COLOPHON

And Editors Comment

Well, when the Paw Print staff was not birthday partying around and spinning "Records of Pawsibilities," it was creating a book filled with approximately 2,500 photographs and an uncountable number of words. Though the year was rough and patience wore thin, I am pleased to say that the Paw Print Staffers of 1984-85 created and produced a jam-up yearbook. It may not be perfect but all those people involved, the entire school, in fact, should be proud to be a part of a year at old W.H.S.

Paw Print 1985, Volume XV was printed by Herff Jones Yearbooks, Montgomery, Alabama, with the guidance of yearbook specialist, Steve Karelitz. This book was printed on 80 lb. Bordeaux glossed enamel paper. Type face used for headlines, captions, and copy was News Gothic. Bingham Script was used on the dividers.

The board weight pt. 120, and was lithographed with four color process, then laminated. End sheets are CX-4 Red colortest stock printed in HJ600 Black. Richard Beach, staff artist, is credited with the original cover design and a Herff Jones artist developed the final draft.

Five hundred books were sold. The initial cost of each book was $16.00.

In my editor's note, I would like to thank Rob Novit and his lifesaving photos, The Press and Standard and its facilities, and Bryn-Alan Studios and their ever cheerful photographer, Mike Bowden. His aid and Bryn Alans tolerance, (we had a great flood) is much appreciated.

I would also like to recognize Mrs. Janis Blocker's quick eye for grammatical errors and misspelled words and Mrs. Marilyn Zielke's never-ceasing dedication to this publication. If the hours Mrs. Zielke has spent were counted and she was paid for them, she'd surely be a millionaire. And that's not counting the hours she has laid awake at night worrying about deadlines while the staffers slept like babies.

I thank you Mrs. Zielke for your advice, your shoulder, and your tolerance of my year-long case of senioritis.
