

What's Your Pleasure?

French, English, or Spanish?

Que tal? Como vá? or just the usual How are you? Hearing these sounds was not an unusual occurrence in English, Spanish and French classes.

Through different teaching methods, students experienced eating French, dancing Spanish and living the Canterbury Tales. "I took French because one day I hope to move to France", stated Lisa Andrews. "I chose Spanish because Spanish is one of the most used language in the world, and being able to speak it fluently will make getting a job a lot easier", expressed Wendy Parks.

So whether you're saying Que Tal? Cmo ca va? or just plain Howdy, it was fun to learn and it was educational.

Giving their own version of the Canterbury Tales are Alicia Aiken, Rosa Wilson, William Manigo and Evon Robinson.
