

Reason to Celebrate

It's finally over

Yes, the time had come for seniors, it was almost over, time to grow up and start a new life.

Commencement excercises for graduating seniors were held in the gym of Walterboro High School, May 31, 1983 at 8:00 p.m.

The traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" was played as tears of joy and sadness rolled down senior's cheeks while marching toward the end of the wonderful days of high school.

As names were called to receive diplomas, memories of good and bad times flashed through senior's and parent's heads.

Head marshalls, Sabrina Green and Christa Gilgen led seniors through the gym and up the center aisle while marshalls Tony Jones, Annette Teasdell, Joeseeph Edwards, Rolfe Martin, Leslie Bright, Kristen Hoff, Melissa Boles and John Babilon, stood at attention honoring the new graduates.

LaDean Nettles, Eric Fraiser, Linda Howell, Tammie Phillips, James Beach, Reneé Hamilton, Lisa Rogers, Sonya Mixson, Penelope Hughes, Cynthia Ladson, Thomas Crider, Rodney Harrison, Vivette Davis, and Kim Hunter ushered parents to their seats and saw that everything ran smoothly.

Afterwards, graduates, family members, and friends, greeted each other outside, said "Good-Bye" and drove off leaving the happy years of school behind them.

A tearful but happy senior hugs her class mate.
