

Singing "Truly" with Deneen Green is Willie Frasier.

Royal Sweethearts

They spent days choosing the right makeup, perfect shoes, appealing clothes and hairstyle, but when the final moment of truth came Rocky Dent and Kirk Rising were chosen Queen and King of Hearts.

The pageant, held February the 11th, was sponsored by the Student Council and consisted of the top nominees of each class.

Entertainment for the program was presented by various students. "Truly" was done by Deneen Green and Willie Frasier. "The Rose" by Tina R. Crosby. "Outstanding" by Willie Frasier, Monique Coleman, Tonya Coleman, David Logan and Deneen Green. "Lady" by Kevin and Evon Robinson. "The Other Side of the Rainbow" by Samatha Ford, and "The Girl Is Mine" by Willie Frasier and Mike Carter. Various students from Miss Layton's classes presented their own version of "Don't Stop til ya Get Enough".

After what seemed like hours, the final judging by Ms. Roxy Woovis, Mr. Willie Davis, Mrs. Rebecca Helmly, Miss Judy Holliday, Mr. Charles Aiken, Mr. Gowdy and Ms. Gladys Davis was completed.

Lords and Ladies of Hearts were: Ruth Deal, Kendra Singleton, Sharon Fishburne, Cathy Lane, Shirley Fields, Evon Robinson, Greg Walker, Leonard Gainer, Travis Evans.

Duke and Dutchess: Robert Taylor, Angie Kelly. Prince and Princess: Tommy Reeves, Jerri-Ann Blakeman. King and Queen of Hearts: Rocky Dent and Kirk Rising.

Singing one of his many songs is Willie Frasier.

Sitting pretty is Rocky Dent and Kirk Rising, Queen and King of Hearts.

