

No Concern Of Theirs

The implementation of the Education Improvement Act forced the deletion of many student activities that were previously handled by the Student Council during the school day. There were no elections for Freshman Class Officers since no time was allotted for them to assemble.

Freshmen complained vehemently to advisors. When Mr. Frank Barnhill was asked what he thought about not having any officers, he stated, "It's appalling, but understandable since education comes first."

Mrs. Bessinger, Freshmen Counselor, explains some facts to Ricky Grant, Scooter Guildford, Derrick Green and Laura Groves.
