

"Yes, we're good!! . . . but this orientation is a bore the second time around."

New Faces, New Ideas

New faces with new ideas—that's what the Performing Chorus was about. Under the leadership of the new director, Clare Freeman, new and old members joined together to make the year unforgettable.

Mrs. Freeman introduced a show choir, a special group of singers that performed at special programs. Besides performing at the Rice Festival, the show choir also sang at the orientation for rising freshmen. A special show stopper was the group's Annual Spring Concert. Held on May 23, the concert featured songs from Broadway musicals and spirituals. The theme was "Everybody Rejoice" and that's just what they did. It also featured special selections from the seniors and the beginner's chorus. The chorale, consisting of members who tried out for All-State chorus, sang, also.

"We had a lot of fun this year. There were some rough spots but we ironed them out and it was all for the best," said Kevin Crosby.

Mrs. Freeman leads the chorus during the Miss Merry Christmas Pageant.

Mrs. Freeman auditions freshman Joan Johnson for next year's choir.