O n and on

Many people thought of running in only one way. They did not realize that some people were better at some running events than at others. In track competition there were different types of running and many athletes who competed in the 100 meter dash, the 200 meter dash, the 400 meter dash, and the mile. The different athletes were conditioned and trained differently for these events. It took many dedicated students and determined coaches to have a successful track program. Unfortunately, Wal-terboro only had two track coaches — one for the girls and one for the boys. Fortunately, both Coach Sonya Sims and Coach Al Reitman filled their positions with dedication of a whole coaching staff. Both coaches not only trained athletes to run in different races, but they also trained the discus throwers, high jumpers, and pole vaulters. This took a lot of hard work from both the coaches and participants.

Coincidentally, the boys' and girls' track and cross country teams finished 4th in the conference. With leadership from only four seniors, one might have expected the boys' team to have little leadership to go around. This was not the case, however. The younger team members were the ones who took their responsibility seriously and performed very well. Sophomore James Walker made it all the way to the state meet to finish 7th in the 100-meter dash. Shawn Weens, a freshman, was also one of the top performers for the team.

FINISHING WITH EX-
CRUCIATING PAIN is Terri Siders. Siders injured her knee earlier in the season but was determined not to let the pain stop her.

SHAWN WEENS easily clears the hurdle. Weens was a top performer for the Dogs, yet he was only a freshman.
