Colophon

"Not Just the Same Old Thing," PAW PRINT 1990, Volume 20, was printed by Herff-Jones Yearbooks in Montgomery, Alabama, with the instruction of yearbook specialist Steve Karelitz. The first sixteen pages were printed on 100 lb Eurogloss, while the remaining pages were printed on 100 lb Bordeaux. The endsheets were printed in flamingo, cyan, and black inks on a white background. The cover was drawn by Design Editor Dylane Stephens. The same inks, as applied to the endsheets, were used.

The type face for the headlines on the title, opening, closing, and back endsheet pages was Bingham Script. The type face for the sections and mini-themes on the front endsheet and dividers were set on a Macintosh computer. Captions and body copy were printed in Univers throughout the book. Folio Tabs and page numbers were printed in Cloister Bold.

In Student Life, the type face for the headline and sub-head was Century Schoolbook. Academics followed with Garmond Italic as the type face for the headline and sub-head, while the People section used Chelsea Light Italic. Sports used Brush for its headline type, Clubs used Bingham Script, and Community used Univers.

Mrs. Dawn Arrington, Guidance Secretary, for making countless copies of journalism material; Rob Novit of the PRESS AND STANDARD, for coming through with pictures around deadline time; Mrs. Julia Waddell, for her advice and kindness; Mr. Russell Polk, for his wittiness; Mrs. Janis Blocker for making sure our prepositions and principles didn't dangle; and especially Mrs. Marilyn Zielke, who has devoted her career to her students and the yearbook for the past 8 years.

I can't believe the year is almost over. It seems only yesterday that Mrs. Zielke and Mrs. Blocker asked me to accept the position of editor-in-chief.

Now, I sit here writing the colophon while the staffers run around frantically trying to reach their last deadline. This year has certainly been an experience with its share of triumphs and frustrations, but the finished product of this yearbook is the reward for the staff at WHS.
