Sitting in the stand
of the sports arena,
waiting for the show to begin.
red lights, green lights,
strawberry wine,
A good friend of mine,
follows the stars,
Venus and Mars
are alright tonight.

Standing in the hall of the great cathedral
waiting for the transport to come
Starship 21ZNA9

A good friend of mine
Studies the stars
Venus and Mars
are alright tonight.

Come away on a strange vacation
holiday hardly begun
Run into a good friend of mine

Sold me her sign
Reach for the stars
Venus and Mars
are alright tonight.

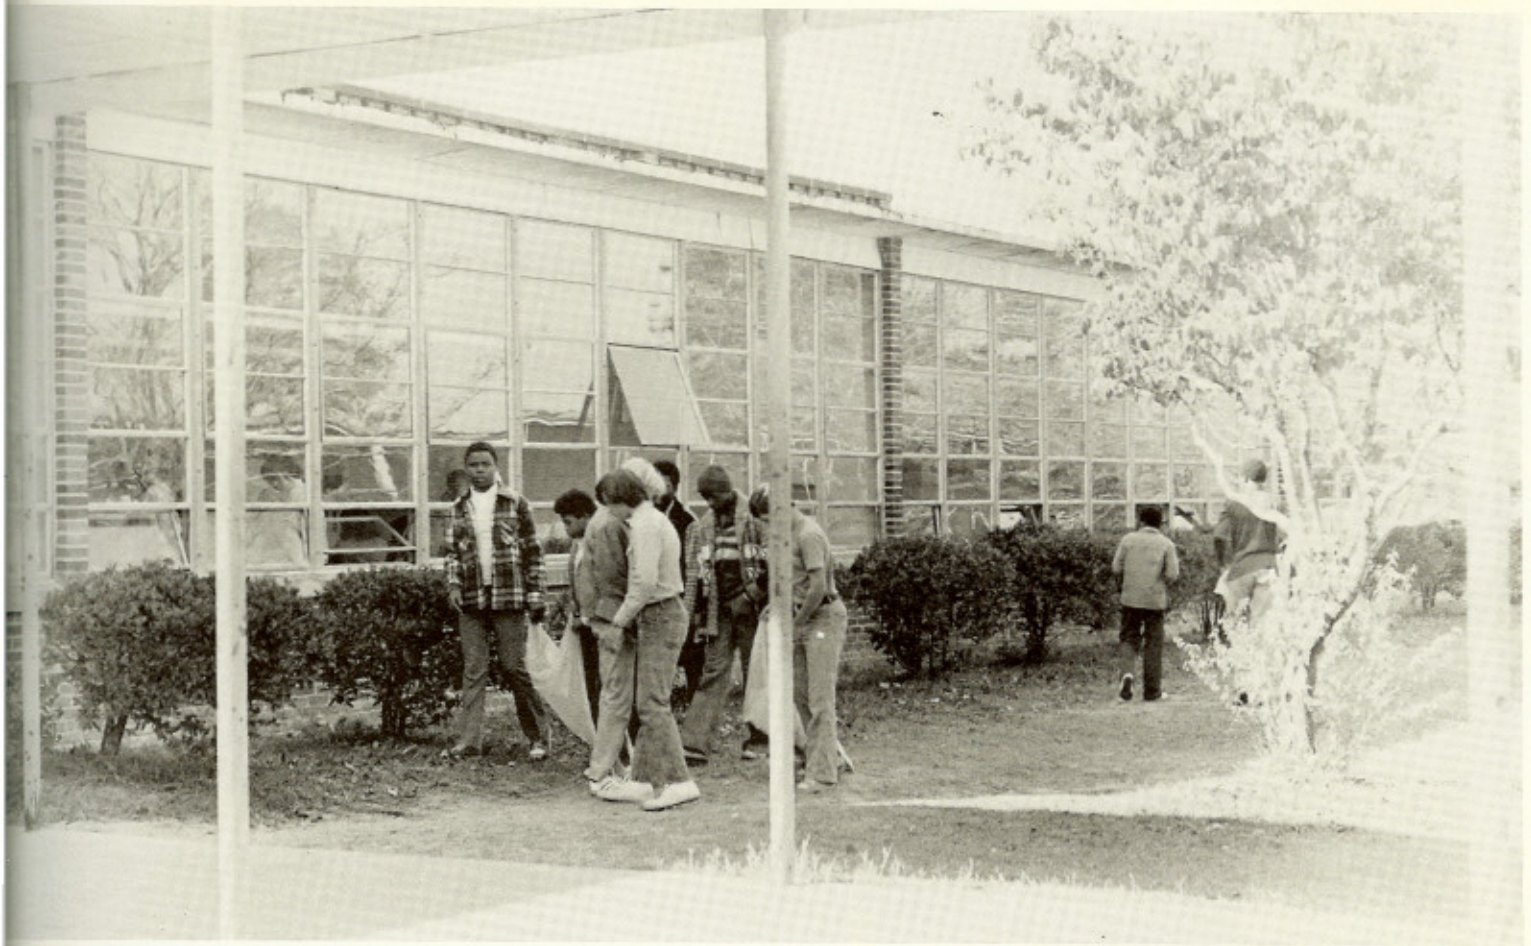

LIFE

“Smile!”
“You’re On!”

1. Connie Nesbitt seems a little less than overwhelmed with class.
2. Paula Savage and Cynthia Hoats have a good time hamming it up with a CB radio.
3. Band director Mr. Bill Young observes the progress of his students.
4. “Whoever said that three’s company?” Jackie Warren, Cynthia Hoats, and Kathy Boensch seem to be having just a fine time.

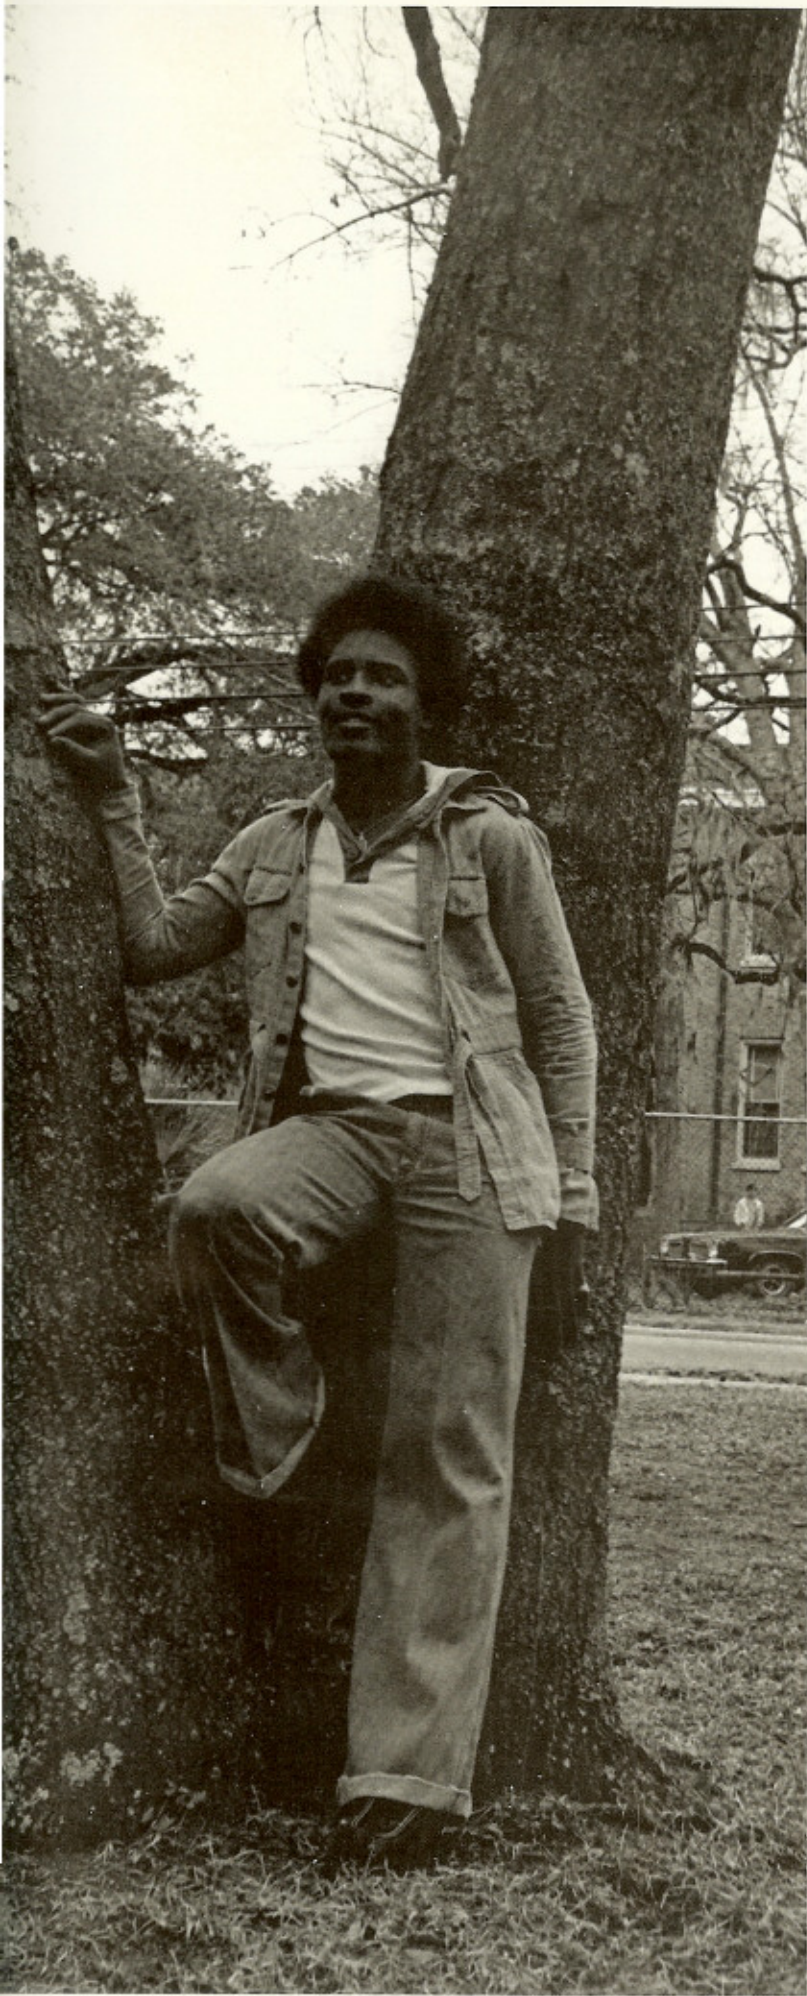

1. Colleton High students take part in a school cleanup effort.
2. Assistant band director Randy Pruitt discusses ideas with some of his students.
3. Mr. Young gives some final instructions before boarding the bus.

King and Queen of Hearts

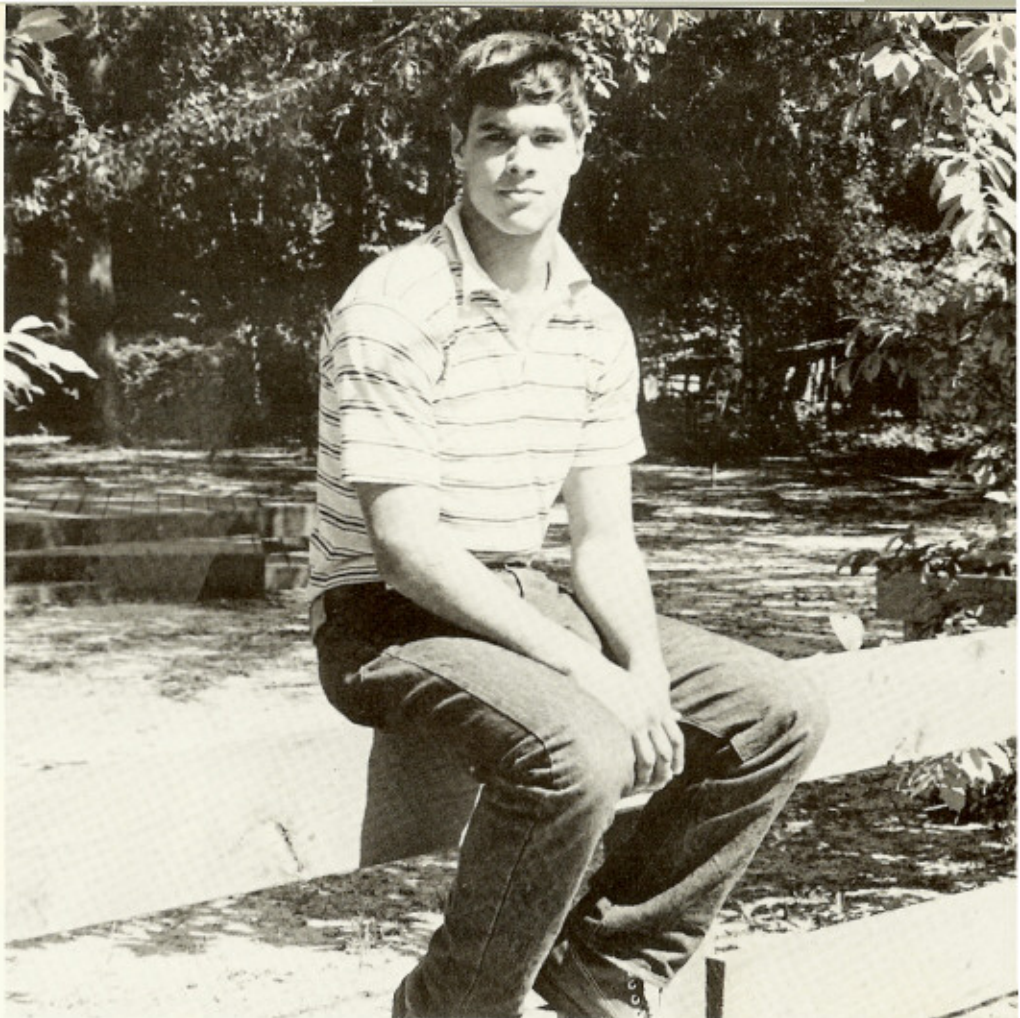

The traditional Queen of Hearts Contest was once again a big event at WHS. This year a new dimension was added to the contest as the first Parade of Queens led off the show. Next the nineteen contestants, Kathy Boensch, Connie Nesbitt, Joanne Frakes, Boo Boensch, Sami Fender, Paula Savage, Darlene Ulmer, Cathy Kirkland, Susie Nettles, Jackie Warren, Donna Lawton, Kay Beals, Tawana Dickerson, Edith Bright, Cheryl Maree, Julie Stephens, Susie Nettles, Ray Janice Deal, and Rachel Reed were introduced to judges Jeanie Aldridge, Bob Scott, and Darius McCarthy. While the judges voted for first the finalists and then the winner, entertainment was headed by the singing of Eva Farmer. Finally, in the moment of suspense, Kathy Boensch was named as the Queen of Hearts for 1978.

1. Connie Nesbitt, first runnerup; Kathy Boensch, Miss Queen of Hearts; Joanne Frakes, second runnerup.
2. Harold Rhodes, King of Hearts 1978
3. Kathy Boensch, Queen of Hearts 1978

Honors

1. Kirk Breland received one of a high school football player's highest honors by being named to the Shrine Bowl team.
2. The Daughters of the American Revolution named Emily Dodd Miss DAR on the basis of ability, character, and leadership.

Progress

1. John Brown and Kenneth Frasier man the turntable of the Walterboro High Broadcasting Service (WHBS), sponsored by the Broadcasting Club.
2. The chess tournament sponsored by the NHS raised quite a bit of attention this year. The eventual winner was Chris Seip.
3. Mr. Gowdy poses with some of the FFA Club members who built the second place float in the Christmas parade.

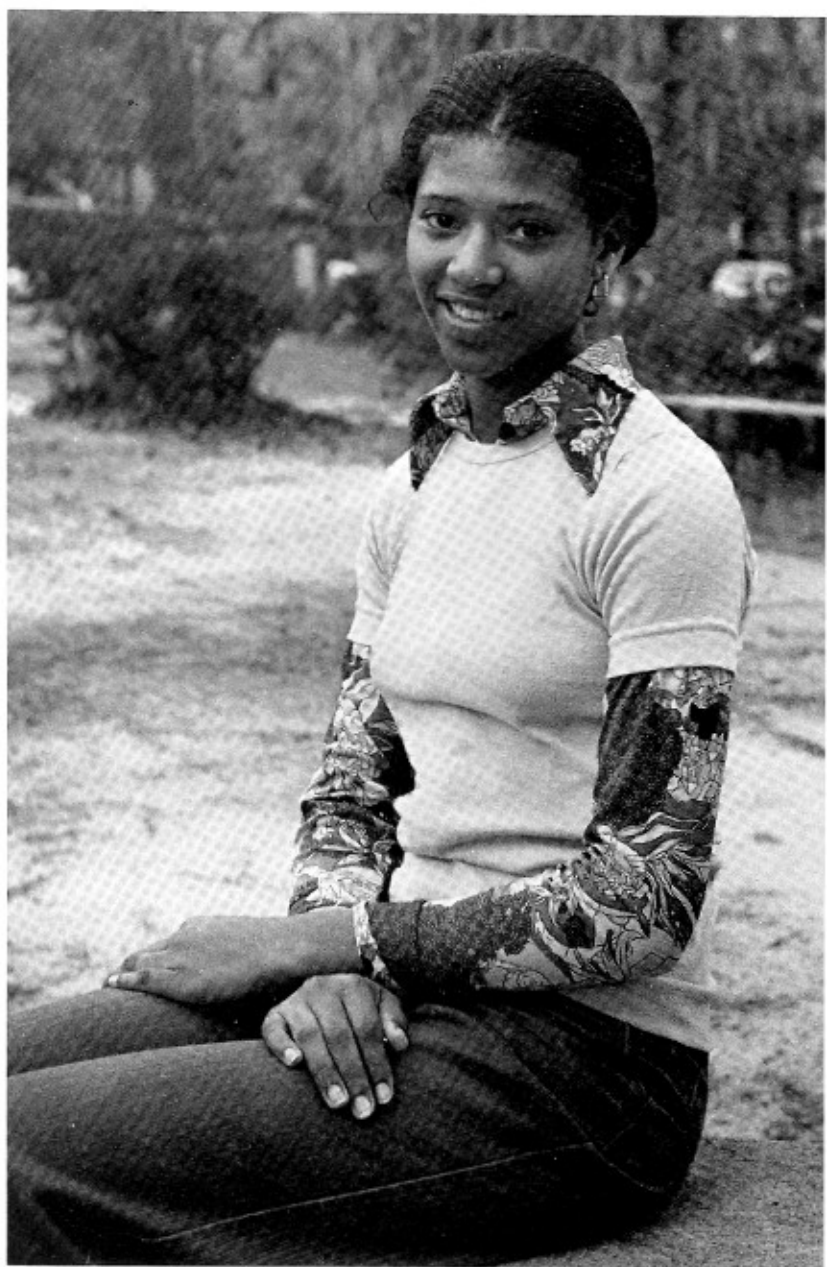

Homecoming '77

1. Mr. Jones crowns Linda Lawton as the Homecoming Queen.
2. The cheerleaders drive our team on to victory.

1. Our mascot certainly knows where the action is!
2. Linda Lawton, Miss Homecoming 1977.
3. Linda is driven around the field after being crowned.
4. Cynthia Hoats, Renee Langdale, and Kathy Smoak anxiously await the announcement of the Queen.

Scholars

1. Furman Scholars are selected on the basis of leadership, ability, and academic achievement. Furman Scholars are Chris Seip, Alice Bey, Connie Nesbitt, and Wayne Wilson.

2. Being named a South Carolina Governor's Scholar is one of a high school student's greatest honors. Each year 280 juniors and seniors from across South Carolina are selected for outstanding academic achievement.

These students attend a six weeks college-level program at the College of Charleston. Governor's Scholars from WHS are Wayne Wilson, Russell Jones, Wayne Robertson, and Chris Seip.

3. Wofford Scholars must attain high academic standing. These individuals have the privilege to compete for special scholarships at Wofford College. Wofford Scholars are Emily Dodd, Jacob Teasdell, Connie Nesbitt, and Wayne Wilson.

1. Ushers for the 1977 graduation exercises were Babbie Bodison, Jerry Ferguson, Karen Brown, Jacob Teasdell, Gwendolyn Ford, Cynthia Hoats, Kenny Rahn, Paula Jackson, and (not pictured) Lana Carter.

ACTIVITIES
ACTIVITIES
ACTIVITIES '78

Annual Club

The Annual Club strives to acquaint Juniors with all aspects of publishing a yearbook. The members must meet certain scholastic requirements. They learn to crop pictures, write captions, proofread, and draw layouts. Hopefully, the Annual Club members will be vital members on the 1978-79 Pawprint staff. Mrs. Henderson is sponsor.

Av-Lib Club

The main objectives of the Av-Lib Club are to acquaint students with library services, resources, and procedures, to create wider interest in good books and to provide an opportunity for the development of leadership.

Av-Lib members assist with circulation and publicity. Annual projects include improving the library, and a trip to Charleston.

Officers are: President, Doris Gantt; V. Pres., Juanita Farmer; Secretary, Lynn Haddock; Treasurer, Allen Jamison; Reporter, Juanita Farmer.

Sponsors: Mrs. Godwin, Mrs. Muckenfuss.

Broadcasting Club

The Broadcasting Club is an organization for the purpose of promoting the field of broadcasting as a career choice. The Broadcasting Club has a program each Sunday at 1:30 over WALD, which includes news, sports, editorials, and other comedy and mystery features. Mr. Dreyer is the sponsor.

Dance Club

A newly organized club this year, the Modern Dance Club is composed of twenty young ladies who are interested in the basic movements of ballet and modern jazz. Classes are instructed by Mrs. Henderson.

DE Club

Distributive Education encourages group participation, leadership development, and career study. Some of members' activities are visiting D.E. Trading Council in Columbia and planning a field trip to South of the Border.

Officers are: President, Jeff Terry; Secretary, Linda Green; Treasurer, Kenneth Sanders. Sponsor: Mr. Jarvis.

English Club

The English Club was established this year with the focus on aiding nursery and elementary schools. Projects include making educational materials and producing informative skits.

Officers are: President, ReDelma Washington, V. Pres., Sonya Taylor; Secretary, Darlene Ulmer; Treasurer, Odessa Washington. Sponsor is Mrs. Crawford.

Foreign Language Club

The Foreign Language Club is composed of students taking French or Spanish who are interested in other languages and the cultures of foreign lands.

Officers are: President, Randetta Butler; V. Pres., Virgil Bryant; Secretary, Karen Brown; Treasurer, Annie Bradley. Sponsor is Mrs. Frasier.

FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America Club is a national organization for students enrolled in business subjects. This club's purpose is to prepare students with experience for their future in business.

This club also gives a scholarship to a graduating senior who is furthering his education in business.

Officers are: President, Sandra Pinckney; V. Pres., Katurah Womble; Secretary, Lurether Gethers; Treasurer, Janet Spell. Sponsor: Mrs. Smith.

Student Council

1. Student Council Officers: Kenny Rahn, President of Inner-County Council; Jacob Teasdell, President; Paula Jackson, Vice-President; Cathy Kirkland, Secretary; Emily Dodd, Treasurer; Brett Hughes, Parliamentarian; Connie Nesbitt, Historian; Wayne Wilson and Chris Seip, Senior Members-at-Large; Jackie Dowdy, Assistant Secretary; Annie Bradley, Assistant Treasurer; Russell Jones and (not pictured) Joy Craven, Junior Members-at-Large.

2. STUDENT COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES

1. STUDENT COUNCIL ALTERNATES
2. President Jacob Teasdell addresses the Student Council as Secretary Cathy Kirkland takes notes.
3. Mrs. Barnes, Student Council Advisor.
4. Mr. Pelzer and Mr. Gowdy, Advisors.

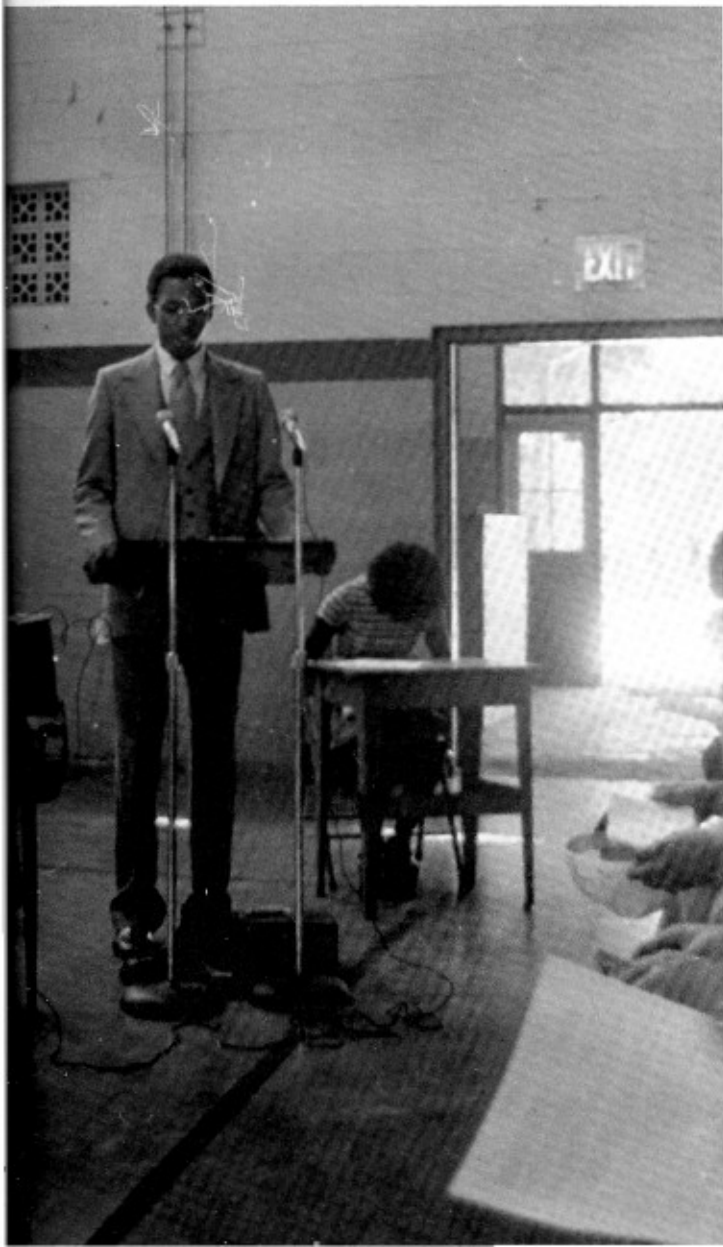

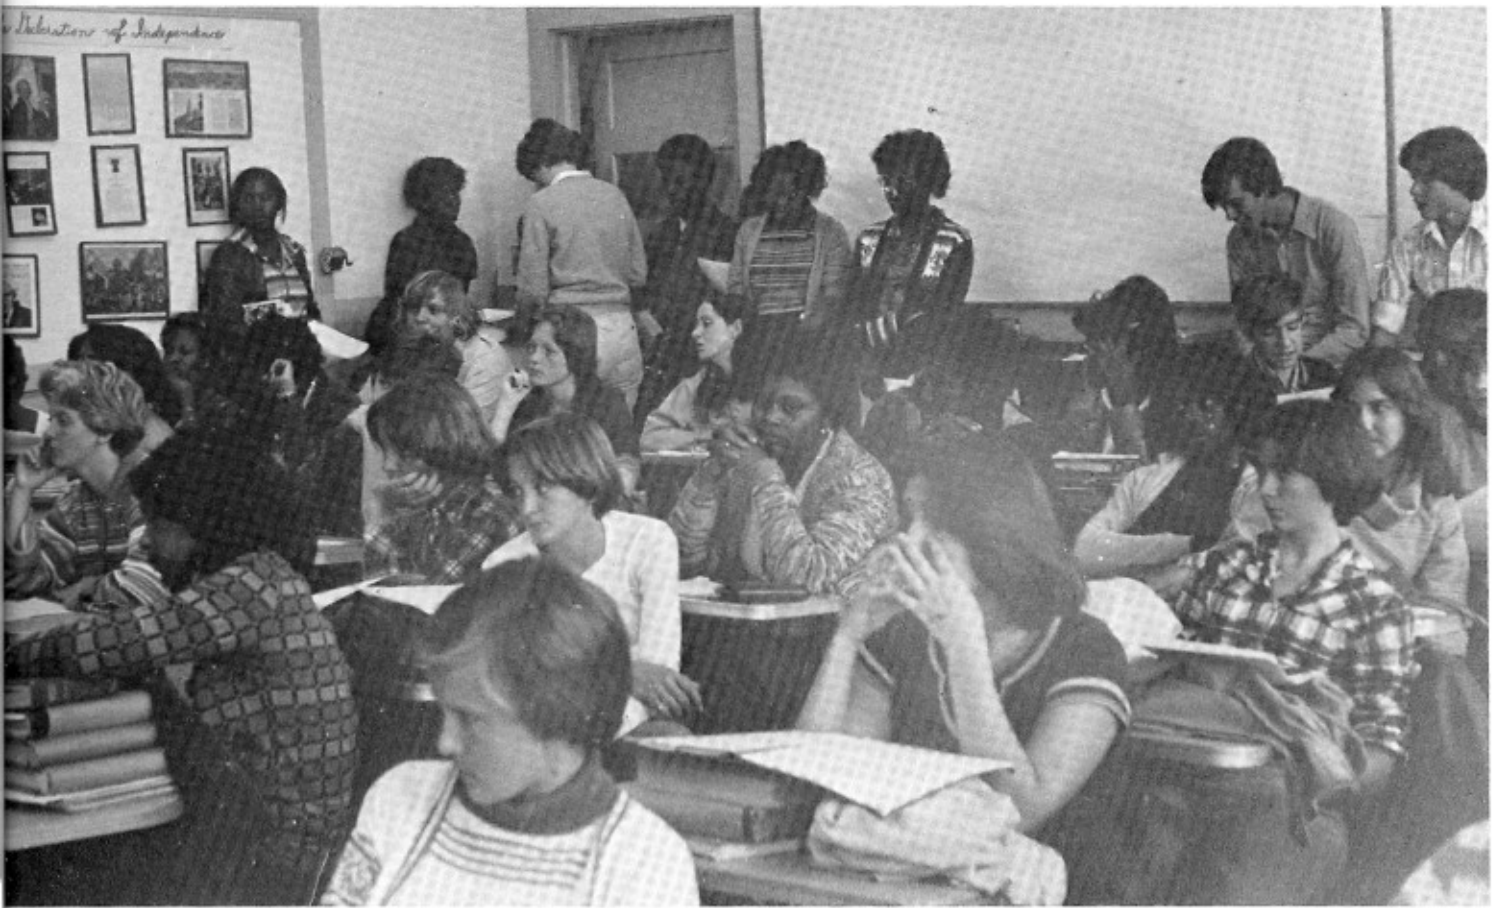

Student Council

1. Paula Jackson and Jacob Teasdell man the microphone for the morning's announcements.
2. The salute to the flag begins each Council meeting.
3. Secretary Cathy Kirkland diligently takes notes.

1. Student Council members direct their attention toward the business at hand.
2. President Teasdell addresses a meeting in the gym.
3. Is this concentration or just a bad joke? Jacob Teasdell and Jimmy Windham try to come up with a solution to a problem.

FFA

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is to promote cooperation, good citizenship, and agricultural leadership. This year's chapter entered a float in the Christmas parade and won second prize for its ingenuity and originality.

Officers are: President, Ronald Magwood; V. Pres., Mark Broughton; Secretary, Melody Kemmis. Sponsor: Mr. Gowdy.

FHA

Future Homemakers of America is a national organization for students studying home economics in their junior or senior school year. The club seeks to help individuals help improve personal, family, and community living.

Officers are: President, Renee Rhodes; V. Pres., Althea Singleton; Secretary, Josephine Homes; Reporter, Patricia Washington. Sponsors: Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Talford.

FTA

The Future Teachers of America Club is organized with the aim of being exposed to the advantages and disadvantages of the teaching profession. The FTA was first founded at Walterboro High School by Mrs. Ruth Thomas.

Some of the projects of the FTA include the annual Talent Show and the Teachers Appreciation Day. Members also visit local schools and plan an Easter Egg Hunt for pre-school children.

Officers are: President, Cynthia Hoats; V. Pres., Karen Haskell; Secretary, Kathy Boensch; Treasurer, Kay Beals. Sponsor: Mrs. Hughes.

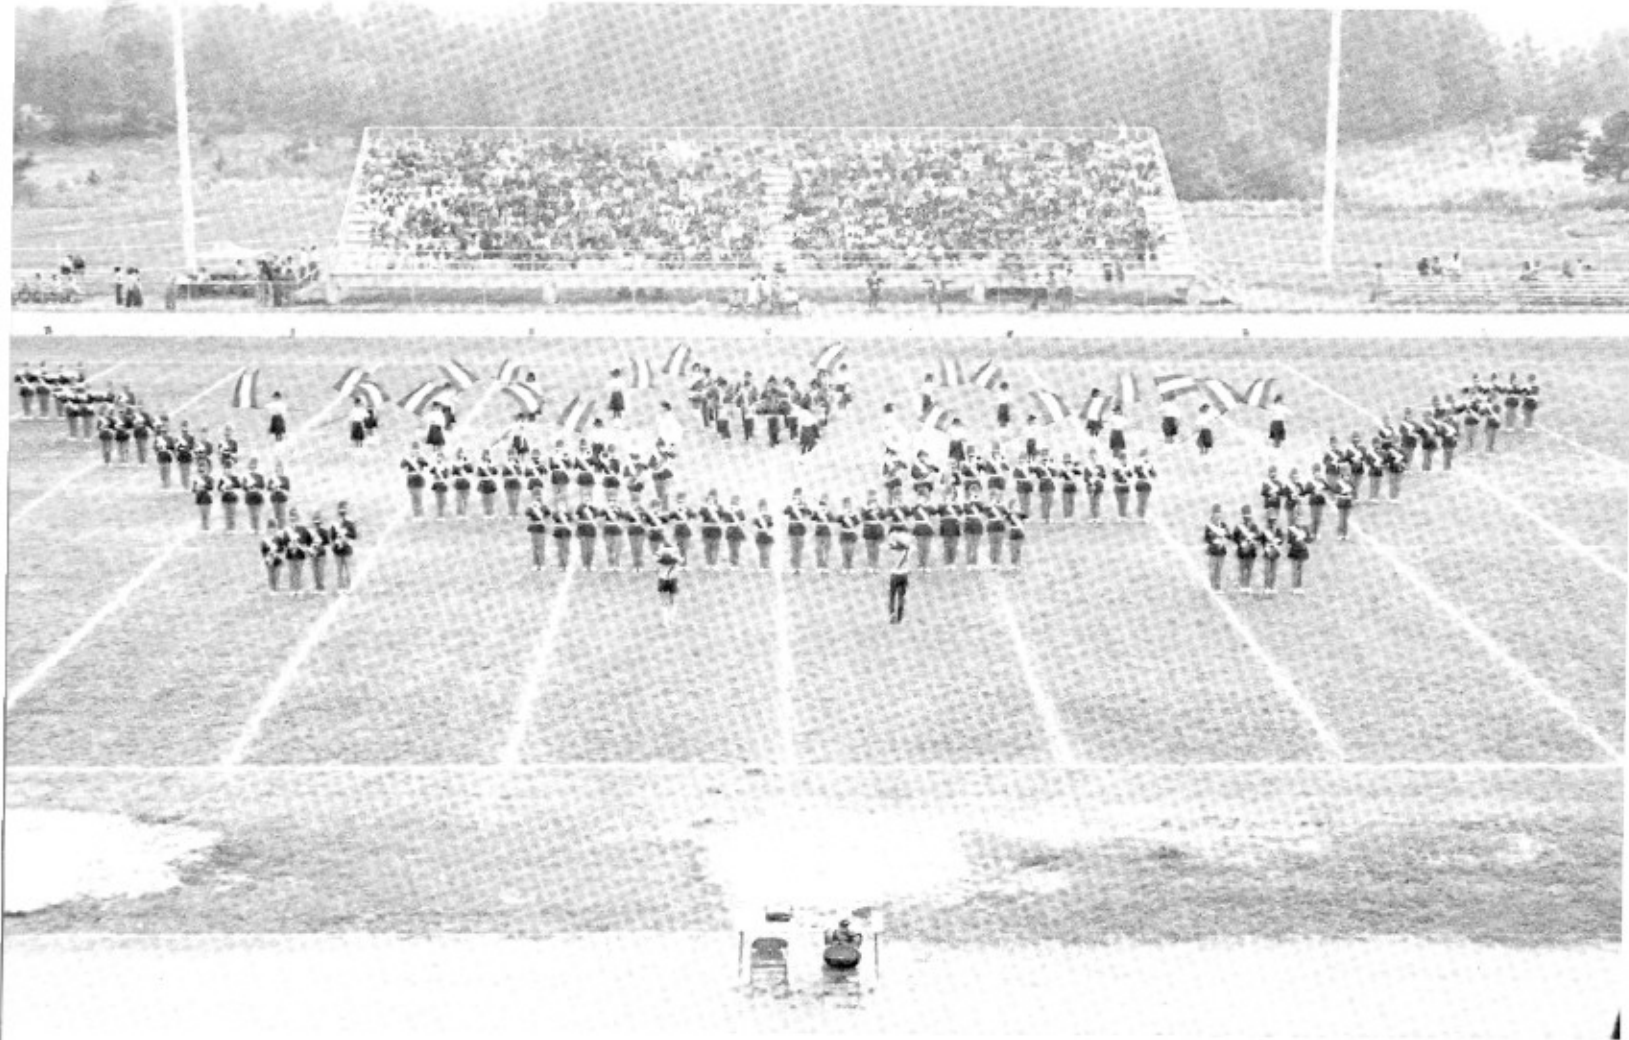

Garden Club

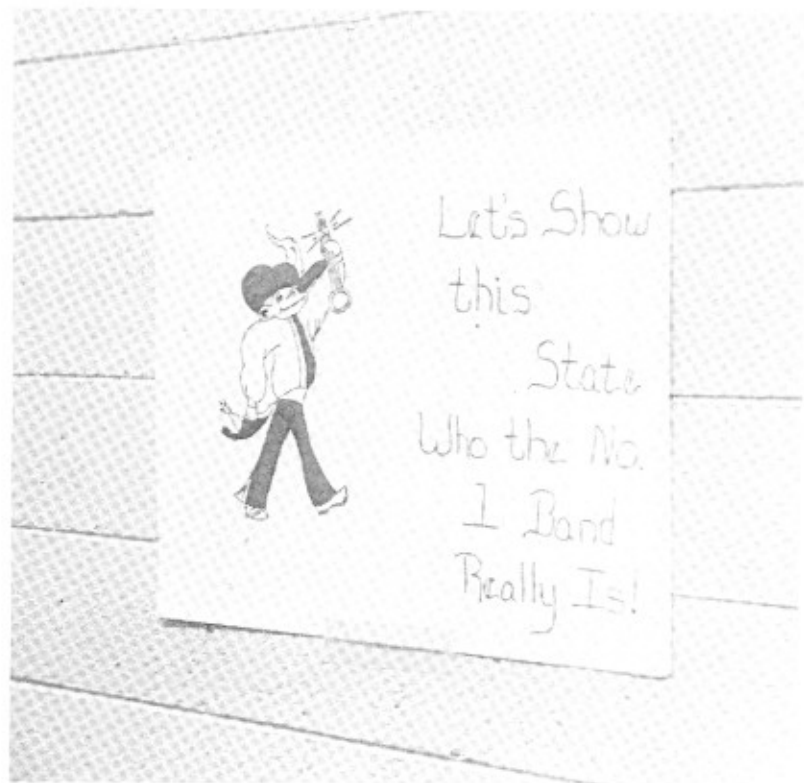

The Garden Club is a newly formed club organized by the Student Council to expand club programs to include students who are not involved in other club activities. Activities include varied programs on vegetable and flower gardening, speakers, and a trip to Middleton Place, the oldest landscaped gardens in the United States.

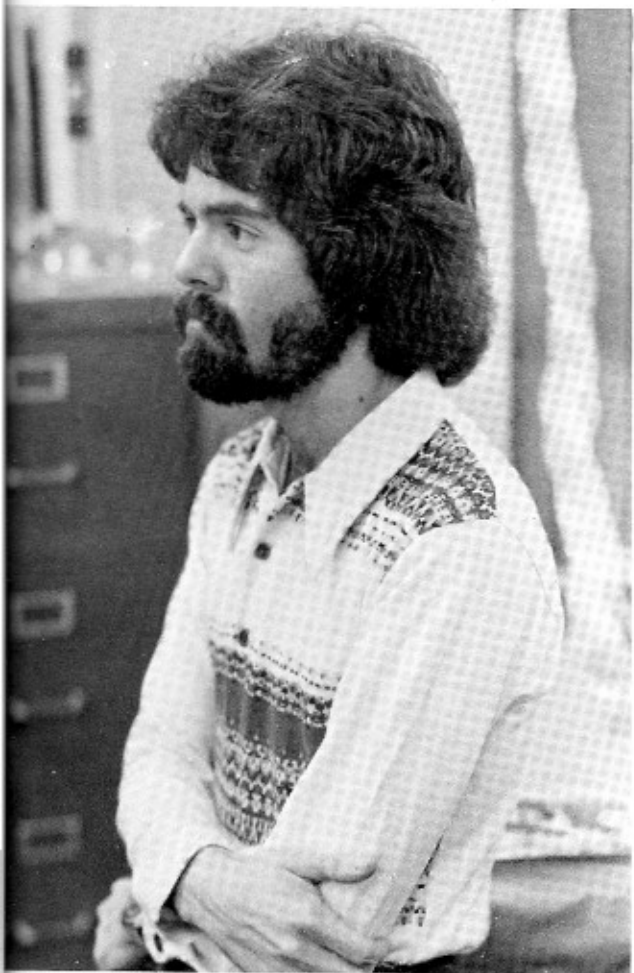

Officers are: President, Cheryl Maree; V. Pres., Todd Washington; Secretary, Cathy Kirkland; Treasurer, Kenneth Sanders. Sponsor: Mrs. Barnes.

Band of Blue

1. THE WHS BAND OF BLUE
2. Spirit is justly displayed by the band's promoters.

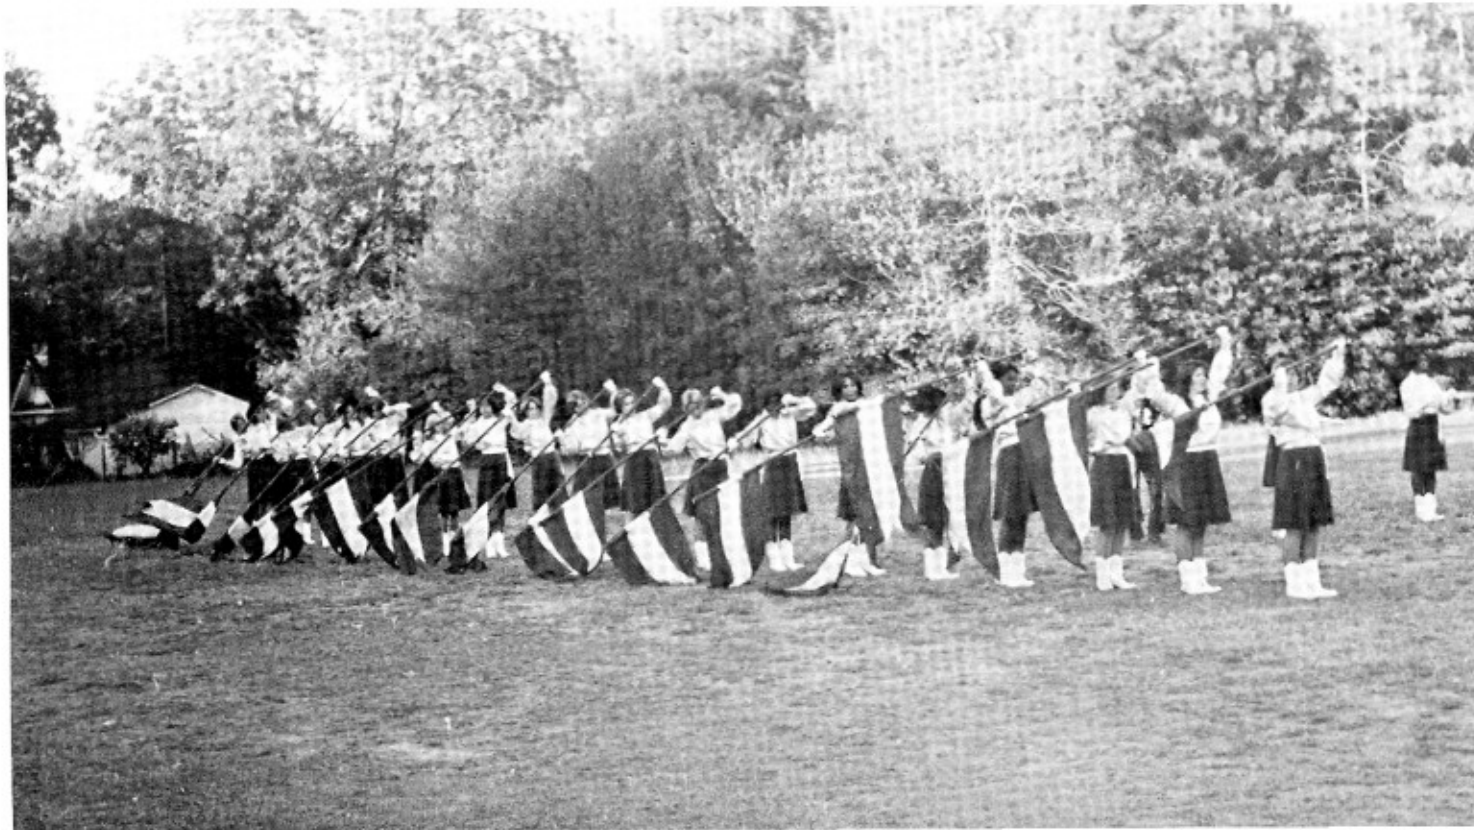

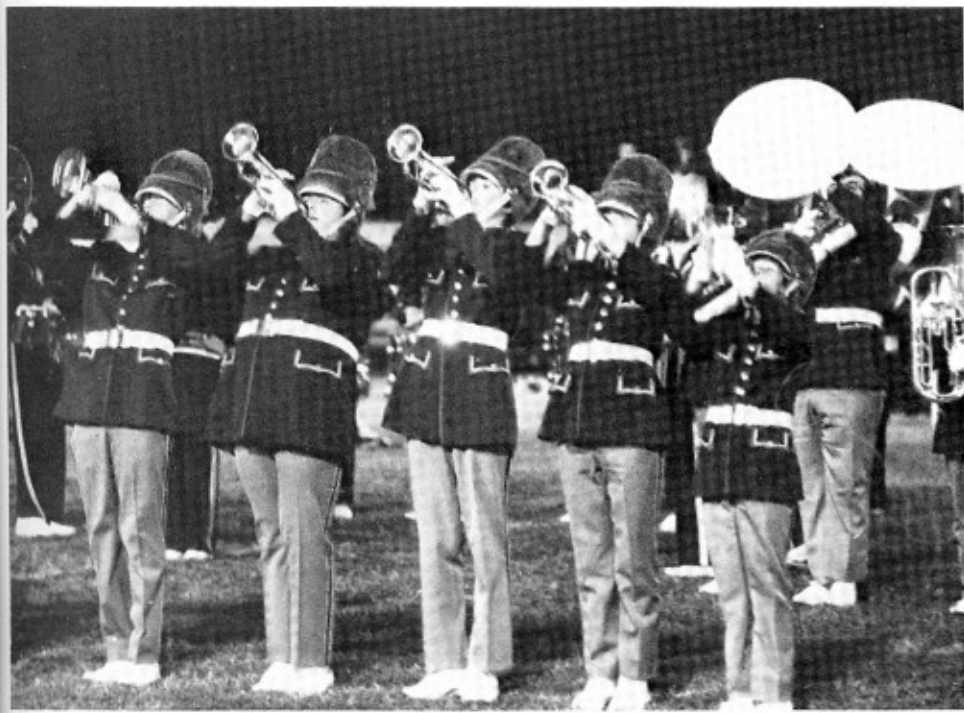

1. Band Director, Mr. Bill Young
2. The band heads for the state championships.
3. Assistant Band Director, Mr. Pruitt
4. Mr. Young gives his students final instructions for the performance at Camden.

1. Band members make preparations before going into competition.
2. It was dedication (like that displayed by the woodwinds section) that gave the band "superior" ratings wherever they went.
3. The Band of Blue's Flag Corps

1. Four members of the Flag Corps participate in a performance.
2. Their instruments held high, the band present another sterling exposition.
3. The band members fall to the ground at the surprise conclusion of their final number.

History Club

The History Club centers around Americana of different periods of history. Activities include furniture refinishing, programs on antique collections, the sponsoring of an old-fashioned Christmas tree, and an annual walking tour of historic Charleston.

Officers are: President, Jimmy Windham; V. Pres., June O'Quinn; Secretary, Rhonda Stroble; Treasurer, Laura Braddock. Sponsor: Mrs. Barnes.

Literary Club

Membership in the Literary Club is limited to students who are enrolled in English IV and who have an average in English of 85. The club visits the Dock Street Theater in Charleston and engages in other activities to encourage interest in the literary world.

Officers are: President, Wayne Wilson; V. Pres., Jacob Teasdell; Secretary, Gwendolyn Ford; Treasurer, Paula Jackson. Sponsor: Mrs. vonLehe.

Lumberjack Club

The purpose of the Lumberjack Club is to build one's confidence and to develop leadership abilities. The club participates in local and state pulpwood contests, and visits local industries.

Officers are: President, Harold Rhodes; V. Pres., Ezeikel Gadson; Secretary, John Smoak. Sponsor: Mr. Gowdy.

Math Club

The goals of the Math Club, which is in its first year of existence, are to stimulate interest in the field of mathematics and to form a math program to help students who need or want help in math.

Officers are: President, Henry Babilon; V. Pres., Connie Nesbitt; Treasurer, Babbie Bodison; Secretary, Gregg Adams. Sponsor: Mrs. Allen.

2. (upper left) David Williams flies high in an attempt to block the Beaufort quarterback's pass.
3. (lower left) "Let me up!" Willis Arnett seems to be held down by the conferring referees.
4. (upper right) "We did it!" These Bulldogs show much enthusiasm after upsetting the Berkely Stags in a Homecoming victory.
5. John Washington sweeps around left end as a defender futilely lunges for him.

1. John Washington demonstrates his open field running abilities against the Berkeley Stags.

2. What a hit! Kenneth Sanders forces a fumble from an unidentified Goose Creek Gator.

1. Willis Arnett is dragged down by a Middleton Razorback after receiving a pass from quarterback Kenny Rahn.

2. Kirk Breland, David Williams, and Conrad Smith stretch in an effort to block a Beaufort field goal attempt.

Varsity Basketball

The Varsity Basketball teams, both boys and girls, showed much improvement over last year. Through hours and hours of practice, they learned the meaning of teamwork — and winning. It wasn't easy, but the Bulldogs chalked up a winning season and captured the 1st round of the playoffs.

1. Basketball Coach Francis Simmons smiles with good reason as his players turned out a winning season.
2. Coach Simmons gives his team some pointers during an away game.
