Beauty contests always seemed to make school more interesting. Popular vote selected some contestants but Miss W.H.S. and Miss Merry Christmas were chosen by a panel of judges.

Tyra Risher, Miss W.H.S. said, "I was so happy. I cried because I hadn't planned on participating in the pageant." Regina Hutto, Miss Merry Christmas said, "Winning this title was the best thing that happened to me all year. I was truly surprised."

The King and Queen of Hearts assembly was held on February 10. The students were entertained by their classmates who either sang or danced. One of the judges, Edward Taylor, also entertained with a special selection.

Members of the court were Prince and Princess: Larry Johnson and Kaye Barwick, Duke and Dutchess: Terry McMillian and Kim McNeil, King and Queen of Hearts: Laverne Aiken and Enoch Ford. When asked about their honor, Laverne Aiken said, "Being Queen of Hearts is one of the most wonderful things that ever happened to me. I was very excited." Enoch replied, "I felt like I accomplished a goal. I was very excited and scared."

Laverne Aiken and Enoch Ford stand before the crowd as King and Queen of Hearts.

Singing "A Dream" by DeBarge, Charolette Bowden, Cynthia Walker, Wanda Bowden, Wylie Ellis, Scott Riggin and Terry McMillian provide entertainment for the King and Queen of Hearts Pageant.

Providing entertainment is one of the judges, Edward Taylor.
