Special Groups

They put on plays, rode in parades, finished the season undefeated. Who were they? They were the Drama Club, Rice Planters, and the girls' Softball team.

The drama club put on a play called "No Time for Skirts." It told of a young tomboy who doesn't want to be May Queen. One junior, Lisa Andrews said, "The play was funny, I wish the drama club would do more." The play members consisted of Sanaa Taylor, Glenis Moseley, David Williams, Ricky Roundtree, Kendall Wilson, Dwayne Newton, Mazie Shider, Todd Moseley, Stacey Chapman, Annette Teasdell, Derrick Singleton, and Rachell McKay.

The girls' softball team finished the regular season undefeated and was named the Team of the Year by the Student Council.

The Rice Planters represented Walterboro in parades and other various functions. The Rice Planters from W.H.S. were: Annette Martin, Theresa Smith, Veronica Clayton, Lori Maddox, Holly Craven, Cherie Hudson, and Leslie Burgess, Melody Geddis, Kathy Avant, Regina Hutto, Dargan Moore

The Honor-All-State members went through nerve racking tryouts but made it all seem worthwhile. Honors-All-State members were Denean Green, Elizabeth Belcher, Bert Crosby, Steve Hanna, Tony Jones, Mike Carter, and Evon Robinson.

These groups made us proud and did their best to represent our school in whatever they did.

Showing his style during the play is David Williams.

During play rehearsal, Ricky Roundtree and Glenis Moseley seem to disagree.
