

Leading a chant while stiring up spirit is Coach Gyles Hall, our number one cheerleader.

While hundreds of people follow the football teams progress, an equal number flock to see the Band of Blue's Performance at the State Contest, hoping it will again be #1.

With a paw-printed face and a spirit-filled heart, Sherri Cummings adds the right touch to a pom-pom shaking pep rally.

Though the pressures of being first at state and the rain-slicked astro-turf hamper the Bulldogs movements, they leave with the knowledge that skill and determination can take them far.

Although we need no reminder, Travis Rice No. 80 makes the Bulldog position crystal clear.
