

Seniors' Last Stand

As Holly Craven, Homecoming queen is escorted around the field, No. 64 Benjamin McNeil watches with interest.

Coming Home

"And the 1983 Mock Homecoming Queen is ... Tim 'Short Stuff' Benson!" What a Night that was! At the homecoming bonfire, sponsored by the senior class, several audacious guys pulled out their Mom's high heels and frilly dresses. With a little blush and a touch of lipstick they were ready to compete for the title of Miss Homecoming '83. These glamorous contestants were escorted around the bonfire so they could "strut their stuff." Although there was some stiff competition from "Swivel Hips" Miley and "Knock Out" Dennis, the crown was rightfully given to 'Short Stuff' Benson.

All the laughs were put aside as the boys were separated from the girls on Homecoming Night. Five senior girls vied for the prestigious title of Homecoming Queen 1983. The Queen was chosen by the senior football players. At half-time the girls were escorted onto the field after which Principal Mack Jones announced the senior Bulldogs' choice. "And Miss Homecoming '83 is ... Holly Craven." Holly was driven around the field with tears of sadness and joy in her eyes for this was her last stand—a night all seniors would long remember.

1983 Mock Homecoming Queen 'Short Stuff' Benson and his escort Francis Suggs smile boastfully as Jimmy 'Buxom' Beach and Faye Barwick look on jealously.

These lovely ladies are trying to get rid of the butterflies. They are: Donnie Avant, Bubbie Dennis, Cliff Warren, Brian Moore, Tim Benson, Jimmy Beach, and Ray Bell.

Students and teachers huddle around this popular hot spot—the blazing bonfire.

