

The Band of Blue members are active throughout the year with participation in solo and ensemble performances in January. They participate in the Edisto Conference and the All-State Trials in February. A Spring Concert is given by the band in May.