

Mrs. Eliza Williams: P. Sci.
 Ms. Leila Williams: EP/CT, CD/CT
 Ms. Magdalene Williams: Support Personnel
 Mr. Bill Young: Inst. Music, Band
 Mrs. Marilyn Zielke: Art I, II, Journalism

Mrs. Lewis demonstrates how to cut cake for a prom while Donna Couch watches.

Conversing during lunch are Coach Bullock and Coach Driggers.

Mr. and Mrs. Zielke enjoy helping with prom decorations.

More than teaching

Many students never thought of teachers as friends. However, many teachers took time to help students. Sue Bailey said, "Mrs. Finney-El is always there when I need to talk to somebody, she always has the time." Leslie Burgess said that Mrs. Clark was one of those teachers who looked at you like a person, not just a student.

Teachers brought students to and from school. "I learned a lot about my students from just listening to them in the morning on the way to school. Teenagers always seem to have some kind of crisis, or something really exciting going on with them," said Mrs. Marilyn Zielke.

Friendships went both ways and both students and teachers seemed to benefit from knowing each other as people.