

No Magic, Just Effort

They went to class everyday and gave it their all no matter what. This was the style of the students who deserved the prize. They suffered, cried, and sweat, but this finally paid off. They earned these awards with no magic, just a determined effort.

The '83 Girls' Stater was Christa Gilgen and the Boys' State candidate was Rolfe Martin. The Governor School attendants were Tony Jones and Annette Teasdell.

The marshals were Laura Manigo, Jennie Padgett, Nathan Manneraak, Jennie Stephens, Mark Walling, Regina

Hutto, Sanaa Taylor, Matthew Crosby, Sharon Howell, and Barry Strickland.

The Georgia Pacific scholar was Eric Frasier. The USC-ASCEIA scholar was Annette Teasdell. The USC and National Merit scholar was Sabrina Green. The Elk scholars were Tony Jones and Christa Gilgen. The Furman scholars were Tony Jones, Sabrina Green, Rolfe Martin.

Although their reward was given, their steady struggle and long hours to get to the top will continue with no magic, just effort.

Elected for 1984's Boys State is Barry Strickland.

Former Governor School students Annette Teasdell, and Tony Jones welcome the upcoming year to Sanaa Taylor.
