THE ASSIGNMENT

Give it all you've got in everything you do! No matter what the cost! Sacrifice, to reach that goal! Struggle, to overcome the forces that hold you back from doing your best! Strain, because anything less than your best is unacceptable

Above: Dale Phillips says, "No matter what the cost, I've got to read these books!"

Left: Coach Hall thinks, "Will those guys ever get the hang of it?"

Bottom: The cheerleaders strain because anything less than their best is unacceptable!

Top: Cary Hickman struggles to overcome the forces that holds him back from playing football.

Above: Coach Burke says, "You must strive forward! Pushing yourself to the point where you feel you might break! But still go on . . ."

Left: Then all of a sudden it hits the Band of Blue, strong determination . . . whole hearted dedication. They know now that there is no turning back!

THE ATMOSPHERE

Exciting tension surrounds you! Your pulse and your heart begin to pound away in your head! Then all of a sudden it hits you . . . strong determination . . . whole heartedly dedication! You know now there is no turning back! You must strive forward! Pushing yourself to the point where you feel you might break! But still you go on . . .

Above: You can feel exciting tension all around the gym as these Juniors cheer the Bulldogs on.

Below: Calvin Holmes' pulse and heart begin to pound away in his head as he fills out the first forms of the year!

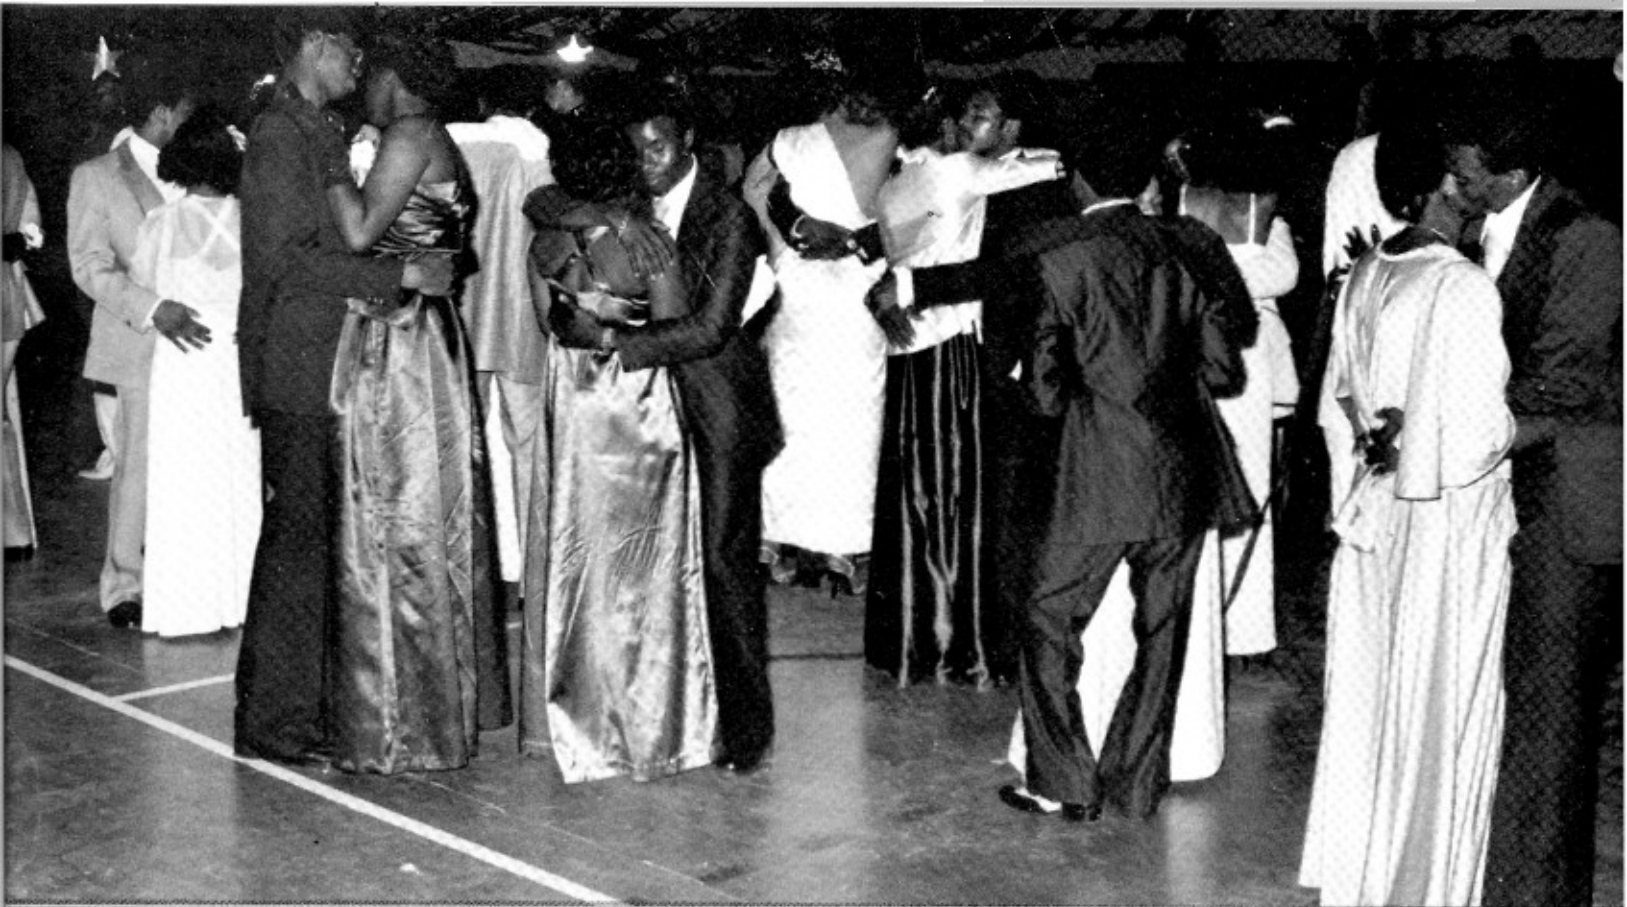

Student Life

"LONG DRESSES AND TUXEDOES"

Put away those jeans and t-shirts or slacks and blouses. And "bring on those slinky long dresses and snazzy tuxedos".

The night was young on April 18, at the time of the prom. Young men and ladies were arriving at Walterboro High School Gym. The atmosphere was set as soon as everyone hit the floor and saw the decorations of silver and black laced around the Gym. "Disco-Livin-it-up" was the scene and decorations made the atmosphere even more lively. Cardboard cut out of dancing couples taped around the Gym made the Disco more alive.

The Band, G.N.P. provided some great music to dance to or to just sit back and relax. People began to leave around 12:00 to begin other activities. The night had only just begun.

Thanks go to Mr. Bill Dreyer, Mr. John Smoak, Mrs. Betty Farmer, Mr. Mark Bowers and Mrs. Ann Young and others who helped make the prom successful.

Can the faculty keep up with the young people or are they just going to sit all night?

Left: Slow and peaceful — that's how the juniors and seniors like to dance after a hard workout on the floor.

Below: Sitting, relaxing seems better for Amy Kinsey.

Below: While waiting to move to the beat Gerard Geddis and Brenda Johns are checking out some pictures with Andrew Green.

Above: The Band G.N.P. was late but it looks like they're making up for lost time.

Below: Disco-Livin-up is what Judy Bright and Reggie Roundtree are getting into.

ONE STEP BEYOND

On May 30, 1980, 271 Seniors faced the greatest moment in their lives, Graduation. These graduates proved that there is a reward, not a medal but a sense of pride that only comes when you know you have done your best. And those who gave that extra effort did not go unnoticed. Sharon Mole was the Valedictorian, who also won an award from the Bausch & Lowil Co., and a full scholarship to the College of Charleston. The Salutatorian was Cheryl Faulkner who also won a scholarship to the College of Charleston. John Barnes won the Adams-Bailey Scholarship, and the Tea & Topic Club Award. Marsha Bright received an award from the Colleton County Education Assoc. Glen Hiers received the Bus Drivers Award. Pamela Hicks received an award from the National Council of Negro Women, the Elks Club, and the Citizenship Award. And a special mention went to Billy Wayne Chambers who had Perfect Attendance for 12 years.

Lord don't let me trip, was the main thought throughout Graduation, as the Seniors marched down the aisle.

Silence is here, but just wait until it's over!

I wish they would get this over with, It took them 12 years, said Mr. Jones to Mr. Seale as Mr. Ewing, and Mr. Small look on.

Twelve years Perfect Attendance prepared Billy Wayne Chambers for this Graduation.

No she didn't sing, but Valedictorian Sharon Mole did tell about the class of 80's pride.

Senior Class President Patricia Frasier presents Mr. Jones with a new podium for the school.

Good Old Summer Times

Above: "We didn't learn this in school," says Launa and Tammie Phillips.

Above: Louise Kinard, Sonya Bennett, Robin Drawy wonder if that smile of Shirley Brown's is real or not.

Above: "And here we have the latest model of a Fred Parker hearse," says Toby Floyd.

Above: "Look out sis, you're going to get it now," says Pam Garvin to her sister Peggy Garvin.

Right: "These trophies came from hard work," says Rick Tower.

Summer vacation is a time to fulfill all those daydreams we have during the school year. Maybe we can't fulfill them all but those that we do will become some of our fond memories, those that we shall look back on in our later years. But a large part of our summer vacation is filled with those things that we enjoy most. Whether it's that all All-American sport baseball or just getting away from it all just as Rick Tower does with his horse. "The world seems more peaceful when it's just my horse and me," said Rick. But besides for peacefulness it has earned him many trophies and ribbons.

Now there were those of us that felt that we should make up for all those dances we missed due to other "obligations." Whether it was disco dancing, or square dancing, it was enjoyed. Laura and Tammie Phillips were just two of many who participated in square dancing this summer.

Now there are always those of us who do something a little different like Toby Floyd. Toby, among other things worked with Fred Parker Funeral Home. But then again everyone wants to be a "little" different. And I believe driving a hearse would make you a little different.

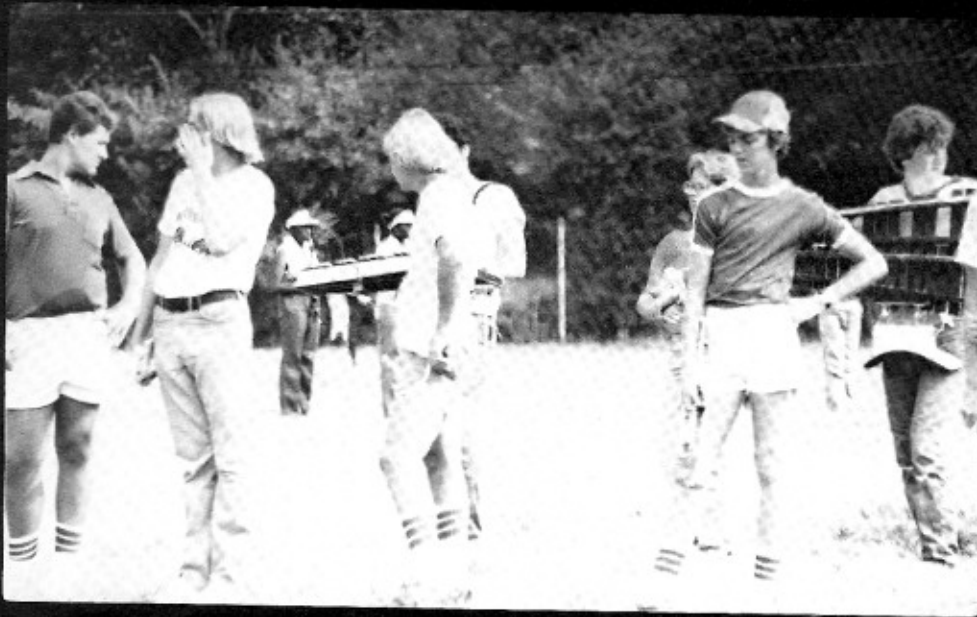

There were still those of us who just had a basic summer vacation. You know talking to friends, swimming, and finding skulls. Yes skulls, Louise Kinard found a skull twelve years ago on Air Hall Plantation that she thinks is the skull of an Indian woman. Finding it was only the beginning though, she plans to take it to the Charleston Museum to have it carbon-dated.

Well each of the previous people had no need to defend themselves. But what if there was a dispute and you had to learn to defend yourself? You might want to take karate like Pam and Peggy Garvin. They have been taking karate for the last two years. It must be fun because they keep participating summer after summer. But one thing is for sure, they sure won't have any rough dates.

The summer vacation of the Walterboro High School students may not have been the greatest in the world, but they weren't B-O-R-I-N-G.

Right: Boy he's good, his hat doesn't fly off!

Below: Practice makes perfect but you can over do it says Bubba Fort.

Above: Boy, what an exciting day.
Right: The Egyptians had nothing compared to this!

Insert: Maybe if I don't run they won't chase me says Greg Clayton.
Below: I hope I'm doing this right.

Not Just Your Average Summer

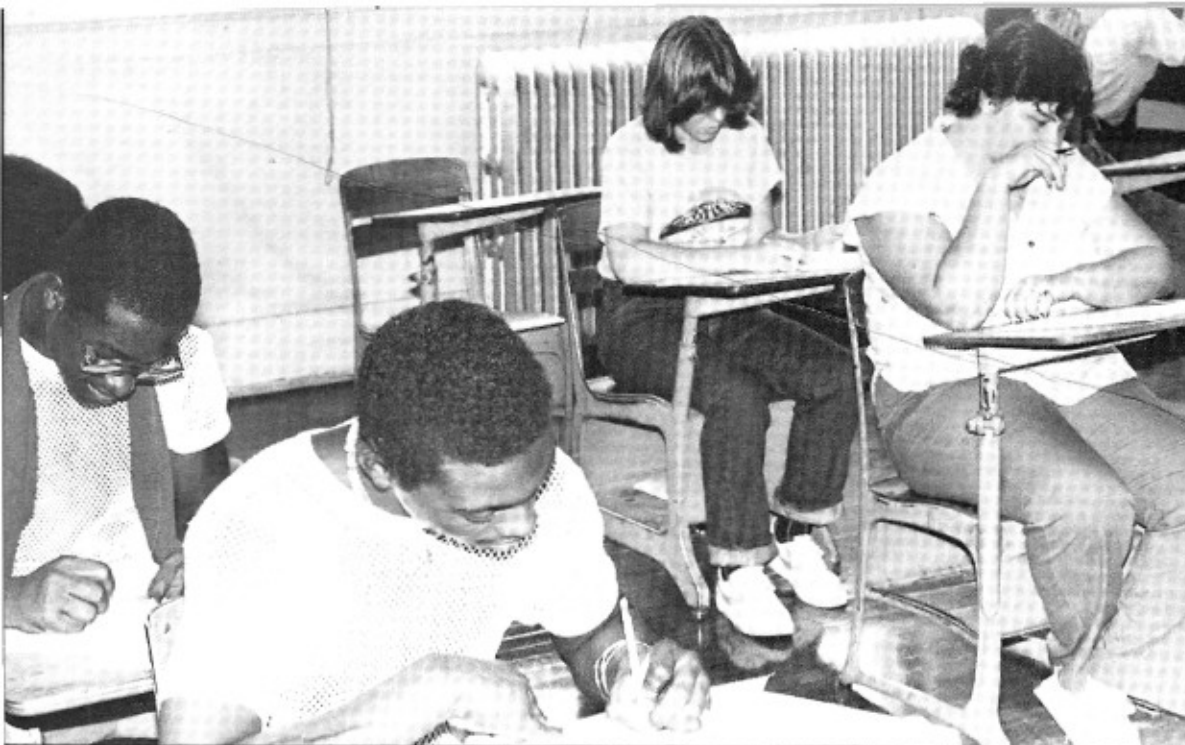

What does summertime bring to your mind? Rest, fun, or just a time for doing absolutely nothing. That best describes what you do when there are summer days that reach 100 degrees. But what happens if you planned to play football, or become a member of the Walterboro High Band of Blue. Maybe you were good enough to be a cheerleader? Well your dreams of doing nothing went down the drain. All varsity football prospects had a summer weight lifting program to make, which also included running the mile in under six minutes. But that's not all! After that the lucky few had summer practice, and camp at Erskine College.

The band members had practices that formally introduced them to that summer heat which broke records this summer! Now at last the cheerleaders, yes those lovely young ladies who give it their all each and every football and basketball game had to practice also. But then again no one said that being number one would be easy. Although there were practices after practices they all knew the 1980-81 school year would make it worth while. And from each and every one of us we salute you!

Right: Jackie Morrow is giving it all she's got.

Left: Hot, bored . . . Do we have to fill out these forms for the school? Why so many? Asks Jesse Harley and Ron Heape.

Getting Acquainted Again

Mmm, the first day of school. I can't believe it. Boy! Did the summer go by fast. It seems only a couple of days since we've gotten out of school. It sure is a long bus ride to the school. For some of us it was hot and exciting this summer. Getting acquainted again, new faces to know, old rules to follow. That sure seems like the same things we did last year and the year before.

Of all days? Why is Walterboro so hot today. Hmm! I see a lot of new faces and some old. What is he doing here. He was supposed to have graduated with the class of 1980. Well it's time to go into the Gym to find out what homeroom class we're in. Wow, a lot of students sure did come from Colleton

High School. Crowded already. I wish the Principal would hurry up and call out the names and homerooms we go to, because it is too hot in this Gym.

What! Immunization shots? Nooo! This can't be? Why us? Sorry but the state legislature passed a law requiring that you take them. But those shots hurt! Well if you have taken all of your shots then you don't have anything to worry about. But why? Well the state legislature found out that a lot of kids weren't getting their shots, and they were getting various diseases. Those diseases were being passed on to others. Hurray! It's time for us to go home. Now I wonder what the rest of the year will bring to us.

Below: Easy, Hard . . . don't let these faces fool you. Now which one am I going to have? I hope I've got an easy one.

Above: Listen everyone! Here's my speech for the year. Mr. Jones sure has their attention.

Above: Please hurry up, it's hot in here. Mr. Jones must be saying something important for them to be listening.

ave to
? Why
? Looking forward to new year are you? Student Council officers, Lynn Carter, and Ronnie Morrow, Maggie Bright, David Small, Terry Hiers, look like they're anxious et started.

Above: Clowning around are you? Well it's the only thing Richard Hiers got to do to keep him from becoming bored.

We don't wanna sit down, we wanna get down.
We don't wanna sit down, we
wanna get down.
People, get on you feet,
and dance to the Bulldog beat.
Get up and move around,
so we can get on down.
We don't wanna sit down, we
wanna get down!

Right: Higher, Hey, Isn't that too high?
Whoops, be careful. Janet, Kay, Jackie,
Aretha, Joanna, Beth, Lisa, and Audrey have to go far up.

Above: Who won the spirit stick this time? They are sure getting over excited. Don't you think so?

Above: Getting into the groove. Janet Danzler and Joni Stringfield do know their stuff. They're giving they've got!

Above: Joyce, what are you looking at? I thought you were supposed to be helping cheer with Lynn, Barbara, Angela, and Stacey.

Above: Come on and help the cheerleaders cheer those Bulldogs. We sure do want them to win.

WHAT IS A PEP RALLY?

You mean to tell me that you don't know what a Pep Rally is?
No! I don't.

Well let me tell you!

A pep rally is when the students try to boost their football team up to win.

Do you have fun at these rallies?

Do you have fun? You just don't know, girl, you will soon find out how much fun you can have if you just put your mind to it.

Is that all they do?

No! when we get fired up in the Gym we start to have a contest between the Seniors and Juniors to see who has the most spirit, you can yell all you want to, and the Pep Rallies have some good privileges. Here's some cheers I like to sing at the rallies and Games.

Super Seniors, yea

Time to get down, yea

Should we halla, yea

Should we shout, yea

Should we turn this ball game out? say yea, yea, yea, say yea, yea, yea.

Jiving Junior, yea

Time to get down, yea

Should we halla, yea

Should we shout, yea

Should we turn this ball game out? Say yea, yea, yea, say yea, yea, yea

Give me a B-U-L-L-D-O-G-S!

What you got? Bulldogs!

Who's gonna win? Bulldogs!

Gooooooooooooooooo Dogs!

Above: Is there something wrong with Coach Hall? Janet Dantzer and Joni Springfield are having fun up there. Well don't worry we'll get into the spirit.

Above: Tina, Ann, Edie, and Jackie show their spirit. Come on you can do better than that now, show the Bulldogs you've got spirit.

Above: What's going on, can I know too? Well aren't you going to tell me Valarie, George and Mark Allen?

Above: Vonda and Ronny sure do look good accepting award for the Band of Blue.

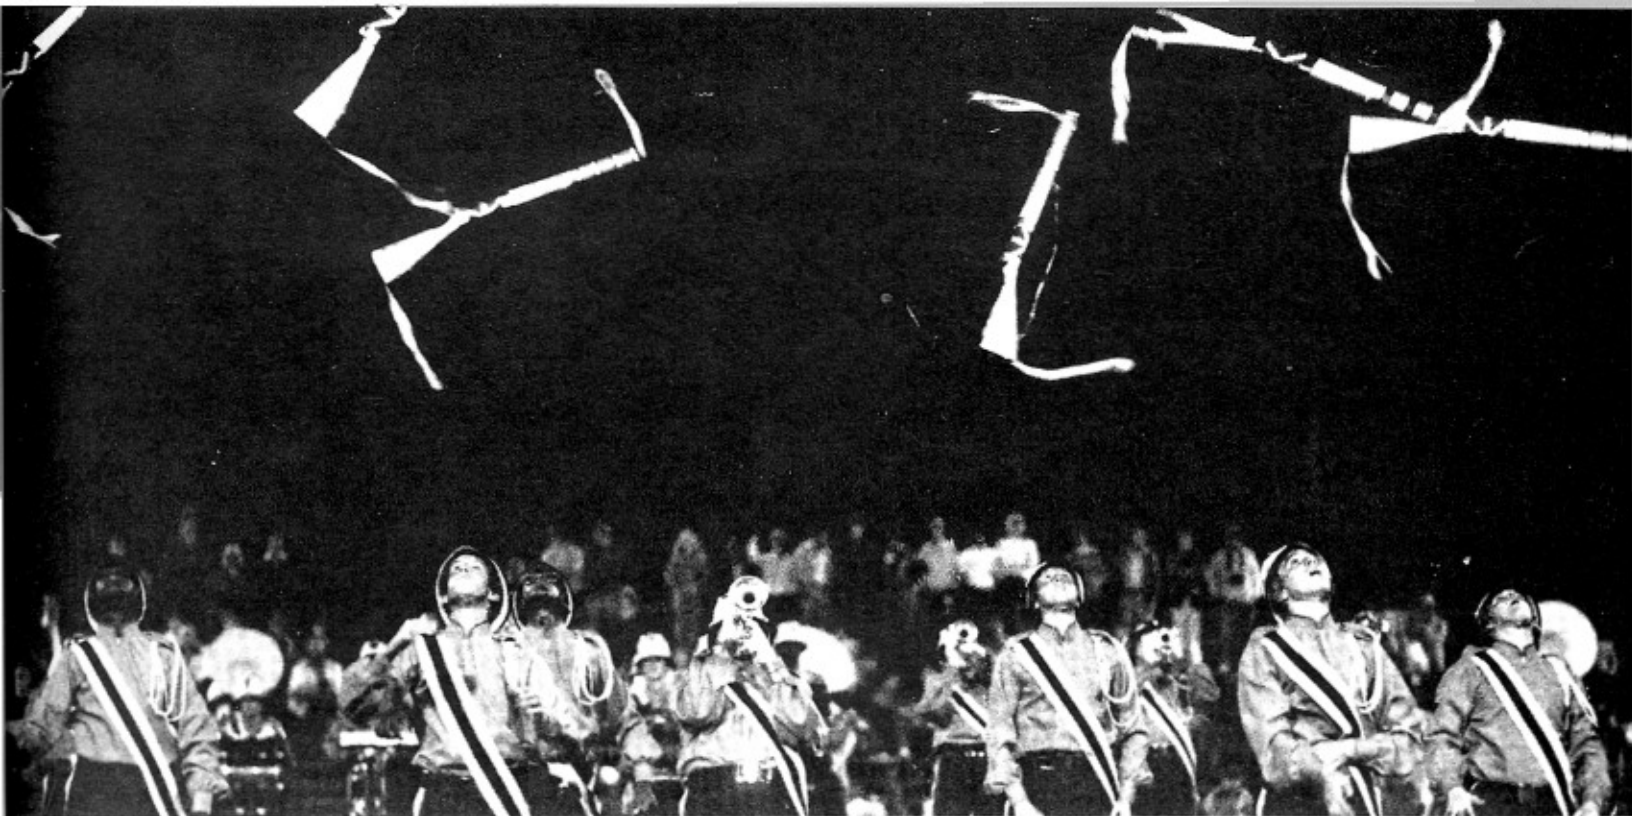

Above: Oh wow! You've caught it. Are you going to do anything else for us? This just set my day off right.

Above: That's nice practicing over your show. Hope you win.

Above: Vonda, Lisa and Kay are happy over their perform but still say should have gotten 1st place.

Above: Alright! I hear you. Catch it! I know you can do it.

ONE STEP TO MAKE

On Oct. 25, 1980, the band of blue ventured to what was to be their biggest contest of the year and to their best performance in the band's history. The band was relaxed. There was a casual atmosphere about the trip. They listened to music, played games, and talked to each other to keep away any tension.

This band is made up of people that is equal in importance. One would think the Seniors would be the one to stand out of the crowd. For the seniors, it is their chance to do something to leave behind. For some, this was their fourth or fifth year in the band. It was the Seniors' "Last, Hurrah." After years of not placing, this was the last chance.

Many band members felt this had to be the year to shine. They felt they worked long and hard during summer and some winter months. There was a certain spirit about this band like never before.

As the Band of Blue marched on the field about eight-thirty that night, one could tell that the intensity was very high. You could see in your eyes that they had come not to go away disappointed again. Their performance on the field was superb. It's hard to find many words to describe this great performance.

Around 10 o'clock, the awards were being given out to the victors. The excellent and superior were given out first. After this came the time for the bands to be placed. When the announcer called Richland Northeast for third, it was like all the stadium froze.

The mood was now set and the tone was just right. The next words the announcer said was that Walterboro had won second place. There was jubilation and tears after this. Many felt the band should have placed first.

It was a very close contest between the top three. Richland Northeast came in third with a 288.5, Walterboro came in second with a 289.0, and Summerville, our neighbor rival, won with a 289.2. One could pinch themselves to see if this was reality and not a fantasy world after the contest.

When the band was entering Walterboro, they were met by the police to escort them through the city. Following behind were a line of cars.

This was truly an exciting weekend for the Band of Blue.

Veronica Clayton said, "Being 2nd in the state is a nice feeling, but it only gives us a desire to try even harder."

Robbie Goodwin said, "It was a rewarding feeling to come out a winner after a lot of hard work." He also expresses his support and gratitude for the support of WHS.

Jessica Fields feels good that her senior year turned out so wonderfully.

Valerie Williams said that after five years in the band she felt something different during the practices. This year was like her rookie year when the band received its first superior award at state contest.

Above: Mr. Young is very pleased at the Band of Blue's performance, seems to look like he's enjoying himself.

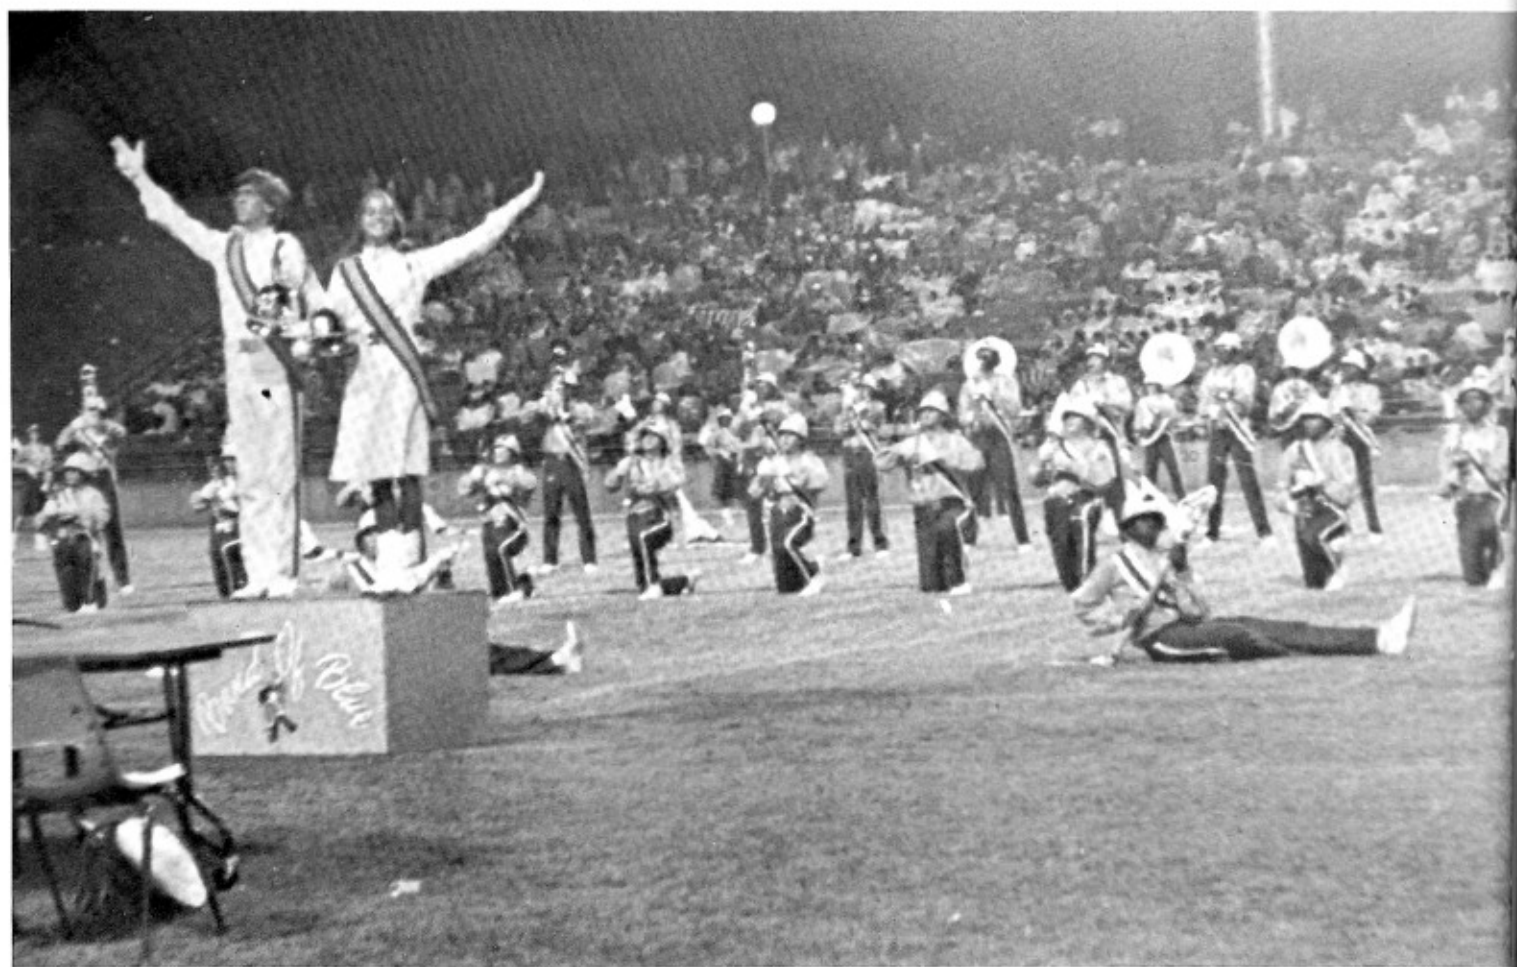

A PERFORMANCE TO BE PROUD OF

Below: I'm sorry Tyrone if you didn't become #1 in the State championship but Walterboro High calls the band of Blue The Best.

Above: Nervous, patience, well don't worry Band of Blue Members you'll do just fine.

"F-U-N, this word maybe simple, but when Wendy Connelly, Thomas Pinckey, Wendy Maggi, and Renee Shaw said that one simple word they spoke for all. Now many seniors thought that seniority gave them the most joy out of the trip. This could mean riding the first bus, getting first choice and getting to eat first at the restaurants. The latter may not seem very important, but if you were one hundred and fifth in a line of one hundred and six or seven people it would definitely rank among the top priorities! To Tyrone Francis, William Meritt, Opie Scoggins, Greg Lommen, Tommy Finigan, "Food, period, ranks first!" Lillian White and Angela Sumler felt that as long as they achieve their goals the trip would be fine. Now others thought the trips were a time to get to know Mr. Young and the new member of the family, Mr. Ellenburg, Redell McDonald, Frances Boesnck, and Bessie Mae Stanfield said, "They are as happy as we are when we win because they know all the work it took to get there. And the work really did payoff because they won three awards, superior band front, superior Drum Majors, and superior overall. These awards make each and every person in Walterboro as proud as they are!"

Above: Great, terrific performance, Ronny and Vonda. I see that the Band of Blue are great this year in their performance.

Below: The Band of Blue poses with their results of all those days of hard work.

Above: Now look Albert! If you carry my suit bag I'll carry the music," said Robbie Goodwin.

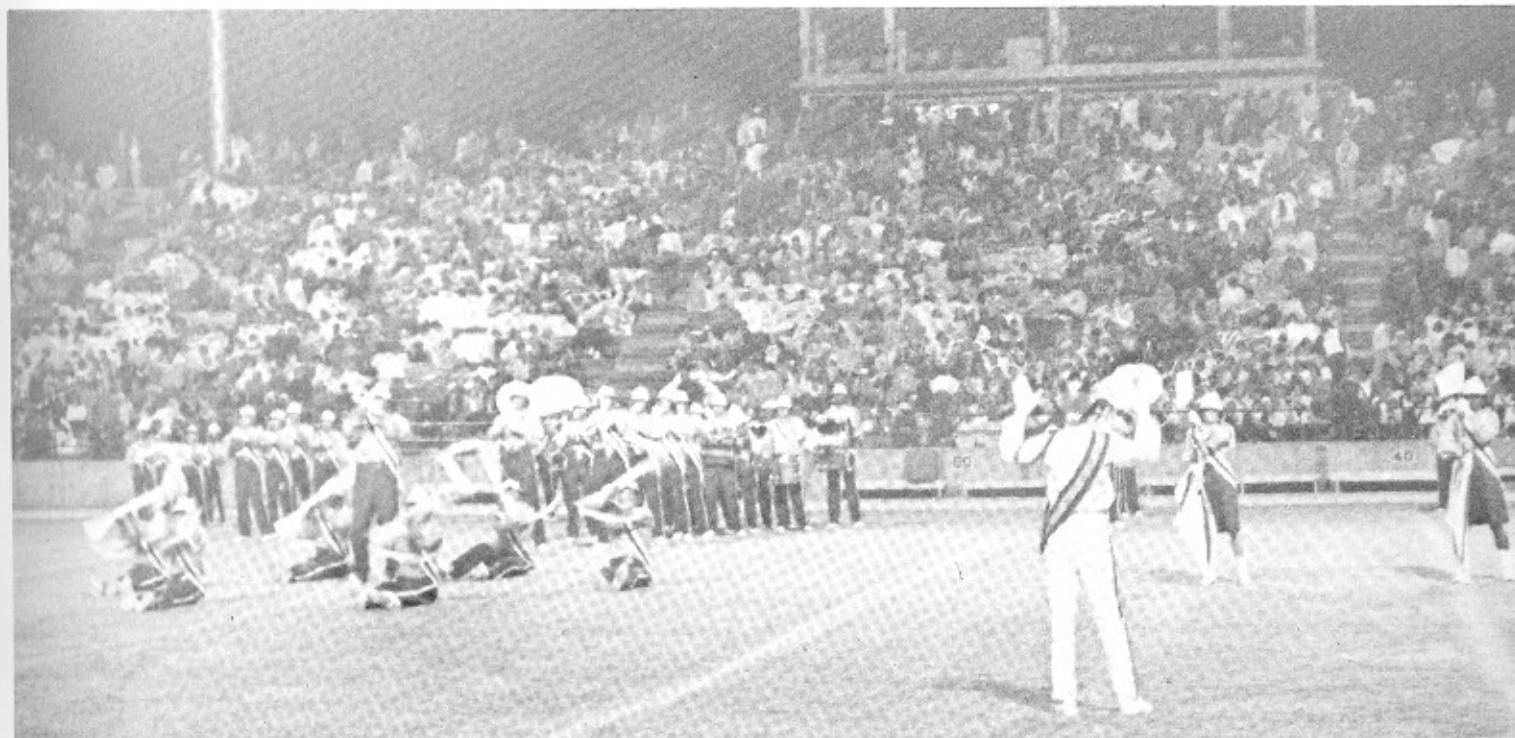

Below: Tony Shider and Ronny Harley are very glad they are looking on in their "Bad Suits."

Above: I don't believe this. Mark Allen gets to hold the trophy and Debia McDonald has her turn next and they're not even seniors," says Tyrone Francis and William Meritt.

Below: Wow! Isn't that ground cold? That's some fast turning with those guns.

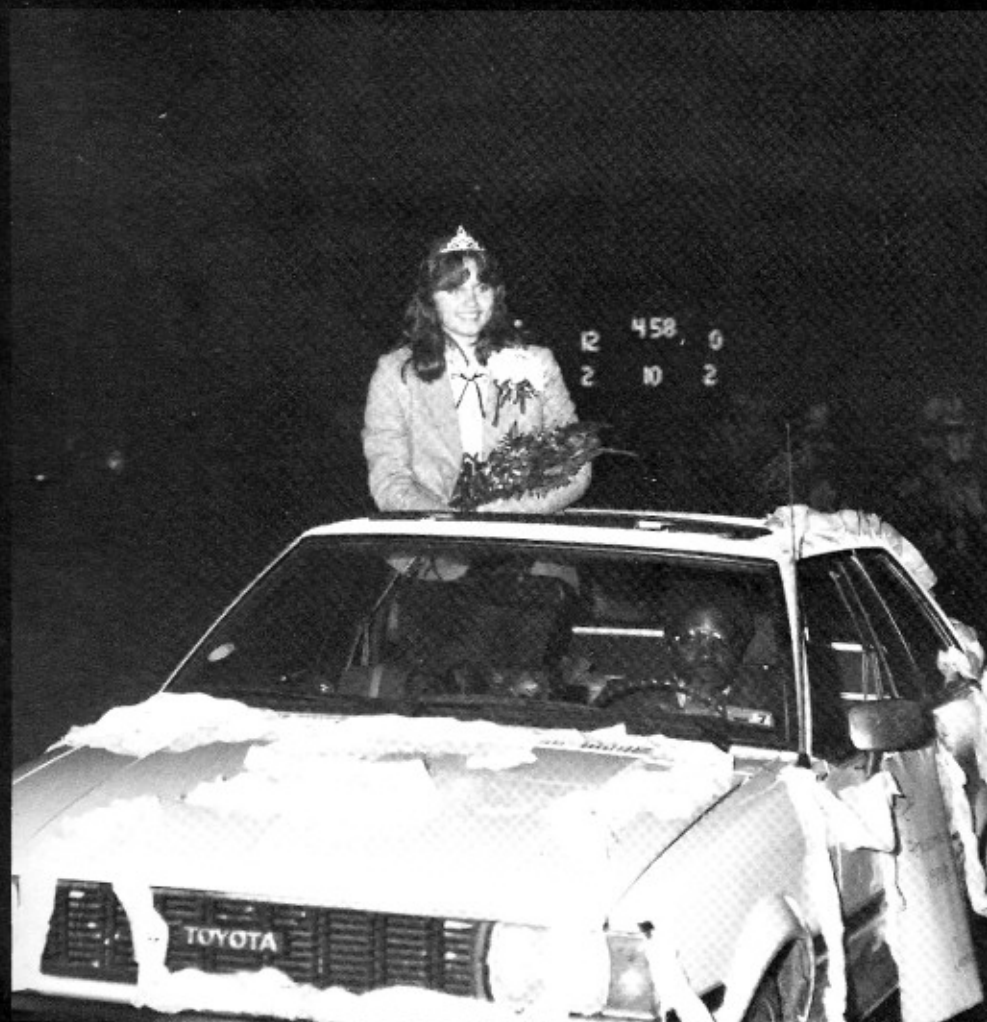

Homecoming Beauties

Jack Morrow with her escort Ricky Crosby became the Homecoming Queen. Without a doubt it was one of the greatest moments in her life. Jackie was crowned by Mr. Jones and driven around the stadium by Colleton High's principal Mr. Smalls. But the other contestants and their escorts were not forgotten. The contestants and their escorts were Wanda Murdaugh escorted by Charles Malone, Barbara Taylor escorted by Stevie Ford, Clara Deal escorted by André Moultrie, Joni Strinfield escorted by Jeff Bentson.

When these contestants were asked how they felt about their senior year Joni Stringflied replied, "I feel great about my senior year and I am having a fantastic time! But on the other hand I feel sad because this is a part of my life that is coming to an end and I will miss everything and everyone. I will always treasure my moments at WHS for they will always remain in my heart! Clara Deal said, "Thus far I feel that I have accomplished alot of goals that I have set for myself. I have also gained alot of experience in many of our school activities."

Above: It couldn't be a Bonfire without a fire could it?

Spirit From Pep Rally Lights Bonfire

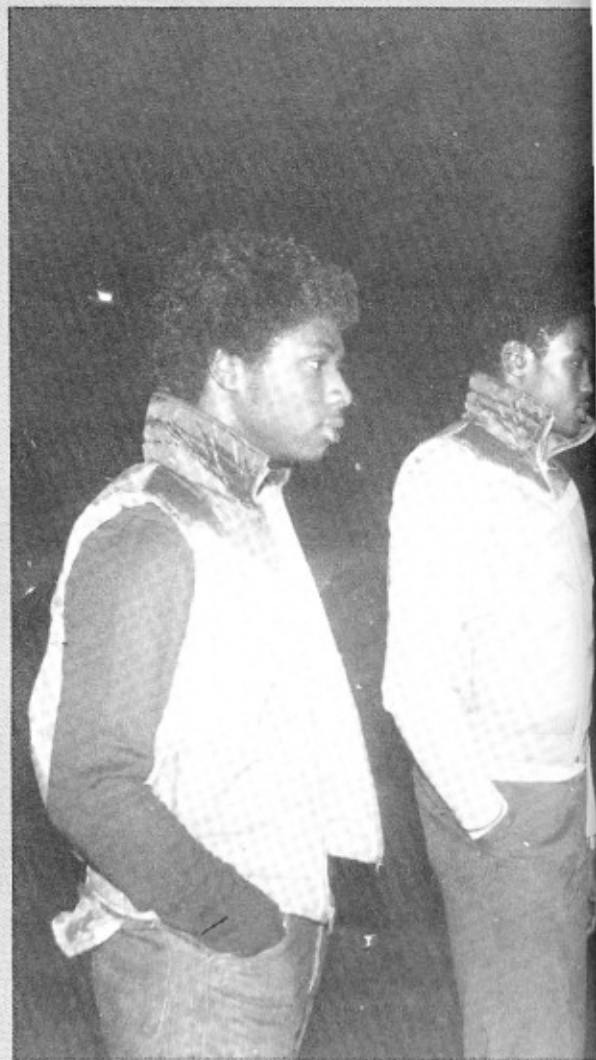

Spirit Week had more events that suited the Walterboro High School students' tastes than any other week. And once again the students showed their superior school spirit.

During the Pep Rallies the juniors were pitted against the experience of the seniors. Well of course there were the cheerleaders who kept all the students interested (at least the guys). The seniors started by showing the juniors what a sign was supposed to look like. And if you ask any juniors, they will tell you that the seniors' sign was gigantic. Well that counted as one point for the seniors. Then another for Jimmy Reece running around in a cheerleader suit. But Billy Reed gave the juniors a point because he also wore a cheerleader suit. The only change the juniors had left was their ability to use their mouths. And when given the chance the juniors undoubtedly had the most spirit. Well to none of the juniors' surprise, they won.

But just think, the juniors have to last another year at WHS. At least that made the seniors feel better.

Now on Thursday there was a bonfire. The bonfire also proved to be fun. While the students watched the fire they got to know each other better and even participated in some of the cheers. The students again showed their spirit which was ever present. The bonfire was sponsored by the National Honor Society.

Above: You can't fool us Danny Thomas and Jack Gant, we know you aren't looking at the bonfire.

Below: "It must run in the family because they always follow each," says Terry.

Above: Michael Ford may not have been as pretty as Joni Stringfield but he sure had the spirit of a real Bulldog at the Bonfire.

Below: The Bonfire had to be fun if it caught John Brown and Co.'s interest.

Above: Watch as she conjure a portion for the Homecoming game and Billy Reed.

Below: The Fifties never looked so good, but then again the fifties never had these Walterboro High School students

FROM OLD TO NEW

Above: David Pollard said we should have a Dress Up Day more often because Valarie Williams, Jessica Fields, Annie Lawton, and Jackie Gant sure look good!

28 / Homecoming

The Fifties Day and Dress Up Day at Walterboro High School showed that the students could do the "old" or "bring in the new."

Most students who participated in the fifties agreed that their parents enjoyed Fifties Day much as we do. It brought back memories of their high school days and those unforgettable "hops." Penny loafers, varsity sweaters, bobby socks and leather jackets were all brought down from the top of the closet. One by one the leather jackets and bobby socks appeared. We had to admit that long skirts and work pants didn't look too bad. And they also were rather comfortable. But most of the female students preferred their old blue jeans to long skirts. When it came down to the real facts all enjoyed fifties day. But so does the rest of the country because today's fashions still reflect some of the good old Fifties.

The Walterboro High students went from Fifties to Dress Up Day with a touch of class. The suits and dresses added an extra touch of beauty to Walterboro High. The guys wore suits that ranged from blue to white in color. And the young ladies were truly beautiful.

Because of the great support of both days we should be proud of ourselves and our school spirit.

Below: Dwyne Ritter wonders what Tommy Hill has that gets him but Vonda Gilgen and Leisa Mole during Dress Up Day.

Above: Wanda, Gail, look! "We're getting our picture taken," Vonda Evans, and Ruth Williams.

Below: Posing with Patricia Brown, Harriet Washington, Clara Deal, and Paulette Elliott just made Lawrence Small's day. But we can't blame him can we.

Above: If Leroy Womble, Laury Ackerman, and Kevin Williams get dressed up you'd better believe it's girl watching time.

Our Dress takes a Change

Above: New Kiss member Leroy Murdaugh. Wonder if he sings?

Slob, a sloppy or gross person. It doesn't sound good, but it could be interesting. And it was!

During Spirit Week at Walterboro High, Slob Day proved to be the biggest laugh of the year. Not only did the students participate, but even the teachers. Young men wore dresses, young ladies wore suits older than they were, and the teachers wore clothes that could have dated back to the War of Independence!

First there were the glimpses you caught when you passed them in the halls. Next the chance you got to sit behind that person who wore a pair of torn purple pants with one tennis shoe, and one muddied boot, a green spotted shirt with ketchup and mustard on it, and last but not least a red wig. If it didn't catch your attention it caught the teachers'!

Then at lunch it was the parade of Slobs. Yes, boys slobs, girls slobs, and students that did such a good job they could have passed for either. The judges had their chance to sit back and enjoy.

First there was Almond Davis who has been participating in slob days ever since the sixth grade. And his years of experience sure payed off because he won first place in the contest.

Above: One slob was good, but these two young ladies proved that two slobs were better.

Below: Mr. Slob himself Almond Davis.

Below: And just think they let Donna Davis ride the b that!

Above: "Am I bad or am I bad," says Lamonte Harley.

Now Andrew Reed didn't do such a bad job himself. He showed that his school spirit was where everyone's should be. But just think if the school colors were like the colors in his clothes, boy what a mess that would be!

Then there was Clint Campbell, he started with the nature dress of a slob then he went to the slob's "Best Friend," liquor. Of course he admitted it was fun.

Now Donna Davis, yes the Donna Davis on the Annual Staff, also participated. For one day she became the male slob's ideal mate if any young lady deserves to be this. But like all of the rest she wanted to show her school spirit.

Slob Day also attracted many other like Jerry Peters, Jeneatte Coleman, Lester Green, Jackie Gant, Almond Davis, Donna Davis, Lamonte Harley, Jessie Harley, Clint Campbell, Senta Bright, Andrew Reed, Alphonso Cooper, Joni Stringfied, Juanita Tucker, Aretha Barwick, Woodrow Davis, Shannon bright, Doyle Phillips, Pamela Nobles, Valarie Williams, Gladys Bright, Tammie Phillips, Launa Phillips, Glen Brock.

You Dirty Old Slobs

Slobs prove that there is super school spirit at Walterboro High School. Look how many slobs there are.

Below: Varsity cheerleader Virginia Griffin and her escort Greg Clayton.

These senior football players and cheerleaders have brought on victory through the years at WHS. They have shown their spirit even though sometimes they didn't have victory, but they kept on trying.

When asked how did they feel about their senior year Almond Davis, a fullback football player replied, "The Prom, and being able to get out of my own and try out my viewpoint in the world." Justin Strickland, a Quarterback said, "Being tied with Summerville at halftime 7-7 and beating For Johnson 14-7. We won the game with 1:54 left in the game." Arnie Gilyard, a Defensive Back & SE said, "My senior year was a disaster pertaining to the football point of view, but overall I really enjoyed my senior year and prestige and privileges that came with it." Virginia Griffin, a varsity cheerleader said, "I liked the activities that went on during the school year." Elizabeth Ballard, also a varsity cheerleader said, "This year was our first to have guys cheering. I think they added much to the squad. I'll miss everyone when school gets out and wish the best of luck for the future squads." Janet Dantzler, a cheerleader (varsity) replied, "I loved all the privileges that the seniors have. It just feels great, I'll be finished high school. I've waited 12 years for this and finally I made it. Super Senior!"

A Very Special Occasion

Below: You can tell Billy Reed didn't rest much, but when he did he took advantage of it.

Homecoming Game ignites and sends the adrenaline running throughout the body. The scenes of excitement of Homecoming game is almost next to none. And because it was on October 31 a Friday night. It pitted the Bulldogs of Walterboro against the Gators of Goose Creek. Before the game started all senior football players and all senior varsity cheerleaders marched across the field with their escorts. (We all could sense the joy that they each had.) The senior football players truly looked forward to the game. "Every game means a lot but homecoming is special," said most of the senior players.

Below: The cheerleaders gave everything they had whether the bulldogs were ahead or behind.

American Education We

American Education Week at WHS was one of the most rewarding weeks that a student could have in his life time. It shows a student what a teacher goes through day after day, one hundred and eighty days a year. For students to take over was a good experience for those wanting to become teachers. It was held during the week of Nov. 10-14. On Monday, was Red Letter Day which was posted in the Hall. Tuesday, an educational quiz to see which class would score the highest on the test. Wednesday was USS Day. Thursday was State Student Council Day. Executive Secretary George Smith was the guest speaker. Friday was Student Control Day. One can truly say that without an education these days one can barely be anything in this world. One could say that education is one of the most important things in life so one should do it right the first time, so there won't be a second time around.

Give A Drop, They Take A Gallon

Well, let's start off by saying that it's torture to donate blood. You have to sign your life away. The nurse sticks this foot-long thermometer in your mouth, and then checks your blood pressure by making you lose the circulation in your arm. Next, another nurse jabs your ear until you almost bleed to death! And would you listen to this . . . they expect you to get up and walk over to pick up your blood bag. Well, shoot! By the time you have had your ear jabbed, nobody in their right mind would want their arm stuck with holes. Gee, what do they think we are? Pin cushions?

You hand the nurse your blood bag and she says, "Lay down on the table, and borthor if you don't move when she says move she'll knock you down!" "Blam" you're on the table. She pulls out this nine foot long needle and tells you to lay still when she puts it in. "It won't hurt." Ha ha . . . It's so long she needs to take a hammer to insert the thing. So there you are with a nine foot long needle in your arm, you have a headache, your ear hurts and you're still choking from the thermometer they shoved in your mouth earlier. Now they say you're finished and you did real good . . . "When they say you're finished, they mean "you're finished." You walk away from the table holding your arm. You look like a dried up prune and look whiter than a ghost.

You now have two more steps. The helper slaps a sticker on you and says wear it or else. Finally REFRESHMENTS! You get up to the last table and get a coke and cookies. Boy is this really worth it? I guess so. I donated and lived to tell about it!

What Can You Do About Drug Abuse?

The decision about whether or not to use drugs is one that each young adult must make. No other person can make this decision for him. Therefore, he should accept his responsibility to be well informed about drugs and narcotics. He should be able to recognize the various kinds of drugs and know their effects.

The young adult should be cautious if someone offers him a drug without any cost. At this time he has to decide whether he will accept the free sample, and he also must decide whether to report the person offering the drug.

A person with a friend who is a drug abuser can help him by suggesting that there are agencies and health personnel providing medical and hospital care for the drug abuser. A person informed about drugs should discourage their use among his friends by warning them of dangers, both personal and legal.

Finally, young adults must decide whether to use or not to use alcoholic beverages and drugs.

Community Spirit During Rice Parade

The Rice Festival Parade and the community spirit of WHS. The Rice Festival is a tribute to the Rice planters of Colleton County who during the 18th and 19th century worked hard to make a living on the big plantations in the countryside. WHS had many contributions to the Rice Parade. The Band of Blue which has won many awards throughout the state was on hand to play in the parade. Some of the Rice Planters who are going of have went to WHS were some of the most highly academic girls that WHS can achieve. When these students have reached the highest goals attained of anyone anywhere, then truly one can say to them selves that they are the best at what they can do. A salute should go to these students who worked so hard to represent WHS in any and everything the WHS takes part in. Congratulations!!!

CHRISTMAS Parade Inspirational to Students

The Christmas Parade is an event to be enjoyed by everyone of every age. Christmas is a time of sharing and caring. Once again as shown in the Rice Parade, WHS showed their community involvement with three different departments in the parade. The three departments where Student Council, Forestry Club, and the Band of Blue. The Student Council float aided by

Mr. Dreyer worked furiously to complete their prize winning float named by their theme "The Journey not, The Harbor." The float took first place in the parade. The Forestry Club which is always consistent in what they can do. Their efforts brought them a second place prize. The Band of Blue which is always on hand for all occasions displayed their simplicity and truest form of the great band that there are. As they marched in their Columbia Blue and Keystone Cop hats that is unique in itself. The three departments which showed an array of excellence in this parade, but as usual once again WHS showed their leadership in the community development for the likes of all people.

Below: The Senior contestants: Redell McDonald, Clara Deal, Cindy Hunt, Lillian White, Aretha Barwick, Sabrina Grant, and Frances Boesnch were truly a senior delight.

THE WONDERFUL BEAUTIES

Contests always seem to make school just a little bit more exciting. If it were just any contest it wouldn't be that important. But when it is Miss W.H.S., Miss Senior, Miss Junior, and Miss Merry Christmas it becomes interesting from the first day the students vote until the last moment before the winners are announced. Each and everyone of the titles means a great deal. Even if they don't win they will always remember being contestants. Dressing in their lovely gowns and marching before the student body gives them a chance to realize that they are truly not unnoticed. Because each contestant from the minute they walked on the floor until the minute they left had the envy of the other young ladies and the eye of every young man.

The students showed their respect and good manners by giving the contestants a real W.H.S. applause.

The winners were chosen by the student body. Wanda Murdaugh won Miss W.H.S. and said, "Winning this title was like having a dream come true." And from the student applause she truly deserved to win the title. Joni Stringfield felt that winning Miss Senior would be a title that she would long remember. The way she reacted to winning gave everyone the feeling that she was undoubtedly telling the truth.

Now the Juniors also proved that their class had beauty. Robin Taylor expressed her emotions about winning Miss Junior with great calmness. But she admits that winning the title was a great honor. Wendy Connelly who won Miss Merry Christmas was as pretty as the season itself. "This is the best thing that has happened to me all year," said Wendy Connelly.

Colleton High also had its beauty contest. The titles consisted of Miss Sophomore and Miss Freshman. The new Miss Sophomore was Yvette Stephens, Miss Freshman was Renee Hamilton, and the runner up for Miss Freshman was Margaret Hutcherson. They all said that they enjoyed being a part of the contest.

The contestants and students had every right to be proud of themselves.

Above: Shannon Bright sings "Battle Hymn of the Republic" as an honorarium to George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Martin Luther King.

Whenever you think of Valentines Day you naturally think of the Queen of Hearts Contest. This year's contest started out with the King of Hearts contestants. The contestants were Ken Boone, Dean Brinson, Marvin Cockrum, Almond Davis, Larry Evans, Michael Ford, Cary Hickman, Jimmy Reed, Danny Thomas, and Mark Webster. These young men were chosen because the students thought they all had the qualities of a King of Hearts.

Next came the parade of girls bidding for the Queen of Hearts title. The contestants were Phyllis Cockrum, Clara Deal, Barbara Taylor, Sabrina Grant, Patricia Brown, Sharon Brown, Joyce Brown, Tammie Salley, Denise Jenkins, Gwendolyn Martin, Cindy Hunt, Vonda Gilgen, Gladys Bright, Gail Sherill, Leisa Mole, Brenda Cook, Margie Bright, Edie York, Harriett Fishburne, Sonja Kirkland, Leartis Moore, Kelly Craven, and Josie Hiott.

The students were left in suspense until the judges had a chance to pick the winners. To relieve some of the suspense the students were entertained by Regina Grant, Juanita Bright and Shannon Bright with each singing some special songs. Then Jimmy Reed, Billy Reed, Michael Ford, and Hubert Fryar entertained the students with a dance that could only be described as great.

Next it was time for the King of Hearts winners; first place went to Mark Webster; the Prince was Danny Thomas, and this year's King Jimmy Reed. Well the naming of these winners only made the suspense worse. The five finalists for the Queen of Hearts were Tammie Salley, Vonda Gilgen, Kelly Craven, won first runner-up, Cindy Hunt who won Princess, and Gail Sherill who became this year's Miss Queen of Hearts.

A DAY FIT FOR KINGS AND QUEENS

Smiling with joy are winners of the King/Queen of Hearts pageant. They are Mark Webster: 1st runner up, Kelly Craven: 1st runner-up, Jimmy Reed: King of Hearts, Gail Sherrill: Queen of Hearts, Danny Thomas: Prince of Hearts, and Cindy Hunt: Princess of Hearts.

Most Talented: Regina Grant let the contestants in the Queen of Hearts pageant know they've got a friend by singing "You've got a friend."

Contestants in the King of Hearts were (left to right) Dean Brinson, Almond Davis, Michael Ford, Larry Evans, Marvin Cochran, Kent Boone, and Kerry Hickman.

A hug by former Queen of Hearts, Jackie Morrow, is all Gail Sherrill needs to start her tears to falling.

A group of contestants find the photographer irresistible.

The audience loved the performance to "Burn Rubber" by Hubert Fryar, Michael Ford, Jimmy Reed, and Billy Reed.

Aren't they all adorable?

1980 - THE NEW DECADE MEANS CHANGE

REAGAN HOSTAGES ECONOMY

The election results on November 4, 1980 showed that Ronald Reagan had won by a landslide over the incumbent Jimmy Carter. Reagan received 51% of the popular votes to Carter's 41%. Reagan received 489 Electoral votes to 49 for Carter's 49. Reagan received 219 more votes than he needed to win the election.

Carter received only 49 electoral votes, his own Georgia, Vice-Pres. Walter Mondale's Minnesota, Rhode Island, Maryland, West Virginia, and Hawaii. John Anderson, Independent candidate, received 7% of the votes, and Libertarian Ed Clark 1%. Even though Reagan won by a landslide, he lost in Colleton County and at WHS. The results were at WHS as follows:

Carter - 407-74%

Reagan - 98-18%

Anderson - 15-3%

County Wide

Carter - 5, 745

Reagan - 4, 719

Even more startling was the G.O.P. capture of 11 Senate seats to take over that body by a 53-47 margin. In the Republicans defeated such Democratic figures as George McGovern of South Dakota, the 1972 presidential nominee, Frank Church of Idaho, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, Warren Magnuson of Washington, Pres. pro. tempore of Senate and one of the longest tenure of office, and Birch Baye of Indiana.

OPINIONS

"I was really surprised about the election results, I was really thinking that it was going to be too close to call."

— Shannon Bright

"I thought that Carter was going to win, besides the polls predicted it to be that way."

— Richard Koger

"I sure am happy that Reagan won, because Carter didn't do anything in office."

— Jim Lane

"The election results were interesting, the people have spoken and we must accept it the way it is."

— Stanley Simmons

"Reagan was the people's choice, but he sure didn't deserve to be president."

The U.S. made two sets of world history on the day January 20, 1981 as the 52 American hostages were released from Iran and Ronald Reagan was sworn as the nation's 40th President. The hostages were held in captivity for 444 days. The Americans were released about Tehran time 12:41 and 12:43 p.m.

The Americans back home rejoiced of the news of the released hostages who had been in captivity for so long, and who would be reunited with their families once again.

Nov. 4, 1979 marked the day of destruction as they were arrested at the American Embassy at Tehran. President Carter was on the alert with Congress and the United Nations. Every one back home was angry at Washington for the lack of interest they seemed to portrayed. In April of 1980, a rescue mission was sent to Iran to try to rescue the hostages, but the attempt failed as the servicemen were killed in the desert as the planes crashed. This is one of the top issues that caused Carter to lose the election to Reagan by a landslide because everyone thought that an attempt should've been made earlier prior to the event.

Although Carter did lose the election to this matter, everyone felt that Mr. Carter did his level best to try to free the hostages.

Among the captives, one of them was from the state of South Carolina. William Belk from Carolina (Columbia). The U.S. had to compensate Iran some amount of $24 billion. Many Americans felt that the economy was not able to handle such a deficit. Also Americans felt that the U.S. shouldn't have paid Iran any more than the Shah had invested in Americans banks. Regardless of how much it cost, many were happy to have their fellow Americans back home.

The U.S. Economy, according to statistics reported that the economy had suffered one of its worst disasters since the Great Depression. The employment rate had increased from 5% to 14%. This was one of the main issues that caused Carter to lose the election. Double digit inflation continued in 1980, the prime interest rate soared over 20% and a new recession threatened. As the year ended OPEC raised oil prices again and some of Reagan's advisers urged him to consider declaring a national economic emergency.

Hardest hit was the auto industry, the victim in large part of a concern for gas mileage that many buyers seemed to think could better be supplied by imports. Layoffs were heavy throughout the industry and at year's end the Chrysler Corp., beneficiary of government loans in 1979, was in serious trouble again.

The Chrysler Corp., is still looking toward better interests in the future of the 1980's.

The U.S. Economy is still looking toward a better future throughout the decade with a new administration and better stocks and interests. Although this period will go down in the nation's history, we still believe that this is the land of opportunity; and provide better for our citizens.

BOAT - LIFT

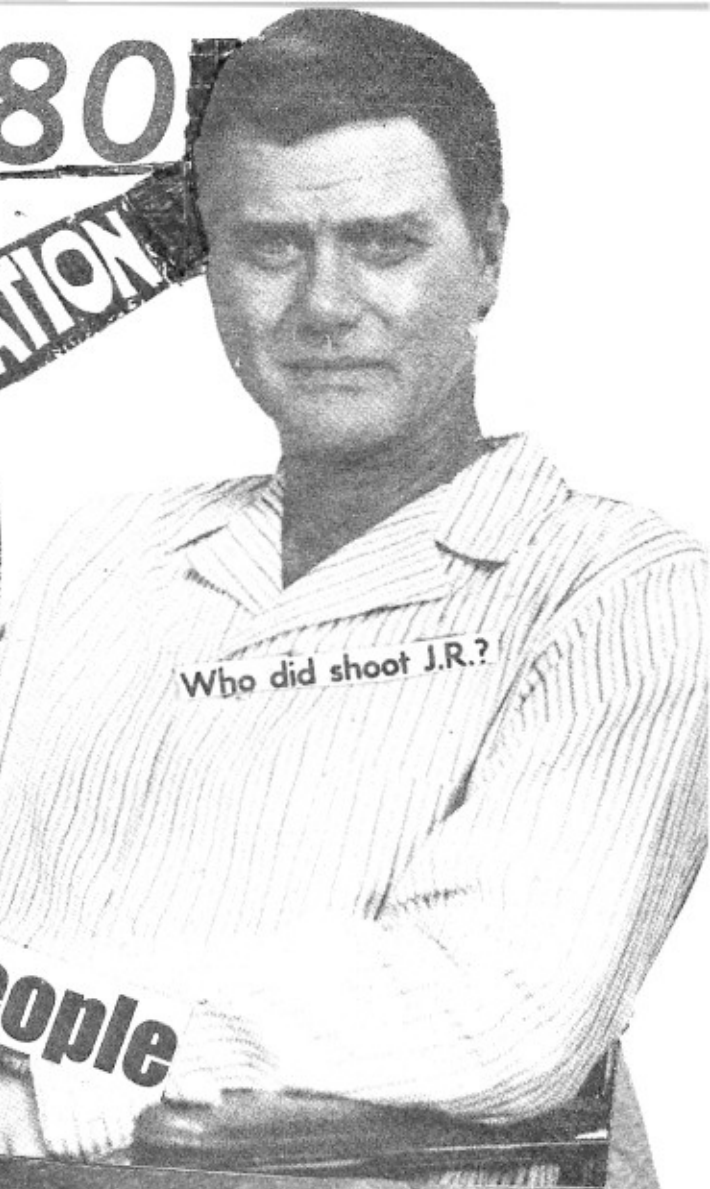

Small boats, large boats, motorboats, sailboats; all headed from the Florida Keys to Cuba in the spring to pick up the tide of refugees Fidel Castro decided to let out of his country. The sudden chaotic influx severely strained facilities in Miami and presented political and economic headaches to the U.S.

Some of the refugees were convicts the Cuban government thought it could expedite to get rid of. For all resettlement was a slow and sometimes painful process, and many still remained in refugee camps at year's end. The migration involved more than 100,000 Cubans, augmented by a smaller number of Haitians who fled poverty and they said political oppression in their homeland. The Americans here back home think that we ourselves need help rather than helping allies from a communist nation. The U.S. agreed that the refugees should be given help, and also at the same time they would not spend any more money.

COUNTY VOTERS FACE ISSUES AT POLLS

HOSPITAL POT BUST WHO CARES?

On Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1980, Colleton County voters resoundingly said "No" to giving the present hospital board the full authority to build a new hospital, but exactly what they do want still remains in question.

As it stood 6,593 to 4,211 defeat of the referendum puts the question who is going to build a new hospital back into the hands of County Council. Despite a heavy predilection for signing a contract with a private hospital corporation, it is conceivable that they could choose to let the hospital remain public.

Campaigning during the previous months before the election, the voters were confused. Many did not know whether or not to vote Yes or No. Nonetheless the majority of the voters said No, giving the Hospital Corporation of America (HCS) to take over the hospital system in Colleton County. HCA took over the system officially with a unanimous vote after the election.

EDUCATION

Colleton County voters agreed to elect A. L. Smoak, new superintendent of Education in Colleton County June 12, 1980. Smoak ran on the county democratic ticket against the incumbent John Ewing. Ewing got popular votes in Walterboro's district 1, 2, 3, and 4, but Smoak got his victor throughout the rural areas of Colleton County.

Smoak will succeed Ewing in June, 1981, and further plans for the new county school deficit. Mr. Smoak is still present director for the Colleton Area Voc. while Ewing is still presently Superintendent of Education.

Thanksgiving Day Nov. 27, 1980 brought about the biggest Pot Bust in Colleton County history. Twenty-eight persons were arrested and placed in the Colleton County jail in connection with the incident. This occurred near Bennets Point in the Greenpond and Edisto areas.

Former Sheriff John I. Seigler and deputies arrested these persons and seized the marijuana. According to Sheriff Seigler, they learned of the scenes through tapping. Colleton County with Sheriff Seigler was within the state news for the past week.

Thus this brought about the end to the biggest Pot Bust in Colleton County history.

REPUBLICAN

First Congressional District U.S. Rep. Thomas (Tommy) Hartnett set up an office in Colleton County as one of his striking campaign promises. Tommy Hartnett is one of the republican congressmen since Reconstruction and The Solid South. Hartnett defeated Dem. Charles "Pug" Ravenel in the General Election Nov. 4, 1980. He plans to represent other areas in his district also.

Hartnett opened the office in Walterboro so that the people in Colleton County can voice their opinions in Washington. Hartnett succeeded a long congressman Mendel J. Davis and recently was appointed on the House Armed Services Committee which his opponent was said to have gotten a better chance.

The major purpose of Hartnett's elected congressman is said to serve the "Will of the People."

"Who shot J.R. was one of the Biggest mysteries in television time. Larry Hagman who portrays the wealthy oil businessman gave viewers one of the biggest mysteries to solve. Hagman (J. R.) was one of the most unlikeable persons in television history because of mischievous doings was shot by a mysterious person on the show who the viewers did not know. Suspense took over the mind of T.V. watchers as they guessed at who shot J. R.?"

At WHS, these were the results:

Alan - 6
Baby - 7
Bobby - 6
Cliff - 7
Ms. Ellie - 163
Kristen - 108
Lucy - 6
Marilee - 6
Pam - 4
Vaughn 11
Other - 59

It Turned out that Kristen shot J. R. WHS students were not far off in their predictions.

THE GROWING COMMUNITY AROUND US

Walterboro has increased its size in recent years. New faces such as McDonald's, Burger King, and Eckerds, to name a few have contributed to this increase. Not to forget the places that we are all awaiting completion, such as the new Western Sizzlin steak house and the new Walterboro High School.

What problems are we faced with, now that our town is growing? Robbie Goodwin, a student at Walterboro High, feels that we may be headed for some financial problems with all the new places going up. On the other hand, Miss Frasier, Spanish 1, 2; French 2, teacher at Walterboro thinks that traffic congestion will present a big problem for us too.

If we are destined to have problems, what about our good points? Mr. Jones, Walterboro's principal, feels that Walterboro is in a good location; centrally locale. He also says that Walterboro needs an attraction such as an industry to help it grow.

It would be nice to have a big industry in our town. We could be more prosperous and jobless people could again work. But what problems come with an increasing growth of a town? What do you think?

What it takes to Graduate?

Did you ever wonder what it takes to get out of high school? It's not as easy as you think. To graduate, a senior must have earned a minimum of 18 units, of these, 11 are required courses. The other seven, or more, are taken according to the student's interests. The required courses are four units of English, at least two units of math, and history, a unit of American government, physical education, and economics, units in science, that are taken over a period of four years; 9th grade to the 12th. A student's choice of electives are not as extensive as they are at larger schools, but there are some to choose from. Courses such as chorus, typing, Spanish, band, home economics, and shorthand are popular. For the students who just need a fill in course, courses such as psychology and driver's education are offered. A student's choice of classes depends on their major. College prep is a system designed for the students who plan to go to college. General courses are offered to those students who aren't planning to go to college, but are going directly to work after high school. Some classes like those offered at the Vocational Center are worth one to three units, while some classes are only $\frac{1}{2}$ unit. So as you can see, in order to graduate, lots of work must be done.

Training for Careers in Our School

Courses at the vocational center and courses at Walterboro High and Colleton High are very important on-the-job training courses for many students.

Although these aren't college prep classes, they are ones that hand students a great deal of responsibility, as well as preparation for future careers. These classes give good experience to students who aren't planning a college career, but are going to trade schools or straight to work after high school.

WHAT'S YOUR VOCATION?

Vocational School Students prepare for careers by training in the field of their interest.

But, there are other things involved such as establishing grade lines and heights, constructing and setting in place and forms, pouring, supervising, and leveling cement mix, applying surface finishes by grinding or use of hand wool and metal that students in masonry may also apply special coatings and repair defective concrete.

Electricians are prepared for employment in both the electrical power and the industrial electrical field after graduation. The vocational school electricians plan new or modified installations and repair existing systems. The students study electrical plans, build raceways, and install switchboards and panels. The students splice wires by stripping terminal ends of insulations, twisting, soldering or using connecting devices.

They also test continuity of circuits to insure electrical compatibility.

The machinists are primarily involved with applying knowledge of machine uses to shape or form various materials such as plastic and steel. They sometimes repair damaged parts. The students study shop orders and drawings, then perform lay-out work. They select the machines to perform their operations necessary for completed work. They inspect work upon completion for compliance like a carpenter works with wood.

In Welding, they put things together permanently. These students prepare and set up welding equipment and weld metal parts together with oxyacetylene or electric arc welding equipment and they cut metal with an oxyacetylene torch.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN THE BAND OF BLUE

NOTES (left to right): Making sure your instrument is in proper condition is important. Here Johnny Stephens, Thomas White, and Douglas Smith make sure that they are ready to perform. It was a blistering hot summer day in August, when most people were relaxing on the soft wind swept sands of Edisto Beach. At a very early hour on the 4th day of August, Bill Young with Greg Ellenberg started sorting out some one hundred and seventy members of the Band of Blue.

Band sections were formed, sheet after sheet of music were dispersed, flags were unrolled, drums and horns tuned and chairs arranged by the sections. Band practice was underway for another year. No one has yet computed the numbers of hours of practice that the Band of Blue went through to learn, practice, and complete an award winning band show.

Then it was off to the Baptist College for a week of intensive music and marching training for all. The heat was an obstacle that the band endured and finally all the heat, work, and sweat faded into September and school started.

All this had little effect on the Band of Blue. Practices continued in the afternoon sun at the stadium. There was still music to learn, marching movements, turns, spins, and more that must become commonplace.

Sore feet, sunburned noses and gallons of perspiration resulted from the bands untiring efforts. The band director and his assistant seemed to know only one word, "AGAIN." As the saying about practice, practice, practice goes, so it was for the band. Practice did pay off.

The end of September rolled around and it was "Win, lose, or draw" time. The rumor of "State in '80" started and every band member made this their objective.

Barnwell's "Music in Motion" was the opening competition and the band came away winning their class and the overall championship.

A lengthy bus trip in early October saw the band in Greenville at Furman's "Music Bowl." The band earned third place in final competition. Then and there a glimmer of a championship band shown through.

The next big effort was our own "Palmetto Band Classic" and another superior trophy. During all this time the band performed at eight football games at home and on the road.

Mid-October brought the "Southern States Marching Festival" at Camden. Still another long tiring bus trip resulted in another superior trophy.

Below: After an outstanding season, Opie Scoggins (assist. captain), Jessica Fields, and Marshall Jones, (co-captains) look relieved. The pressure is over.

Middle: Performing during halftime at football games is not the only function of the Band of Blue. They spark the team and the crowd and create an exciting atmosphere.

Bass Horns: William Merritt, Tony Moore, Ross McMillan, Mark Allen, Randy Fletcher, Edward Jarvis, Timmy Crosby.

Upper Left: "The show" is an integral part of the performance. Judy Pinckney and Todd Johnson are fine examples of teamwork. Above: Being neat is important. Kim Stroble and Wendy Maggi make a last minute check. Below: Pointing out a problem, Mr. Young gets the band to play as a unit.

This year also brought a new look to the Band of Blue. New uniforms of dark and powder blue were issued and a feeling of pride was instilled in each one of us.

Next came the super bowl of high school band events, the world series for the 4-A marching bands; the annual "State High School Band Championships." It was held at Harry Perone Stadium at Spring Valley High School, near Columbia.

Competing against 36 top notch bands from around the Palmetto state, the Band of Blue scored 289 out of a possible 300 points to win second place. The band outscored the preceeding champs, Richland Northeast, and missed winning 1st place by .2 of a point to nearby Summerville.

The music for this year was very good. It all started with the laidback sounds of Georgia on my Mind with soloist Marshall Jones, then went into the thrilling La Marseillaise and then to keep the drummers on their toes, the percussion feature of Battle Fatigue. The concert selection was My Favorite Things featuring the trombone section and concluding the show was the very popular Let It Be Me.

So, another year for the Band of Blue, a very wonderful year. They received 14 awards and thrilled thousands who saw them perform. The sweat, the long hours, the practices, the bus trips are over for this year. For the 170 band members and their two directors, the best award of all, the thrill of winning, made it all worthwhile.

WE DO IT TO WIN!

August 4, 1980. It's 8:15 a.m. and I'm walking to the Walterboro High Bandroom with 170 other kids for the first day of band practice.

One week later. We're at band camp, it's 103 degrees, and I'm standing here washed down in sweat, wondering why in the world I do this every year. We worked for 9 hours a day, mostly out on the field learning new drills. When we weren't on the field we were either in the food line or in bed from exhaustion.

Well, school has started, It's August 30th now. Besides hours of practice, we have homework too. The average school student gets out at 3:00, but band students don't get out until 4:30. (Which for Mr. Young that is 5:00 or whenever he feels that we can afford to go home.)

September 10. We have been in the stadium for 2 hours. It's hot as, well you know. Football season has started, so all of our Friday nights have been taken until November 7, and I'm still wondering what I do all this for.

October 10. We have started our contest season. We won Bamwell's contest but this is our first big one. It's Furman and for a change it's cold! We get third place in the preliminaries, and a third in the finals. The crowd really loved our show and the new uniforms. Mr. Young really thought that now we might have a shot at the STATE. We all know that meant he was going to work us twice as hard.

October 20. Five days from STATE contest. We have ran the show at least 2,000 times in the last month. Mr. Young is uptight. We are uptight and tired and run-down from practice Mon. - Fri., football games, and Saturday contests. Mr. Young's favorite words are ringing in my ears. "One more time, then you can go home if it's perfect."

October 25. Spring Valley, South Carolina. It's 8:25, it's cold and we're scared. We've done this for 3 years, but it happens when STATE contest rolls around. it's 11:30 p.m. It's 22 degrees and we are sitting in the stands waiting for the results. Richland 3rd. Walterboro 2nd. Summerville 1st. We are the second best band in the state.

The whole band goes back to the motel in shock. Now it's over. We can go back to our lives like normal people (for a short while). Now I know why I do this each year. I know why we put up with the heat, the sweat, the tears, the long hours of practice, the short hours of rest and sleep, the old buses, the tricks that are pulled, the yelling that Mr. Young does. I do it because of winning and I do it just for the feeling of being in competition for our school. It have a feeling pride because everyone in the band expects you to do your job and if you don't you let everyone down.

MUSIC — "A DAILY POTION"

Music is an important part in the life of everyone involved in the music department at Walterboro High School, especially Mrs. Dorothy Buckner. She dedicates her life to music.

Mrs. Buckner spends many hours practicing with the chorus so that their performance in concert will be unforgettable. She has been Chorus Director in the music department at WHS since 1951. Every year Mrs. Buckner carefully plans out a program. She includes songs that she knows the audience will enjoy. She is always open for suggestions from her students. With the cooperation of her students, every concert is a great success.

Mrs. Buckner never seems to get weary or tired of practice. She works as if it is her "Daily Potion." If you wonder why Mrs. Buckner can keep going . . . She's not getting older, she's getting better!

Mrs. Buckner enjoys playing soft preludes before concert.

Each year in the choral department at Walterboro High there are students who put in extra hours of rehearsal to prepare for S.C. All-state try-outs. These try-outs are held annually at the University of S.C. The students are graded on ten musical divisions. This year, there were twenty-one students who participated. They are: (front row) Pam Garvin, Elizabeth Ballard, Donald Daughtery, Jackie Gant, (2nd row) Cindy Hunt, Andre Fair, Lynn Carter, Elizabeth Belcher, Regina Grant, (3rd row) Gene Breland, Anthony Davis, Timothy Gant, Senta Bright, Lillian White, (4th row) Shannon Bright, Jeffery Frasier, Juanita Bright, (top row) Michael Carter, and Todd Smith. Not pictured are Michael A. Carter and Hubert Fryar.

"Music Makes Our Lives Worth While"

At the beginning of the school year, the chorus begins working on its annual Christmas Concert. Many hours of work are put into the concert. The students attempt to do their utmost in performing. There are many good points to chorus besides singing. In the chorus room each individual tries to express his courtesy to his fellow member. When a chorus respects the rights of others, it is easier to accomplish a job well-done.

Class-time is 55 minutes each day and sometimes there are many interruptions, so the chorus has to put in night practices. They try to make their concert the best possible.

After Christmas vacation, the chorus comes back to school ready to start preparing for its Spring Concert. The Spring Concert is given in May. Because it is the last performance of the year, there will be a lot of emotions preading in the atmosphere, especially from the seniors. There are many seniors in the chorus this year. Almost all are four-year veterans in the chorus. The seniors will miss their place on the stage and will certainly be missed by the other members.

"Music Makes my Life Worth while," goes one of the songs sung by Walterboro High School Chorus. And the chorus show that the meaning of this song is true in everything they do.

The Student Council worked very hard this year to improve Walterboro High in every way possible. There were times when we did not do things exactly like other people may have wanted, but we made it through even the roughest times.

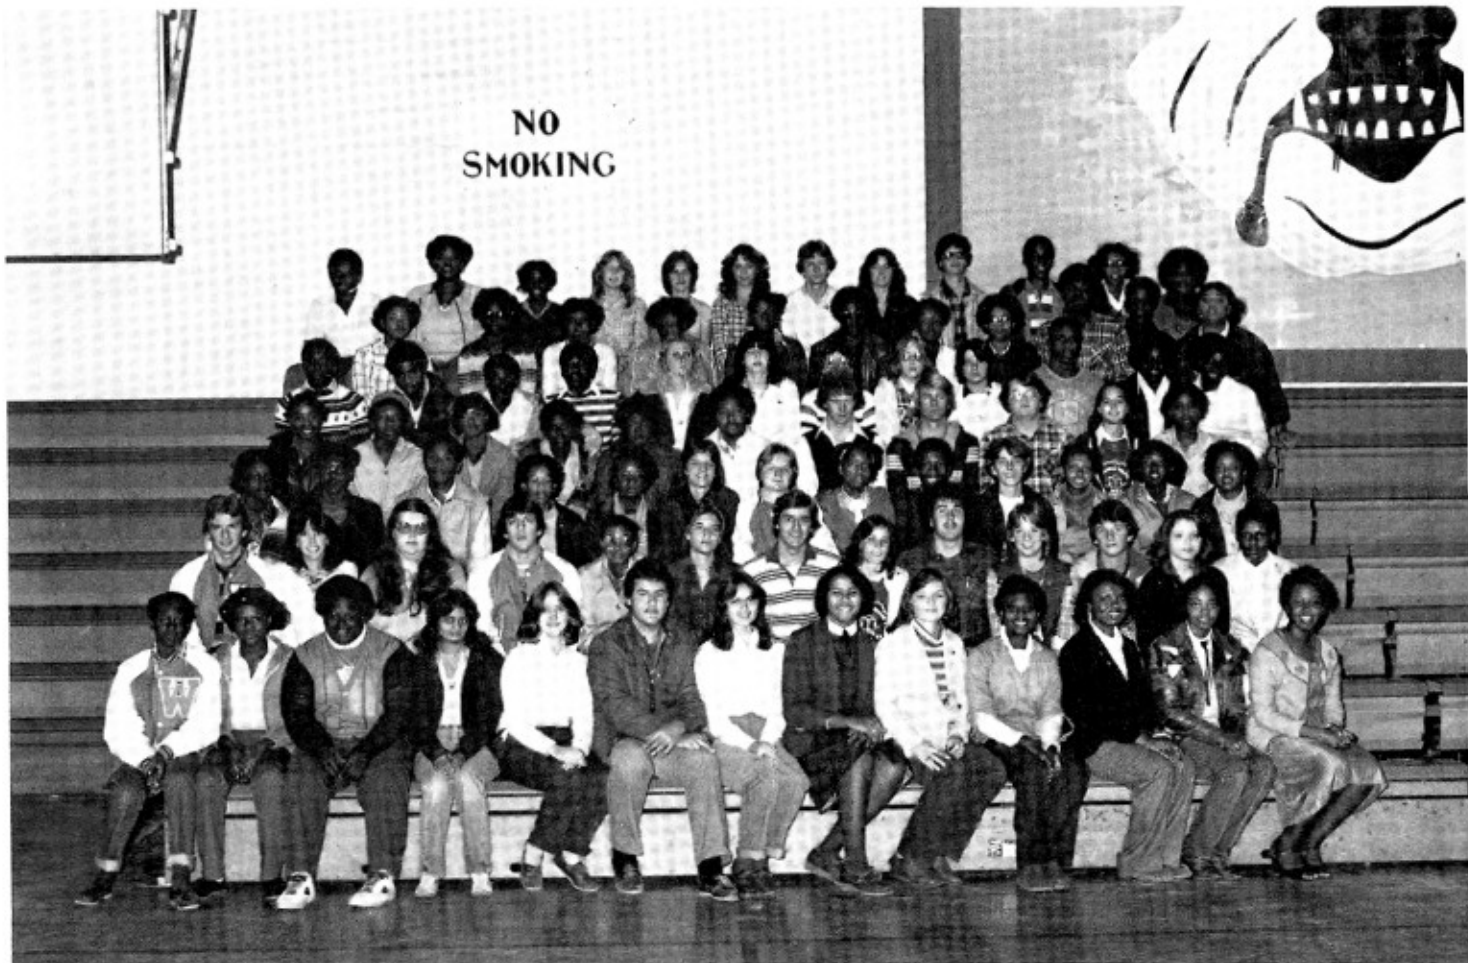

The Student Council tried hard to make each student understand that he is somebody and that his success lies within himself. We stressed this by giving each student a handout at Christmas that had some good thoughts for everyone. We also placed positive approach posters around the school to improve the self-images of the students.

"We are beautiful people!"

The Student Council was a great success because of the many good leaders within the Council. We had total participation from our advisors, officers, representatives, alternates, committee members and the Leadership class. This alone, however, was not enough. We also had great support from the faculty and the entire student body. Working together we were able to achieve our many goals.

We come into this world alone; We leave this world alone. The life we live is ours to share!!

WHS Captures SCASC 1980 School of the Year Honors

The Walterboro High School Student Council was named the South Carolina Association of Student Councils SCHOOL OF THE YEAR - 1980, Senior Division, at the annual convention held in Spartanburg March 9-11, 1980. This honor was achieved after WHS ranked second place for two consecutive years.

Top recognition was the result of a long list of projects accomplished by WHS students centering around the theme "TOGETHER — WE CAN DO ANYTHING! Home — School — Community." Seven major goal areas include students growing together by promoting citizenship, scholarship, leadership, human relations and cultural values, school spirit, good health and safety habits, and improved school grounds and environment.

In the student citizenship growth area, projects included two bloodmobile visits with 199 pints donated, voter registration of 250 students, sickle cell anemia testing of 225 students, monetary donations to various civic drives, sponsorship of country-wide programs featuring special guest speakers.

A total of one-hundred-seventy-four activities were accomplished from March 1, 1970 to March 1, 1980. One outstanding project included the sponsorship of the District #1 All-Day Workshop which was attended by over 300 students and advisors from a nine-county area.

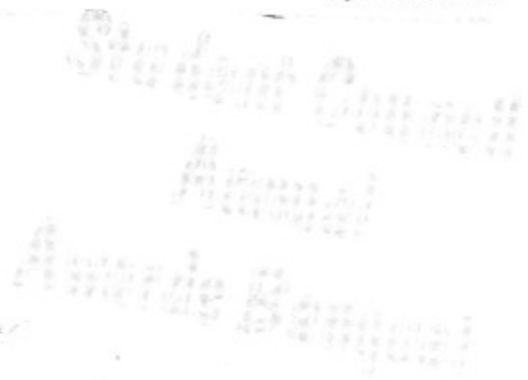

WHS Student Council President and SCASC District #1 Chairman John Barnes attributes much of the success of the council to total student involvement, the togetherness spirit, and to the Leadership Class, taught by lead advisor Mrs. Margaret B. Barnes. Other officers include: vice president - Sandi Hudson, secretary - Cheryl Faulkner, assistant - Wanda Murdaugh, treasurer - Sharon Mole, assistant - Lynn Carter parliamentarian - Todd Crosby, historian - Kim Beach, senior members-at-large - Denise Smith and Pamela Hicks, junior members-at-large, Margie bright and Clara Deal. Class officers are also included on the executive committee of the Student Council. These are as follows for the Senior Class: president - Patricia Frasier, vice-president - Marsha Bright, secretary - Sabrina Ellison, treasurer - Renee Green. Junior Class officers are: president - Redell McDonald, vice president - Jackie Morrow, secretary - Melodi Jamison, treasurer - Robin Smith. Other leadership class members are: Jerry Carter, Vic Strickland, Beth Connally, Julie Floyd, Daved Kinard, Tony Ferrell, Scott Hall, Johnny Westberry, Stevie Washington, Almond Davis, Sandra Williams, Vincent Gilmore, Patricia Danner, and Tammie Fraiser.

Other advisors include: Walter Pelzer, Mrs. Helen Bodison, and Mrs. Betty Farmer.

Thousands of volunteer hours of work in service to the school and community were donated by a totally involved student body. Financial support came mostly from the council sponsored canteen.

Prayer for Today

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace. Where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be loved, as to understand; to be heard, as to do; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

WE MAKE ONE YEAR LAST FOREVER

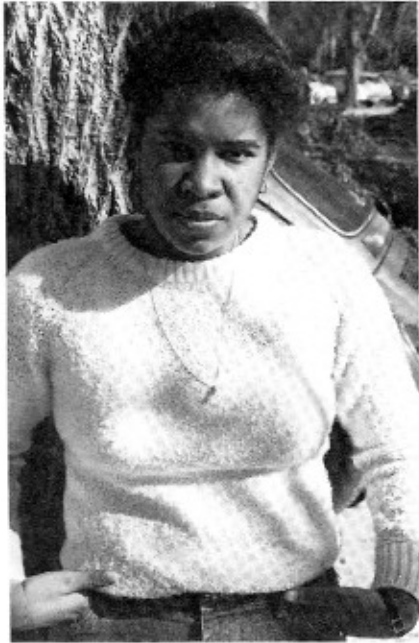

Everyone knows what it's like to play football or to be in the band, but what is it like to be on the yearbook staff? Is it fun or is it just a pain in the neck? Well, just like being on the football team or in the band, it takes work! And if you think about it you start with the basics. Learning to write stories, take pictures with a 35mm camera, and drawing layouts. Lots and lots of layouts, some only for one page and others for five pages or more. But you can't stop there. You have to index the names of the students in various photographs, and type all the stories. All of this (if not done right) could create a problem and slow down the process. The thing that could really make or break the yearbook is teamwork or the lack of it! No team, whether professional or amateur could function properly without teamwork. And the yearbook is no exception. Working together just seems to come natural to this year's members. If one person finishes their specific job, they would naturally help someone else. This relieves some of the pressure that comes with the responsibility and the intense effort of wanting to produce a yearbook that will meet with the schools approval. Not an easy task, but very well worth it.

The pressure and the work sounds hard but there is other students, we know what is going to be in the book, and most of all we take part in something that people will have for the rest of their lives. The memories, the sporting events, the beauty queens, and the people who gave us a helping hand, the teachers. Although we do not receive the recognition we should, we still strive to produce a yearbook that will not only make the staff proud but the school and community as well. The only way that we can achieve our goals is to have total support from all the students and teachers. This years staff would like to thank you for your support and we hope it will continue in future years.

TAKE NOTICE!

RECOGNITION! We all need it. We desire to be known and appreciated for the things we do.

In looking through this book take a second and think about all the countless hours of work that went into its production. Think of the hundreds of small details that have to be pieced together. Then remember the people who made this possible. They did it for YOU.

The yearbook staff would like to recognize the following people who work in various capacities this year: Jani Schwantes, for the cover design; Mr. Arliss Jarvis and Mrs. Ester Bright, for photography essential to the book; Rob Novit and The Press and Standard, for their support and help; and Lynn Carter, Toby Floyd, Melodi Jamison, Wanda Murdaugh, Pam Nobles, David Watford for their help.

A final thanks to all the people who made this book possible. The students and faculty of WHS and CHS!

Honors in essence is a great way for a person to show their exceptional powers in academics. When a person receives an award in academics he or she is showing that they are the best that Walterboro High has to offer. Receiving an honor makes these students ambassador for their respective schools. In saluting these scholars who for 12 long years have put forth and have gave it all they have got (which just is the theme of our Yearbook). As scholars they should remember it is lonely at the top but as one man truly put it "No one remembers you if you come in second." Congratulations honor students of WHS because truly you are at the top.

Bulldog Mania

The first game of the season was against a high powered offense that was ranked in the state. Orangeburg-Wilkinson had an experienced team that had been playing many years together. On the other hand, WHS had a young team that was playing varsity ball for the first time and was inexperienced. WHS had lost alot of experienced players from the mighty 26 that went to the state playoffs. This first game was a learning experience. In Walterboro's loss to Orangeburg, the major problem was inexperience. Strickland the quarterback said that "The team all of a sudden gave up." He also said that "The players didn't exactly know their positions." In the first half WHS gave only six points, but in the second half they just couldn't get it together. Next came the FT. Johnson game in which WHS won. Defensive back Greg Clayton said, "The team really came together after halftime. After a few big plays, the team was fired up. One could certainly see that the team was up to par.

Two Regrettable Losses

On Friday Sept. 19 Walterboro played their first conference game against Battery Creek. It was a hard fought game by both teams.

The defense dominated the game as neither team scored. The Bulldogs did have a chance to score in the fourth quarter but a fumble halted their process.

After a scoreless game, the Bulldogs scored with an 11-yard pass from Strickland to Clayton in overtime but missed the extra point.

Battery Creek came back and scored after 3 attempts. The Dolphins tried for an extra point but the snap was low and the quarterback picked it up and ran around the end for the go ahead point. The Bulldogs lost 8-6 and is 1-2 for the season.

The captains for this game were Tye Simmons and Michael Ford.

Friday September 26 was the second conference game for the Bulldogs. Mistakes on the Bulldogs part helped stall to win the game. The Bulldogs didn't even punt the entire game. But mistakes, including three fumbles in their first four possessions, set up Stall to win 24-8.

The defeat leaves Walterboro with a 1-3 record overall and 0-2 in the conference.

The captains were Derrick Smith and Dean Brinson.

Bulldogs Play Superb But Lose Close

In the Beaufort game WHS started out very good by scoring two touchdowns in the first half. The defense played superb in the first half also, holding Beaufort to very little yardage. In the second half, the defense broke down and gave up fifteen points. Beaufort had a fairly good team. They had a well balanced offense and defense. But overall, WHS played a very good game.

In the Middleton game, WHS scored first as usual. WHS' first touchdown came on a 22-yard punt return by Greg Clayton that set them up in good field position. The touchdown came on a 43-yard pass play to Michael Gibson. Middleton drove down the field on a 59-yard drive and scored the extra point was good and Middleton was ahead to stay. In the second half WHS played very good but couldn't put any points on the board. Middleton scored twice more before the game was over. The final score was 16-6.

Winning One at a Time

Walterboro was up for the occasion as they beat Berkeley 21-20. The victory showed some good signs to the coaches but always there were bad signs.

They had to overcome a 6-0 lead and three first-half fumbles and an interception that kept them constantly in trouble.

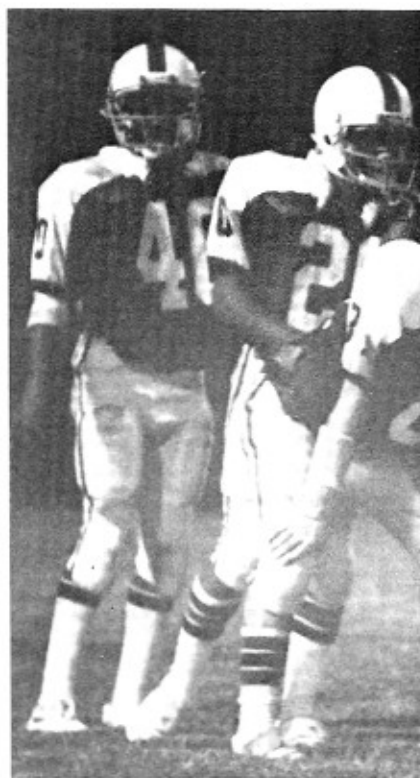

The highlight of the game was Greg Clayton who scored two touchdowns. A 45-yard punt return and a pass interception which he returned with no time left on the clock.

The captions were Almond Davis and Justin Strickland.

The Bulldogs rose to the challenge of playing the state's top team. At halftime the score was a 7-7 deadlock. Walterboro's score came from a Strickland to Gilliard pass-run touchdown for 70 yards.

Jimmy Reed and Michael Ford intercepted two of Perry Cuba's passes. But a Summerville interception and a bizarre double penalty late in the game proved fatal for the Bulldogs.

Bulldogs Take It on the Chin

On October 31, Walterboro played Goose Creek. This was their homecoming game. But the game was played sloppily by the Bulldogs. The only Score Walterboro got was on an interception by Jimmy Reed returned 60 yards. The Bulldogs lost 25 to 7 against the Gators.

The captains were Michael Ford and Jimmy Reed.

Walterboro lost their last game although the defense played a very fine game. The defense allowed only 1 first down and 26 yards in the first half. And Walterboro was winning 8-0. At the end of the game the defense allowed only 58 total yards but lost 11-8.

Fumbles hurt the offense again in this game. Inexperience was a big factor for the Dogs this year. Maybe they will do it next year.

Hot - n - Cold

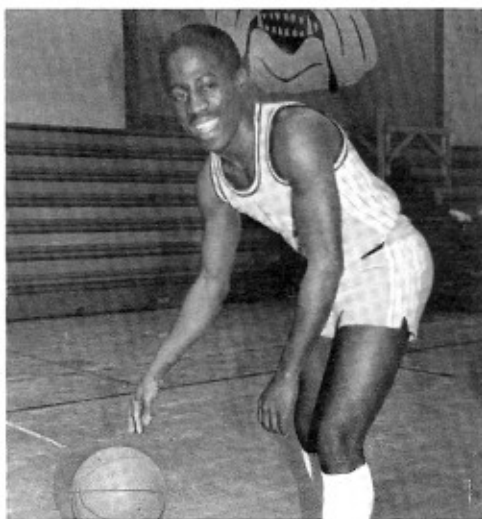

Potential was everything that this year's team had. They showed that potential by winning all of their scrimmages. They blew out Ruffin and Bishop England in the process. The Bulldogs didn't have all that much talent, but with six seniors coming back, three of them starters and one seeing considerable playing time. The Bulldogs was expected to have a pretty successful year of basketball.

The Bulldogs had a very poor start by losing it's first four games including an invitational tournament held at Walterboro High Gym. After this dismal start, the Bulldogs won it's first conference game against Goose Creek by 20 points. During the Christmas holidays the Bulldogs participated in the Big Buc Tournament at Baptist College where they won 1 out of 3 games and finished 5th in the tournament.

The rest of the season would be mostly conference games beginning with Wando. In that game, the Bulldogs played in inconsistent the first half while in the second half they got together but lost to the first place team by only six points. Following that lost, . . .

Boy's Have a Slam Dunk Year!

... they pulled together and won their next game against Stall, but they lost the next game against Middleton. It was their second conferences win against two losses. Then the Bulldogs won their next two games but turned around and lost their next two contexts.

In Goose Creek, The Bulldogs played the Gators to three overtimes before winning by five points. Maybe the Bulldogs will finally get it's stuff together and stop having a up and down season. On this year's team there are six seniors and six underclassmen. Potential will again be a good word to use for next year's team.

Girls Varsity: A Moving Experience

The Girls Varsity Team was a young group of girls that had only four returning players with experience and one newcomer who has experience. The other girls was their first time being exposed to organize basketball. The Girls Varsity had a new coach. Willie Felder who hails from South Carolina State College. This was his first year in the teaching profession and coaching. Adraine Williams their returning center could pick up where she left off this team could go places. Newcomer Becky Smith who is smooth as silk is a great asset to the team. Linda Shider their guard is a player with a lot of potential. Coach Felder has a real good team.

The Girls Varsity met some strict competition this year in the likes of Summer-ville and Wando.

Against Beaufort and Battery Creek our girls dominated the boards and shot good percentage shots. Against Goose Creek the girls dominated the boards and shot good percentage shots. Against Goose Creek the girls had a complete blowout which they won. Everyone got to play in that game.

If our girls had a little more bench scoring they could become real contenders for the tournament title and a trip to the playoffs. A real big hand should go to the coaches Coach Felder and Coach Seale for their superb coaching job this year.

For The Future!

The J.V. Boy's had a very upsetting year this season. They didn't have that much individual talent on the team. Inexperience played an important role on this year's team. They never really got to playing together and getting the right chemistry going. With time and experience these players may be of some help to varsity teams.

The J.V. Girls had a rebuilding year. The girls got mostly experience and learning fundamentals. These girls also with time and some hard work may be a great addition to the varsity team.

Girls Volleyball SCORES

There was a significant improvement this year over last year in skills and technique and overall playing ability. All the members made contributions to the team. As the youngest in the conference, our biggest problem is playing teams with a 7-8 year playing advantage. The team continued to improve this year and were able to score more points. Although we were weak in serving the ball we were stronger in spiking and serving the ball up. With greater determination and a stronger dedication the goals we have set can be achieved.

The WHS Varsity Cheerleaders '80-81 had a lot of changes this year. The first thing is that they got a new sponsor, by the name of Mrs. Syliva Gale who moved up to the ranks of varsity cheerleader sponsor from J.V. cheerleader sponsor. After having such a good year last year, there was no doubt in their minds that they could duplicate the past year, but were assured that they could hold their own. Their first competition was at Aiken, South Carolina and they did quite well. The next competition will be at Carowinds in March. The J.V. girls are a up and coming group that is in the process of learning the moves to make them Varsity Cheerleaders in the future.

The Activity and Recreation Club plays a major part in promoting school spirit through an assorted number of school activities. It also helps the students build self-identity and confidence.

All students wishing to become members must have no record of suspension, no attendance violations, and they must be willing to take part in the club's activities. And by participating in the club activities, they help promote school spirit while having fun. The sponsors are Mr. W. Davis, Mrs. C. S. Sarvis, and Mr. D. Bullock.

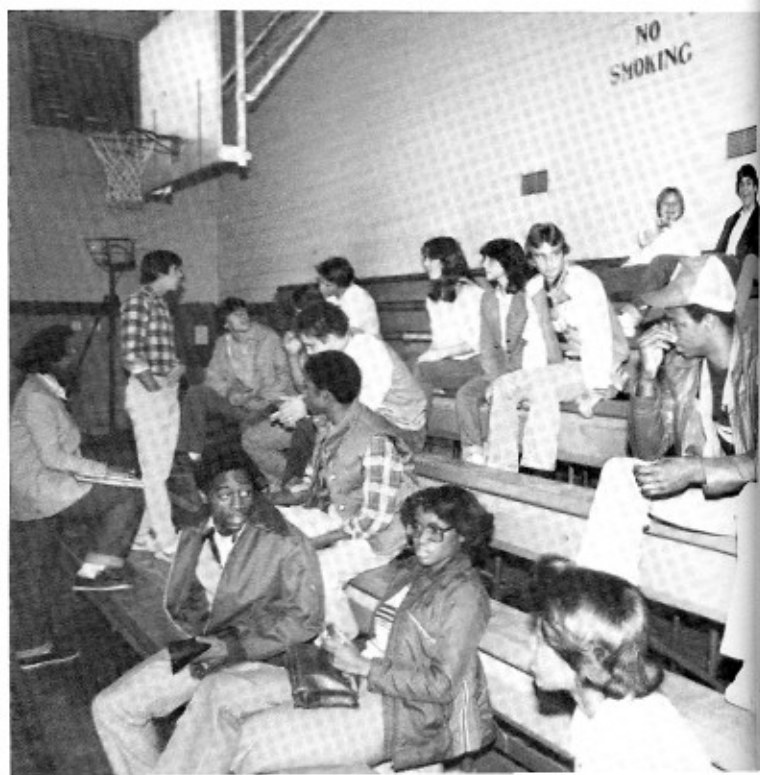

The Block "W" is a newly formed organization designed for athletic participatns, including Cheerleaders.

Over the year, the Block "W" Club has participated in purchasing fruit for the elderly and has organized a picnic out to the Recreation Center. The officers are President: Jackie Morrow, Vice President: Justin Strickland, Secretary: Audrey Taylor, and Treasurer: Almond Davis.

PROVIDE . . .

The Chess Club has one traditional activity and that is a Tournament against Colleton. The Chess club is a very interesting club. Every year they would like to have a lot of new members who do and don't know how to play Chess. The bigger the group the better it is.

They are sponsored by Mr. Malcolm Peckler. The club's officers are President: Andre Fair, and Dean Brinson, Vice President: Mike Hansborough, Secretary: Thomas Pinckney, and Treasurer: Ron Chisolm.

The Business Administration club teaches students the world of finances and money. It's advisor is Ms. P. Ford.

Below Right: Ronald and Joey enjoy the Chess Club because it teaches them patience and respect for the other players. Below: Andre is quiet. He must be losing, and from the way it looks, Herbert, Thomas, and Ira aren't helping any.

A RELAXING

The Broadcasting Club is a very musical club. They participated in the Fourth Carolina Scholarship Broadcaster's contest. They also took a field trip to the WCSC Broadcast Museum, and Radio and Television Stations. The club's officers are: President: Billy Murdaugh, Vice President: Cheryl Brown, Secretary: Donna Rituno, Treasurer: Tammy Thomas, Parliamentarian: Jim Lane.

The Cross-Stitch Club is a newly formed club. They learn different cross stitch patterns and work on original patterns of their own.

This year's advisers was Ms. Whittington. The officers were as followed: President, Cathy Ford; Vice president, Danny Lewis; Secretary, Lisa Moultrie; and Treasurer, Kevin Whitaker.

The Science Club is a very interesting club. They began the year off visiting several local industrial plants and visiting scientific sights in Charleston. Mrs. Spruill said "This is the best club yet."

The Photography Club is mostly designed to help their members to use a more advanced camera. They have different speakers and students learn the technique of film processing. They had a very good candy sale which helped toward their trip. The Photography Club's sponsor is Mr. Peckler.

The Lumberjack Club took a tour of a paper mill in Charleston. They went to the state Forestry contest and built the Student Council float that was shown in the Christmas parade. The Lumberjack Club's sponsor is Mr. Gowdy.

The Colleton High Science Club allows the students to enhance their skills in the scientific field by participating in scientific experiments and visiting areas that are rich in scientific backgrounds. The club has been so popular that those members that meet all basic requirements will truly enjoy being part of a club that takes pride in the scientific future of our country. The sponsors are Mrs. Finney-el, and Mrs. Williams.

Maybe if the FFA members were outside they would be a little happier.

Tina, Alice, Wanda, and Leroy find time to smile for the camera man at the D.E. meeting.

I wonder if someone has lost a hat during the Science Club meeting.

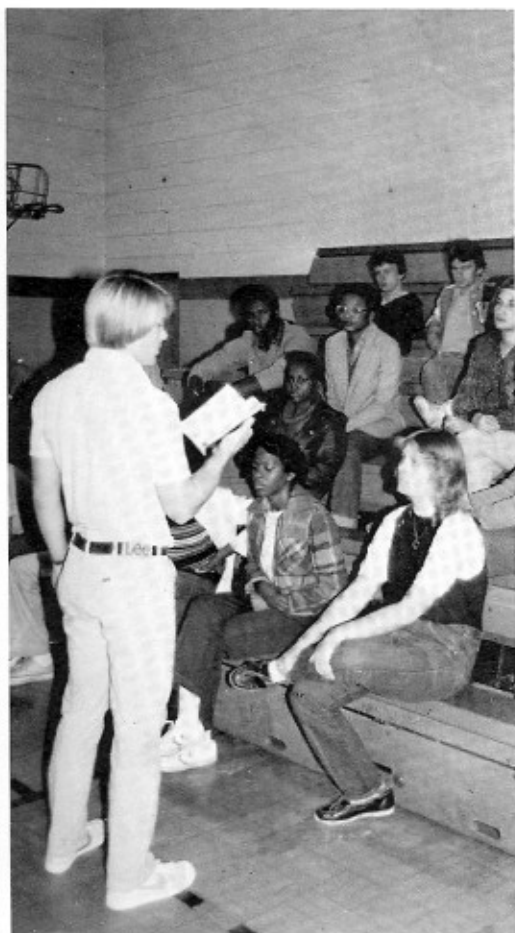

The drama club member's play gave every teacher a sense of appreciation to have us.

D.E. club have GOOD TIME on school trip.

Cary Hickman shares his point of view with the Block "W" Club.

From the looks of this car, Mr. Peckler, Mrs. Hook, Mrs. Mocha, and Mrs. Muckenfuss must be pretty nice teachers.

Michael Ford shows how much he wants to break Mrs. Rhodes and Mrs. Spruill's arm.

Talk about ERA! Pam certainly must be a supporter.

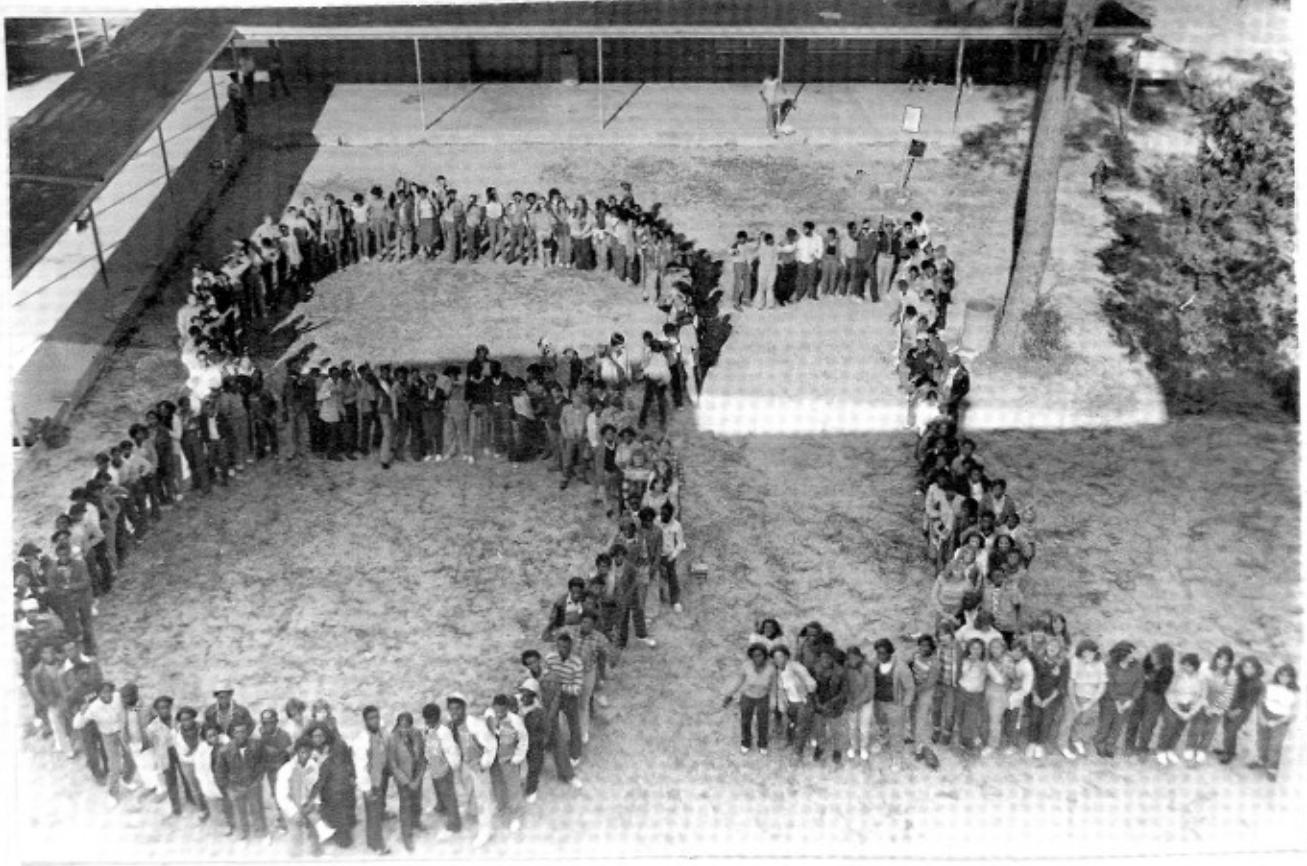

John Elkins wants to get even with a lot of teachers, so he hits them where it hurts.

Why is everyone so interested in what Mr. Hughes and Redell has to say except Stanley Williams?

THEY'RE THE BEST!

TEACHERS

Teacher: One who causes another to understand or know; one who shows how or gives a lesson in; trainer, one who guides or directs as an instructor.

The teachers at WHS all fit the above description. They give one-hundred percent of themselves to make the students at our school perform well; no matter what the case may be.

When students stay out from school because of sickness, it is the student's responsibility to make up his work, but our teachers at Walterboro High go out of their way to help students.

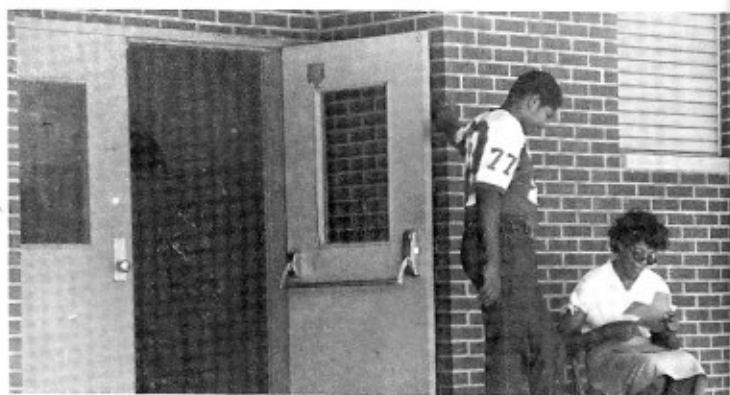

The teachers "give us all they've got". They are the best!

Which Way To The Bookroom?

Mrs. Edith Frasier has been working in the bookroom at Walterboro High School for five consecutive years. Her job is one of the important positions at our school. We need Mrs. Frasier to issue books so that the teachers can start class exercises at the beginning of the school year.

Mrs. Frasier says that the biggest problem with her job is getting all of the books in. She would like to see the day when three hundred books are issued and three hundred are returned. That way, the hassle of finding lost books would not make any trouble for anyone.

We are proud to have Mrs. Frasier be so faithful on the job, because her job is undoubtedly one that no other teacher would tackle.

In appreciation for his support, Mr. Jones is given a pot of flowers by the Student Council.

Shhhhh, you'll wake my students! says Mrs. Barnes.

"Young People Keep Me Feeling Young"

Mrs. Carol Godwin, native of Walterboro, has been working at WHS for about 20 years. She enjoys bridge, bicycling, needlepoint, crochet, leading, and tennis.

Over the summer, Mrs. Godwin entered in two ladies doubles tournaments, and was runner-up to the champions both times. She feels that the hardest part of the game is running. She keeps in shape for her tennis games by riding her bike or running a mile every day. This past summer she also learned to ride a motorcycle. Although she can only go 15 miles per hour, Mrs. Godwin enjoys her scary pastime activity anyhow. When asked what persuaded her to try, she replied, "The high gas prices did! I would like to get good enough to drive it to school."

During Mrs. Godwin's 20 years as librarian, she found that books that deal with self-improvement are her favorite. She enjoys helping the students because, "young people keep me feeling young."

Mrs. Godwin looks like she's ready for "CHIPS."

MORE THAN A TEACHER

Mrs. E. B. Williams has proven that a person can be successful regardless of the obstacles that one may encounter. She thinks that, "A person should have a strong desire to succeed and the willingness to do so without hesitation." She has also been a personality of the South. She feels that it is an honor to be recognized in such a capacity. To know that the contributions one makes and the amount of energy one expends will lead to a gratifying experience gives one an undescrivable feeling of success. She is a member of the SCEA Board of Directors and represents the counties of Beaufort, Hampton, and Jasper. She is tahnkful for the opportunity to work for the improvement of education and teachers welfare. She is always ready for a challenge and this work will provide a challenge as well as a meaningful learning experience.

"Here is where the Energy Level is!" Mrs. Williams wants her students to learn to figure out where the Energy Level is.

I swear I didn't do it!!! Mr. Simpson is caught in the act.

If you don't leave me alone . . . Mrs. Bodison busily marks the endless test papers.

THE CANTEEN MEANS SURVIVAL

Without the canteen, what would some of us do? Some of us are saying "SAVE MONEY" and some are saying "STARVE" because you and I both know we do not go to lunch everyday. So by the help of MISS ALBERTA G. BELTON, STUDENT COUNCIL ADVISOR and mathematics teacher, the canteen has been a big success for the past six (6) Years at COLLETON HIGH SCHOOL. She stated that, "She enjoys her work, including leaving the school everyday to get all supplies for the canteen.

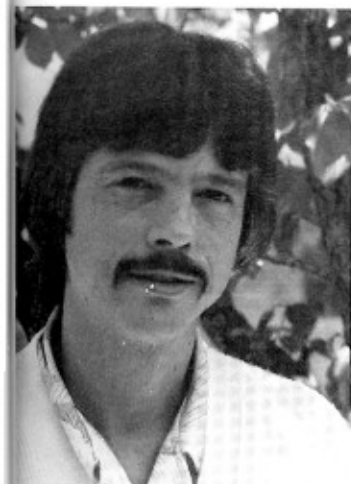

"If you don't mind! I have a class to teach, so take the picture says Mrs. Belton.

Yes, I will let you practice dissecting on the football players if they don't win Friday night!!!!, says Coach Hall to his science class.

The fact is . . . I know I'm pretty!!!!!! We know Mrs. Johnson is a teacher with class.

Teacher — Genealogist

Mrs. Hughes is a graduate of the College of Charleston. She received her A.B. Degree at Newberry College and did graduate work at Duke University. Mrs. Hughes enjoys growing house plants and considers herself a "green-thumb." She has about one hundred and fifty plants.

She has been doing some geology research, which has rewarded her with finding her family background back to Scotland, Barbados, England, Germany, and other countries all the way to the 1600's. Isn't that unbelievable for a local heritage teacher from Walterboro, South Carolina?

Mrs. Hughes has always been interested in history and it has become nature to her.

During the summer, she enjoyed decorating her new home. She also spent time at the beach.

Mrs. Hughes, who teaches history and Local Heritage, helps students to understand that the past can make us more aware of who we are and where we come from.

"Long Distance"

When we hear the phrase "Long Distance", we often think about a phone call, but the poll taken at Walterboro High refers to long driving distances. We found that several teachers at WHS drive from as far as Orangeburg, Hampton, and Charleston. They have to get up earlier than most of us do. School calls in at 8:25 and teachers must be here by 8:15. Amazingly true, we have no teachers at our school who carpool this year. By the time teachers who live at least an hour away from school finally get home, most of the day is gone (especially on days of faculty meetings). These teachers make great sacrifices for our school.

Ready to drive the long distance already! Mr. Carmichael drives a long distance for this school. I call that a sacrifice. What do you call it?

Mr. Bowers loves to teach the Elizabethan Period!

A TEACHER'S DAY DOESN'T END AT 3:00

Teachers at Walterboro High all only have one job. During the day, they all have one major thing in common. That is being teachers. After school, they split-up into their very own special world. Some go to their housework.

Among the many household jobs, washing dishes is worst," says one teacher at WHS. We even have a teacher who doesn't like to remove dishes from the dishwasher. Is that incredible or is that incredible? Some teachers rake their yard, go bowling or watch T.V. We have a teacher who enjoys spending every Tuesday night at a local pizza restaurant.

The teachers at our school go through many things in the span of a day. Boy, are they glad for the afternoon!

Many teachers participate in community activities after school. Mrs. Bright takes an active role as she attends a Colleton High P.T.O. Meeting.

A COACH WHO KNOWS THE SCORE

Mr. Jerry P. Seale, basketball coach at Walterboro High has been working with our basketball teams for five consecutive years.

He first became interested in basketball at age six. He played with the midget team at an early age in his hometown, Fayetteville, North Carolina. He played in his high school, E.E. Smith Senior High, and went on to play at Fayetteville State University for four years. He played Pro ball with the Virginia Squires along with Julius Erving, Bob Dandridge, Earl Monroe, and Michael Gale. Coach Seale scored an average of twenty points per game. He feels that the hardest team for the Squires to beat was San Antonio, but they still finished the season in the top three teams. Coach Seale's career was ended because of a knee injury that he received in college football.

The coach also teaches at Baptist College. He feels that recruiting the players is the most important part of coaching. "At Baptist College, you've got to mold the personality of each player because you have people coming from all over," Coach Seale says. He also stresses that students cannot place sports before academics.

Being a coach and an Assistant Principal takes a lot of time, so Mr. Seale has to juggle a lot of problems.

Lunch Staff; Helen Gant, Sarah Hartley, Audrey Austin, Gustine M. Crosby, and Lona Murdaugh are very important to Walterboro High.

Custodians; Stanley McCoy and Prime Brown along with Mr. Johnson try to find the problem with the air conditioner.

THIS IS IT!

Having lots of privileges, knowing it's your last year, and accomplishment. You have ached for twelve long years and have done all sorts of tests, homework, book reports, and research papers.

This is it; you're almost there. Seniors have more responsibilities than the Juniors and underclassmen, such as getting ready for some sort of college, trade school, military, and local jobs. You usually have tears mixed in with the laughter and joy that every senior experiences.

It is your final year and you will miss your friends that you have been to school with for sometime. Last of all is that you've graduated, and have accomplished something that no one can take away from you.

These seniors really take advantage of "Senior Privileges."

These Student Council Executive Officers are very excited about dealing with the "Jiving Juniors."

These Senior Boys think that they have it over the Junior Guys.

SENIORITIS

These students are expressing the disease Senioritis.

Senioritis is some strange disease that affects students in their senior year.

Those who are infected get lazy, bored, have discipline problems, and receive poor class grades. It is not recognized by most physicians, or the school faculty, but most graduates will attest that they have been through this situation. Seniors are usually excited and very concerned towards the end of the year, but this effect will not get in the way of those seniors who are extremely dedicated to become successful in life.

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

You worked 12 years to graduate, carried stacks of books, received tons of red-marked papers, passed more tests than you failed, took home far too many report cards, ordered your class ring — but it wasn't enough. The cost of graduating was much higher than all that — it took money and lots of it just to GET OUT.

School Photos, materials fee, insurances, application and test fees, and countless other expenses — not to mention the social events . . . you had to party sometimes.

STUDENTS, GET SMART!

The Operation Get Smart Team visited W.H.S. during the year to discuss some of their prison life experiences. The four speakers were Nancy, 86820, Chuck, 74864, Elaine, 88803, and Robert, 77117. Nancy said "that prison is not a place where people have fun, games, or jokes, instead it is where you suffer and get what they deserve for the crimes committed. Elaine, Robert, and Chuck related their message somewhat similar to Nancy. They all admitted that they were using drugs at the time when they violated the law. They encouraged all students to become successful in their lives to come.

Students listen attentively as one of the speakers from the Get-Smart Program speaks.

"The Seniors are Super."

GO FOR THE GOLD!

"You can't lose with the stuff we use," is a familiar slogan Seniors used most often. "The Bulldog Spirit Stick" is a very important symbol of showing school spirit at Walterboro High School. The Seniors competed for this spirit symbol against the Junior Class. Most seniors states that the "Spirit Stick" is ours to possess, and the Juniors to try prepare for winning it some other time or perhaps plead and beg for it. The spirit symbol is what it takes and we are class with class.

These seniors are very proud after winning the Bulldog "Spirit Stick."

TOGETHER WE STAND

Kimie Barber and Mrs. Allen shows a good example of Student-Teacher relationship.

Student's relationship with his teacher is a very demanding issue inside of the school. The way how a student and his teacher get along may play a very important role to both of the character.

for Example: The more the teacher and the student get along, the better it will be for both of them. The student more than likely will learn more, and the teacher will enjoy the teaching profession.

It can be summed up in these words, students learn from teachers, and teachers learn from students.

They both talk together and share their experiences from time to time. The individuals come to know each other better as they function as a learning team. These experiences are bound to last a lifetime in both the student's and teacher's memories.

LEARNING TO SHAPE A BETTER FUTURE

American Education Week at WHS was one of much interest and excitement. The students were really involved and got down to realize the values of education. The entire week was devoted to this great occasion. November 10-14, was the week designated at Walterboro High School. The following days included these events:

Monday — Red Letter Dates in American History in the main front halls.

Tuesday — An Educational Quiz was given to all classes to see those students that knew about our nation's history. The class that won was given a Coke Party at the expense of the Student Council. The teacher of the class was given a Bulldog Flower Pot at the expense of the Leadership Class.

Wednesday — USSR, or Uninterrupted Sustained Silent Reading.

Thursday — State Student Council Executive Secretary George Smith was guest speaker at the assembly held in the gymnasium. Mr. Smith taught the students how to make rain sounds by the motion of their hands, and other songs. Mr. Smith is director of student activities.

Friday — Student control day, various students played roles as teachers, principal, asst. principal, secretaries, librarians, and counselors.

The Future Teachers of America designated that day as teachers' Appreciation Day. This was held during lunch in the teacher's lounge to show the teachers their love and concern for trying to make them successful in their lives to come.

These students listens to the value of education during American Education Week.

LET'S BRING THE SPIRIT BACK TO LIFE

Spirit Week at Walterboro High School was one of much excitement and laughter between everyone in the school. The Spirit week was designated for the homecoming game to be held October 31, 1980.

As everyone came dressed up in all sorts of funny clothing from slob day to costume day the event was worthwhile sponsoring. The following days were designated for special events:

Monday — Blue & White day, this is when the school colors were worn by the students.

Tuesday — "Slob Day" everyone came dressed up in all sorts of raggedy clothes, similar to Raggedy Ann and Andy. Also that day a contest was held with the following named as winners:

- Almond Davis — first place
- Clint Campbell — second place
- Andrew Reed — third place

Wednesday — Dress Day, everyone came decked out in their best clothing and they were really sharp.

Thursday — "50's Day" everyone came dressed up in out-fits from those fabulous 50's!

Friday — Costume Day, this is when 95% of the students came in Halloween costumes.

I CAN'T WAIT

The recreation of seniors to the word "Graduation" was one of relief. Most people thought of leaving their friends and fun behind. Some said they would miss it all, and some said they wouldn't miss anything.

Miss what?? The tough classes, term papers, tests, and an occasional unbearable teacher? May be some will miss parties, assemblies, games, prom, dances, and Friday nights. Some think of losing all the fun, but they know that life has just begun.

Lynn and Donna shows feelings of I can't wait."

JUNIORS SPEND MEANINGFUL YEAR;

Being measured for Senior rings . . . being able to go to the Junior-Senior rom . . . having a teacher know one's name at the beginning of the year . . . driving a car to school . . . finding classes without having to ask . . . having two years down and one to go.

Who said there's nothing to being a JUNIOR? During this year, one takes tests which determine whether one will be accepted for college. This year it's only the student . . . his will . . . his desire that keeps him here. Many wonder if it would not be wise to go to work full time; others find that keeping up with school work and school activities occupies all one's time.

Being a Junior isn't easy; it can make one or break one. Yet, if the students are really on top of the situation, he can make it a really meaningful part of his life, present and future.

Mrs. McMillian talks to Juniors about requirements for their courses this year.

May I have my apple back please? says Ann Graham to Ricky Martin. While Eugene Green enjoys Annette Varner's apple. While Larry Bowman watches.

JUNIORS (DON'T LET IT GET YOU DOWN)

So, Juniors you're down and out. And the Seniors are having more fun this year. Wouldn't it be fun to get them out of your hair? Just think, Juniors, one more lousy year to go. If you're still down, here are some picker-uppers!

1. Take a dose of Happy Eyes.
2. A cup of "I", Big Too.
3. Some attractive love portion.
4. A little Bit of Ignorance.

And put them together and you've got yourself, "A VERY LOOSE CONCEPT OF SELF-CONTROL."

GOT CHA!

You know what? Some Juniors think they are so smart. I say, some Juniors think they are fooling the Seniors but they're not. We got proof that they're not what they say they're supposed to be. Goofing off in class when they're supposed to be studying. Boy, the Juniors think they have it made. Then, some Juniors rather do their homework for recess instead of at home at night.

Smart isn't it? Yeah, we caught you in the the act—supposed to be studying uh. Sure, chess is a subject! But we still GOT CHA!!

TIME TO GET SERIOUS

The class of '82' has found out what being Juniors are about. The Junior year shows what will be expected of them as SENIORS. They had many responsibilities and will have more next year because each year is a new experience. Everyone's sure that the Juniors will meet the challenge of being Seniors next year with pride. Not only in the school but in themselves as a team — as ONE. That they will respect the underclassmen while setting an example at the same time. The Juniors have been successful but can be even more successful next year — as ONE.

Calvin Holmes Shirley Ann Brown, Boy! your teeth are as white as snow. It must be Ultra-Brite.

Gail Williams, Octavia Simmons, Edith Pinckney, Tyrisha Saxby, Deborah Pinckney and Sharrell McLauren seems to think this is a good time for studying.

Carolyn Risher, David Smalls, and Jacqueline Kinsey loves to goof off in class.

Smile, say cheese, says the photographer, as he takes these Juniors pictures. The photographer came to W.H.S. to take pictures of the Juniors on Sept. 23. Seems like everyone was excited to have their pictures taken except Gwen, Eric, and Gavin. I wonder what's the secret in keeping the smiles off the faces. I guess he's not telling them the right word or joke. Maybe they want to look right for the camera?

Come on, Juniors, just a little smile for the camera. Well, maybe next year. See, ya! round . . .

FUNNING AROUND WITH THE JUNIORS

Who said Juniors don't have fun? By the look of some Groovy Juniors, FUN is the only thing they enjoy. There's nothing more exciting than to play a little pit-pat with your friends. Orrr — Maybe checking out the good old scenery, you know starring

Also, just a group of people together can make a ball of fun. If you get on the scene with these Juniors I bet your funning around with the Juniors will be DYNAMITE FUN!!!

Moving up one more step on the ladder was a long awaited event for most Juniors. Some say that the Junior year is the hardest of all. One thing is for sure — becoming a Junior means taking on a lot more responsibilities. During the year class rings are ordered. To some, this may not sound important but choosing a class ring is a big decision especially when there are so many to choose from. Another responsibility is ordering Senior Keys. This is not as important as rings but it identifies one as a "new Senior."

The P.S.A.T. is administered also during the Junior year. Probably one of the most popular activities of the Junior year is decorating the gym for the Junior-Senior Prom. It is also by the Junior year that students want to get more involved in school activities. Juniors . . . you have a lot to be proud of.

THE CLASS WITH CLASS

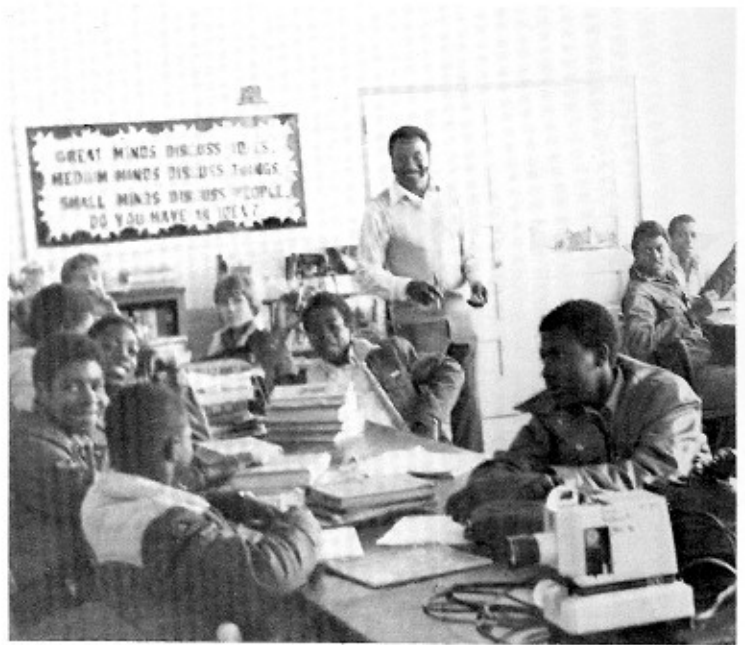

The sophomore class of '81 provided adventures for both the faculty and the freshmen of CHS. This class showed the teachers a slice of humor combined with seriousness when it comes to getting their lesson. To the freshmen, they acted as "foster parents," showing them the ways of CHS and how to use the knowledge to the fullest. The class showed a togetherness, existing with one another in harmony. The overall sense of the sophomore class is like one big family. Next year, they will be moving on to Walterboro High School, where it will be their turn to learn from the seniors on how to get along there. Class of '81, you can be summed up as saying, there was never a dull moment while you were around.

TRUE DEDICATION

The faculty of CHS should be given a standing ovation for their willingness to work with the students. These people really worked long hours of preparation and study to be able to provide the services they do. The teachers often sacrifice their own free time to help a student in need. They make their subjects interesting so the students will be more apt to learn the material. The principals work hard to keep the school running efficiently. They spend much time checking things out to keep from causing disturbances. The janitorial staff shouldn't be forgotten, for they also work long hours to keep the school running mechanically trouble-free. Students of CHS, take time to tell the faculty that they are appreciated for their efforts in providing for you the best education possible.

THE WAY WE WERE

The sophomore class of '81 has fond memories of the final year before entering senior high school. Memories of friends gathering for chatting, being late to class, even school, and getting the gitters before going to a principal. Thoughts of getting called down in class for goofing off, gathering in the lunch line and shooting the breeze before getting a plate, and the fun that a particular class provided. These memories will hopefully stay with the students through their future travels in life.

MISS SOPHOMORE

Being Miss Sophomore, to truthfully say, was the biggest thrill of my sophomore year. If it all could happen again, I wouldn't want anything to change. Also, being Miss Sophomore made me realize that faith in yourself plays a major role in all of our lives.

Everything about the competition was thrilling. Every young lady had a distinctive quality that made each one of us feel that there are never any losers. Everyone knew that deep inside us was a queen, but only one would wear the crown.

Most of my faith came from my friends that supported me and helped me to believe in myself. I often wonder to myself, "Without them, would I have been Miss Sophomore?" As my reign comes to an end, I would like to wish joy and happiness to next year's recipient of this crown.

LIFE SAVER

The canteen is a most refreshing resource to those CHS students who chose not to indulge in the lunchroom. It provides good, balanced snacks at very reasonable prices. When the bell rings, for lunch dismissal, a crowd of canteen customers gather in the hall of the gym to wait their turn at buying their favorites. It can get pretty sticky in the late summer and early fall, but in the cold, harsh winter it can be pretty warm with the great amount of body heat. Also, the canteen provides extra refreshment for those who have just come from taking in a hot lunch. Run by Mrs. Belton, a teacher at the school, it keeps the students satisfied with the wide variety of products.

These students chat while waiting to buy at the canteen.

SUPER SOPHOMORE

Hi,

I'm Lisa Moultrie, varsity cheerleader for the year 1980-81. I was very fortunate to be chosen as one of the best cheerleaders in the United States. I was thrilled to receive such an honor. I love cheering and motivating school spirit. It's a privilege to represent Walterboro High. I would like to say Thanks to all varsity supporters and to Mrs. Gale for all of her support.

Lisa Moultrie,
 Varsity Cheerleader "80-81"

What in the world am I doing here, says Annete Young.

Helpful students like these help teachers keep their rooms tidy and decorative.

"Being a sophomore at CHS is something exciting and something to cheer about." Marissa Jones, a sophomore at CHS, has enjoyed playing an active role in her class. She is an active member of the S.A.E. club, secretary of the Colleton High School Advisory Council, and president of Student Council.

She also enjoys promoting school spirit by being captain of the J.V. squad. She urges all upcoming freshmen and sophomores to make the best of it because high school memories are the best memories of them all!!!

I STOOD THERE WATCHING

I stood there watching,
inwardly crying,
as teeth tore into fibrous flesh.

One by one
they came down.
Kissing the ground from which they came for the last time.

Forgetting his worries, he slowly walks across the bridge. The saws, the cranes, the bulldozers, the mud, the stumps — all are gone.

He sits on the warm earth.
As the shadows lengthen,
fish jump and crickets chirp.
Red, yellow, and orange splash across the western sky. And one by one the stars shine out.

Man and nature are at peace.

LOOKING GOOD

Throughout your high school life, you are confronted with that "looking good" need. But, there's always that unsecure feeling about yourself lurking in the back of your mind. A set of basic steps toward self-positiveness has been established to help you attract your mate.

1. Overweight Blues

Diet time. Those unnecessary fatty tissues have to go. Give up those candy bars!

2. Transportation

Two alternatives: Take Driver's Ed to prepare for getting the license. Pass the test, buy a new car . . . OR . . . double-date with someone who can drive.

3. Money Talks

Need more money to impress your date? . . . Get a job! . . . or bum from mom and dad.

THE DATING GAME

Getting together, partying, dating, going-out — all a part of the high school cycle. Classified as an “extracurricular activity” attracting most freshmen eager to be a part of the action. TIME: to create a magnetic attraction to the opposite sex. METHOD: diets, cars, new hairstyles, and clothes, money . . . PURPOSE: that “looking good” feeling.

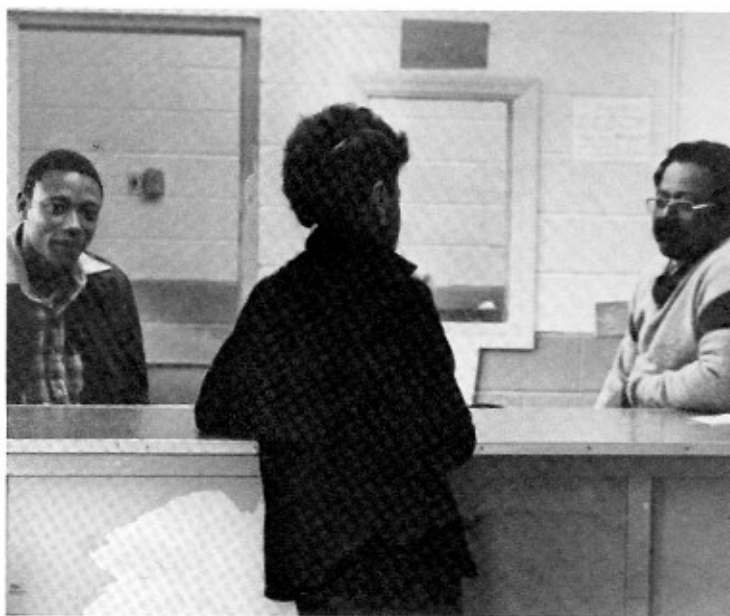

Confronted by many pros and cons. Wondering who to ask out and who will ask. Oh, the problems of dating! But as the years went on, Friday and Saturday dates became frequent. Dating techniques learned . . . Party Hardy!

Who says a school seat can't fit two at a time?

GOTTA START SOMEWHERE

Starting all over again. After being the big wheel in the eighth grade, now you're the low man on the totem pole. It's a new year in a new place. Time to learn how to get around the school and into the swing of high school life.

High school classes don't seem as disciplined as you expected although homework is a little harder than usual. Studying plays an important part and you find that the last minute cramming for a test doesn't really help. Now you discover what a term paper really is and the pains of taking two hour exams covering everything you learned since the beginning of the year.

You look up to the upperclassmen. They seem so big and intelligent. But you know that someday you will be looked up at, too. You won't be the rookie anymore.

Students ask Mrs. Gale to check if they are doing the work right.

Understanding the assignment is an important part of classroom work.

Hey, save some for me!

PEOPLE MEETING NEW CHALLENGES

The class of '81 managed to bridge the distance gap between themselves and those at the main building with their unending spirits and desire to participate. As the Freshmen came together to present new ideas and meet new challenges, they grew in unity and found themselves fitting into the pattern of CHS life. They showed a responsibility and maturity which marked them as a class on the move.

Shop is just like home for some of Mr. Hubbard's class.

What's biology all about?

Working together is one very important fact every student should be able to do. In life everyone needs to work with someone at one time or another, even if it only to assist. It's a need to be close to someone at the same time, it's the need to be with someone. No one all the time enjoys working alone. Everyone needs the joy of laughing and joking around with someone.

There's always that one individual who feel that need to say "I like and enjoy working and being along." But, is that really true. Take some time out and check your mind and yourself. Do I really like and enjoy working alone. The answer will probably come out the same as everyone else's. No, I hate being alone and working that way. So, take time out and work with someone.

Mr. Stroman and his students are really using the Metric System.

Mrs. Bodison wonder's if her students really understand.

During and throughout your high school years, you will find yourself in and out of the Guidance Department. There's always a good reason and a not so good reason for going inside. But, before you do go inside, think. (Am I just wasting time?) It would be smart on your part, to go inside for only a real and necessary problem. The Guidance Department workers are experienced and heard all the excuses you could dream of, what a student could come up with. If you must go into the Guidance think because if you are just going to waste time the guidance will know. The next time you go in, you might get the job done to you, and not get anything accomplished.

Mrs. Wright and Miss Wade enjoy working with the students at Colleton.

BEING YOUNG

We are young and uncommitted. We rebel because we see no honor in war, no justice in poverty, and no hope for their solution.

Our permanent interest is liberation. We see our school campuses as places to begin liberating people, to begin casting our new born image before the world.

A school should be the conscience of the people it serves. It should be a place to dream, to think, to question and to probe — not just a factory for formulas and degrees.

Our schools have a duty to help us develop our capabilities fully, to serve our communities effectively, to gain pride in and knowledge of our heritage and ourselves.

Boy, my day always the same.

The ringing of the alarm clock. Eating the same old cold cereal. Riding the same dirty, yellow school bus. Walking around the school for hours. Sitting behind the same desk. Being asked the same questions day after day. Being told the same answers. Seeing the same people. Going the same places. Looking in the same book day after day. Can really be a bore!

Who says their's have to be a everyday routine. During a usual day, one can take a little change. Don't use the alarm clock to get up. Eat some hot cereal instead of cold. Ride a clean, yellow school bus. Walk around the school for a half an hour. You aks the questions for a change, and you will be told a set of different answers. Don't look at anyone and you won't see the same faces. Pull out a magazine and you will be looking in another book. If you do this it won't really be a bore.

Boredom isn't easy; it can really wear you down. If you only take a difference. The change will truely be meaningful so try and see what happens.

above: Frances Boensch, Kathy Fraccasso, Bessie Mae Stanfield, Redell McDonald, and Wendy Maggi have given the Band of Blue the best they've got.

right: Johnny Smith has the force for moving teams.

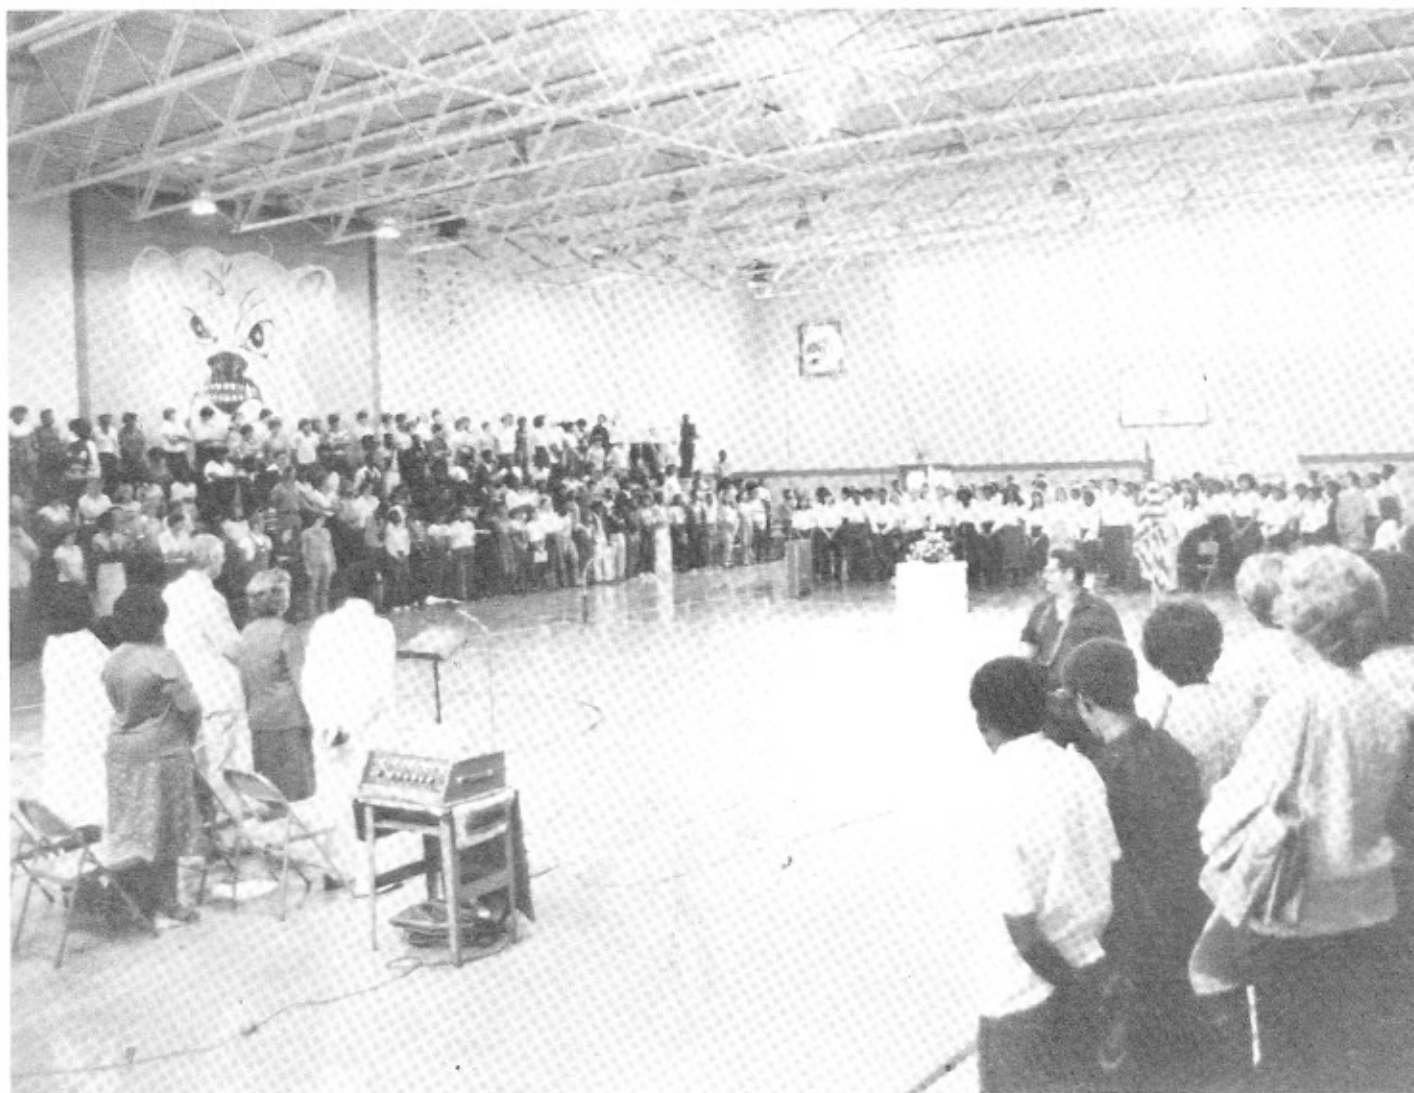

below: The Seniors have a force so strong that it can be felt by the people around them!

THE RESULT

A force capable of moving teams, spectators and tears. A force so strong that it can be felt by the people around you! Accomplishment! The pride, love and enjoyment that you feel grasps everyone within reach! You have achieved that goal! You know now you can no longer settle for anything less than your best! You gave it all you had and will continue to give it all you've got!!!

below: The members of Student Council have the pride, love and enjoyment that grasps everyone within reach!

GIVE IT ALL YOU'VE GOT

Sweat . . . Determination . . . The struggle to reach that main goal of life! To succeed! The struggle to give it all you've got because anything less would be your worst. The struggle to find out what you're really made of!

Walterboro High School has been around for many years (since 1924). The students and faculty struggled together to make our school what it is today! We've come a long way! However, W.H.S. is coming to an end. A new school will soon be in use, and we feel we should make these last few years the best ever!

WALTERBORO HIGH SCHOOL

WE LOVE YOU!
