

Activities

Many activities go on during the school year. To add enjoyment to classes, extra-curricular plans are made. The chorus and band provide musical entertainment while skits promote humor and good will. This year participation was great and more interest was shown in the programs, football games, and concerts.