments to Grace Lyn Lyons, Cranny Boensch, Timmy Beach (Co.-chm.) Sharon McNeil, Wayne Smoak, Ted Stanfield and Mike Hall. (Not pictured) Glen Seigler and Regina Jackson.

Elections Committee: Cindy White, Margaret Griner, Maria Smith, Cathy Campbell and Gracie Bright. (Not pictured) Billy Smoak (chm.) Victor Radcliff (co.-chm.) and Louvenis Manigo.

Realizing that their job is finished, Business Managers Mike McDonald and Mary Barnes smile with satisfaction.

"Financial Wizards?" "No, but we could not have done it without the help of our sponsors Ms. Blue and Mrs. Skardon."

Many hours of hard work during and after class were spent on ads. Selling ads served as an over-all project of the entire annual staff.

Financial coordinator Mrs. James W. Skardon, who handled money transactions, stressed that total involvement was imperative in order to succeed financially.

Initially the staff was faced with many problems in selling ads. Among those were: business hours, transportation, inflation, time element, lack of sufficient materials and inexperience among the staff.

For the most these problems were resolved as indicated by ad sales which reached their peak with a total of two thousand seven hundred and eighty dollars after only four months of work. Now that's something to celebrate!

Relief, Release from the performance of duty; removal of a painful, distressing, job. We are relieved because school is over, summer is here and this book is in your hands. The yearbook staff has enjoyed putting together this annual that shows not only our accomplishments but also our failures. Without the leadership and dedicated hard work of Miss Blue we would not have made it. We at Walterboro High can look back through these pages and find the people and events that make us proud to say we were once at WHS. Let's Celebrate!
