

SEIZE

THE DAY

Carpe Diem. This Latin phrase is one of the most emphatic commands in the English Language--SIEZE THE DAY. The words themselves mean to live each day as if it were one's last. For students, it meant making high grades, winning football games, achieving superior ratings in band contests, or just attaining personal goals. With war breaking out in the Persian Gulf, students began to understand the urgency in living life to its fullest. As Robert Herrick advised, "Gather ye rosebuds while ye may, Old Time is still a-flying..."
