

Who Are the Bulldogs?

Now we know.

The Dogs easily eliminated Hillcrest 34-19 before a huge home crowd. Enoch Ford and Stevie Riggins had their best games yet with 176 yards and 172 yards respectively.

The Dogs then faced Camden away. With 3:46 on the clock, Walterboro trailed unbeaten Camden 12-13 and had decided to go for the 2 point play to win. They didn't make it. The Camden fans started celebrating. But their joy was premature, for the Dogs started one of the great comebacks in football. The offense had been running its patented reverse all night and when the Camden defensive end started keying on it, Riggins "kept it", went left, and won the game.

The Dogs beat Hartsville and in an exciting overtime victory. Garrett Carter found Charles Cook in the end zone to win the game and the Lower State Championship.

The next week was dedicated to long, hard practices. The football team traveled to Columbia to practice on astro turf and got new turf cleats for this surface.

Walterboro started the game fired up but a much larger Laurens team got the momentum of the game. They never let our offense get moving and when a referee helped bring Garrett Carter down in the end zone to give Laurens two more points the game was over. Though not a good end to the season the Dogs had carried the town and brought their fans together. Besides, they had to leave something for next year's team to accomplish.

Syl Bowman, no. 20, is triple teamed on this pass play against Beaufort.

Dropping a receiver for a loss with good tackling form is Floyd Gadsen, no. 30.
