

"Playing the piano gives me sort of a natural high," says, Bert Crosby, as he practices for the Choral Concert.

First Class Memories

Whether it was a Senior wearing his key for the first time, a junior going to his first prom, a sophomore participating in his first choral concert or a freshman going to his first pep rally, each student will have at least one certain memory that stands out above the rest.

"I'll never forget the fantastic J.V. football season. We were the best!" exclaimed sophomore Todd Osteen. Dianne Wade stated, "The change and especially the confusion is what I will remember forever."

Whether it was a winning season, a certain assembly, or just one especially great day, everyone will have their own memory of a First Class Year.
