

People Too!

A lot of students didn't realize that teachers were people too. They had hobbies and interests, just like students did. They had fun, went shopping, laughed, watched television and played sports. They were alike in the fact that they were teachers but they were different in the ways their hobbies differed. Mrs. Nell Simmons collected seashells. Ms. Arelene Finney-El collected candles. Mrs. Carolyn Lewis did smocking. Mrs. Pat Rhode, Mrs. Tammie Sligh, and Mr. Ronald Rash ran regularly. Mr. Willie Davis' interest was race cars.

Miss Judy Holliday, a 1974 graduate of WHS, was chosen Queen of Hearts in 1974 and Miss Cathie Layton decorated sweaters with rhinestones in original designs.

Surprised? See, teachers weren't stuffy snobs that laid awake at night thinking up homework to pile on you the next day. They were human beings just like you and me. Teachers were people too.

Miss Cathie Layton smiles proudly as she models one of the sweaters that she decorated herself.

Teachers like to talk to their friends just as much as students do. Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Mrs. Ruth Allgood, Mrs. Vicki Smith, and Miss Cathie Layton will all attest to that.

Teaching from the top of his file cabinet, Mr. H.M. Bowers strives to keep his class' attention.
