

Tennis

A Swinging Sport

What's Your Racquet?

Although not as popular a sport as some, tennis seemed to be a competitive and exciting enough sport to be able to attract a minimum amount of team members.

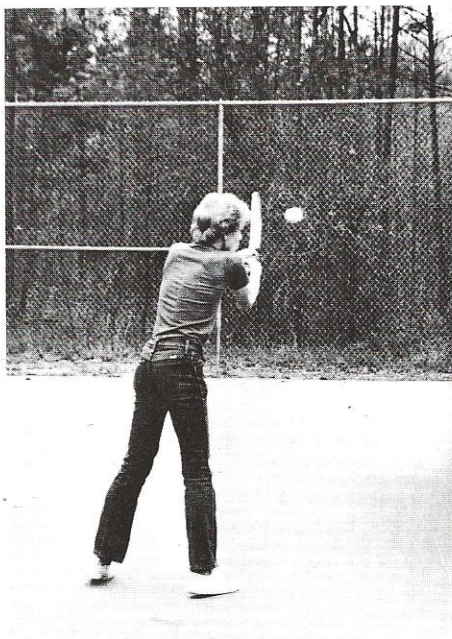

Mike Hiott recruited people and practically drug them on the court. If it wasn't for this kind of spirit, the team would have never survived.

1983 was a struggling year for the tennis team. #1 doubles and #2 doubles succeeded in winning some crucial matches, while singles play was the toughest in four years. The loss of three good players—Mike Hiott, Dargin Moore, and Ken Clark—means that next year will be a rebuilding one. But returning players Eric Clark, Paul Harrison, and Paul Siegler will present strong leadership and should prove to be powerful opponents to any who play them.

Scoreboard

W.H.S.	Opp
2	Goose Creek 7
2	Berkeley 7
0	James Island 9
0	Beaufort 9
0	Middleton 9
9	Burke (forfeit) 0
0	Wando 9
0	Wando 9
0	Summerville 9
9	Burke 0
0	Beaufort 9
	H.E. McCracken (can.)
1	Goose Creek 8
0	Summerville 9
0	Middleton 9
0	James Island 9
1	Berkeley 8

Reaching for the ball, Paul Siegler takes a full swing.

Front Row: Coach Cathy Layton, Paul Harrison, Eric Clark, Ken Clark, Dargin Moore, and Mike Hiott.