At a home football game, bandsmen Kristen Nettles, Stacie Murray, and Wendy Garrett dance to the beat of a drum feature. The band attended every home game to lift not only the football players' spirits, but also the crowd's.
