

Teachers and Students alike are ready to start their day, however, a few words from the staff won't hurt.

Preparing for his opening speech is Student Council President, William Reynolds.

Mr. Jones expresses his gratitude toward being in the new building.

Finding your bus in the large parking lot is a tough job.

