The year started off with definite possibilities with two advisors and an editor returning from a trip to the Herff-Jones Plant in Alabama. There they learned how to improve THE PAW PRINT, the South-Eastern ranked book. The staff had a large number of returning members with knowledge and experience. This was the first year for co-editors. This worked out great since there was no rivalry between us, and we complimented each other. This was the second year that the journalism staff included newspaper, broadcasting, and video. When we weren't busy with all these things, we were creating a jam-up yearbook.

PAW PRINT 1987, Volume XVII, was printed by Herff-Jones of Montgomery, Alabama, with the guidance and expertise of yearbook specialist, Steve Karlitz. The book was printed on 80 lb. Bordeaux, glossed enamel paper. Type face used for all copy and captions was News Gothic. Type face for headlines, opening, closing, and dividers was Chatsworth Heavy; for Student Life, Newberry; for Academics, Spartan Medium; main headline, and subhead, Spartan Light Italic. Type face for sports' headlines was Mead Bold; for Clubs, Brush; People, News Gothic; and Community, Bingham Script.

The cover was lithographed on 120 weight cover material with four-color processing. End-sheets were printed with JH 320 turquoise on a white, gray, background.

Five hundred books were sold at a cost of $20.00 each.

We would like to thank the PRESS AND STANDARD for the life-saving photos, and a special thanks to Rob Novit for his personal advice, assistance, and experience.

Thanks to Mrs. Janis Blocker for all of her "constructive criticism," though at times we didn't act as if we appreciated it. If it weren't for Mrs. Blocker's quick eye hundreds of misspelled words and grammatical errors would have gone undetected.

And a special thank-you to Mrs. Marilyn Zielke for her dedication to this publication and its staff. Mrs. Zielke's maternal devotion pulled us through the stress of meeting deadlines. She knew when to apply pressure, but she always had a kind word and a pat on the back for one's accomplishments. As we senior staff members graduate, we realize that this relationship between Mrs. Zielke and us is what we will miss the most. Mrs. Zielke, we love You!
