

Playoff Fever

we caught it

The baseball team's chances looked good as they entered the playoffs against Summerville. They lost 15-2 but now they faced Richland Northeast which they defeated 2-1 in a close game. They then went on to beat Lancaster 5-4.

All during the end of the season and into the playoffs Garrett Carter had been the focus of attention. He held the state homerun record. After the Lancaster game he had 15 and then in the last game of the season he made it 16 home-runs.

Walterboro's last game was against Summerville, always a powerful force in the conference. This was the fifth time these two teams played. Walterboro lost but gained a lot of respect as they held on to be defeated by only 3-2. It was a sad end to a well fought game and season.

Ronald Robinson fires the ball toward the plate.

Kevin Crosby, known for his tough game, breaks up the double play.

Ronald Robinson takes the throw from the pitcher and tags the runner out.
