We've got the beat

We've GOT THAT BEAT

The 1982-1983 varsity cheerleaders were a unique and spirited bunch during football season. They came back from Baptist College cheerleader camp with the "Most Spirited Ribbon," and three superior ribbons, two excellent ribbons, and one outstanding ribbon. On November 4, 1982 they went to the East Coast Regionals of the Eastern Cheerleader Championship and placed fourth. The squad also competed in the National High School Cheering Competition at the Atlantic Coast Regionals and got a Superior Rating on December 4.

Next, the cheerleaders were invited to the Grand Finals Cheering Championships on March 12 and 13, 1983 at Williamsburg, Virginia. According to Sylvia Gale, "This years squad worked harder and achieved more than any other squad. I am very proud of those young ladies who contributed so much, not only at camp but in competitions too."

The Junior Varsity and Varsity Squads worked hard during football season doing their part toward making this season a "First Class Season."

Giving all it's worth, the girls show their spirit at the Sertoma Classic.

While taking a break, Kim Risher tries to imitate a football player and gets everyone's attention except Connie's.
