A Win is a Team Win

The Varsity Basketball team proved that if you play as a team, you either win as a team or you lose as a team. Although there were more losses than wins this season for the Bulldogs, they were only losing two seniors. "This was a rebuilding year," said Syl Bowman, point guard. The team is expected to do much better next year.

"The Bulldogs really played together as a team," said Sam Pinckney. This togetherness sparked a certain pride in the team. They were always helping each other or giving words of encouragement to the other players. This attitude seems to be instilled by Coach Simmons who was known for having compassion for his players. Seniors Wylie Ellis and Sam Pinckney agreed that the games they won, were won because they played as a team. Travis Evans, who got all-conference honors commented that, "It was great the way we stuck up for each other. It payed to play as a team."
