

Organizations

It's fun to belong

Who joins clubs?

One who was interested in crime prevention or good citizenship might. A student looking into the future might sign up with a career explores group or the Future Teachers of America Club. The Future Farmers of America was an excellent group for those persons interested in the future of agriculture. The Pep Club was a great opportunity for spirited people to display their enthusiasm. Whomever the person and whatever their interest, it seemed a W.H.S. club could offer something for everyone.

Clubs were a good opportunity for students to relax and break the monotony of a tiring routine. On the first and second Wednesday of each month, 45 minutes was taken off the morning schedules for Group I and II Clubs. Walterboro High School had 28 clubs and two additional organizations, Student Council and National Honor Society.

Though some clubs required fees, afternoon practices, or extra effort, students readily complied with stipulations and gave willingly to make their organization a First Class Act.

Getting assistance from Monique Tracy is Melissa Boles lighting her candle at NHS Installation.