Did You Hear the One About . . .

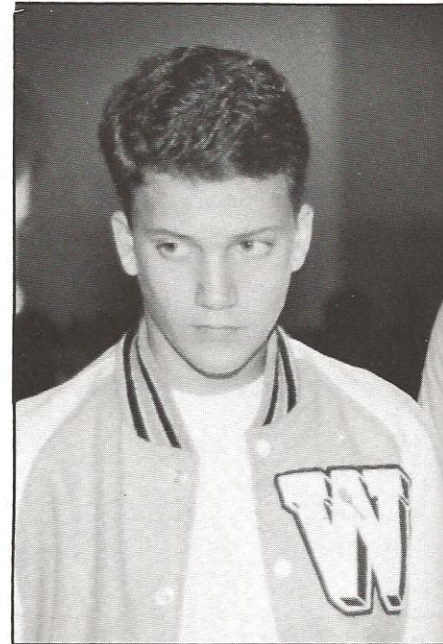

Tim Benson and Aretha Rhone were voted Funniest in the senior class. Each of these madcap class clowns was constantly painting a happy smile on the facial canvas of a fellow student.

Aretha commented that people find her "personality, not just remarks, funny." Aretha's bubbly, vivacious remarks and countenance constantly "livened up even the most boring of classes," remarked Kiki Kinard.

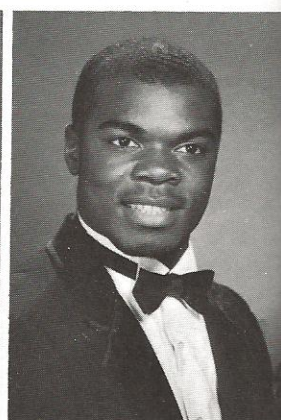

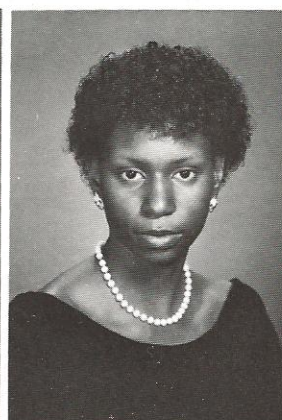

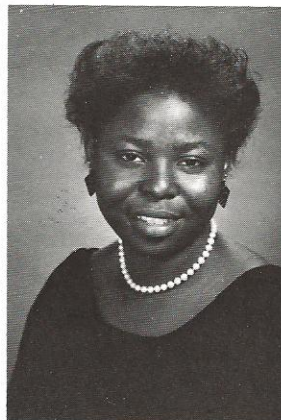

Tim Benson was known as the "class clown" for years before this appropriate award was presented to him. "What can I say?" pondered Tim. "People find me funny, so I guess I am." Tim also livened up classes as well as monotonous daily life.
