“Crazy For You”

Everyone needed a laugh now and then; according to the senior class. The people who could evoke those laughs were Leslie Burgess and Brady Ordell. With Brady's witty quotes such as "back-back bubba", "skippy", and "you just quit", students found it hard not to laugh. Leslie, alias "Laquacious Less" helped to cheer up friends on early Monday mornings when they moped around feeling depressed about the week ahead.

Kelley O'Connor said that she voted Brady and Leslie Wittest because, "Whenever I'm around Brady, he's always in a good mood, and every-time I see Leslie she's always talking and cracking jokes. That's why she's referred to as "Queen of the Nest."

Wittiest, Brady Ordell and Leslie Burgess are continually "cutting up" and making people laugh.

Brady Ordell shares his wit with "Friends and Company."
