

Varsity Football

(1st row) Alfred Wright, Jimmy Ray Simmons, Bernie Washington, Jerry Cochran, Ronnie Alls, Daniel Williams, John Washington, Johnny Francis. (2nd row) Darryl Campbell, James Owens, Clyde Elliott, Kenneth Blakeney, Todd Washington, Kenneth Sanders, Harold Rhodes, Louis Smalls. (3rd row) Bobbie Harbiston, Craig Miller, Mike Hall, Randy Shell, Chuck Smoak, Stuart Crosby, Mark O'Quinn, Kenny Rahn, David Williams. (4th row) Cranny Boensch, Glenn Jones, Jimmy Windom, Mark Eustace, Burt Benton, Bret Hughes, Kirk Breland, Roger Pierce. (5th row) Gary Bodison, Victor Radcliff, James Young, John Walker, Conrad Smith, Chuck Blocker, Gary Rhode, Eddie Wilson. (back) Trainers: Ricky Warren, David Lee Glover, and Tony Hiott.

1. Coach Rice gives the team moral support during a tough game against Orangeburg Wilkinson.

The 1976 season was a difficult one, but the Bulldogs were able to maintain their high spirits throughout each game. The wins did not come easy, and the losses were felt in the hearts of everyone. Although fate was not on the side of the Bulldogs this year, the team exhibited great sportsmanship, super playing power, and good ole' team spirit.

