

During halftime at a home football game, mascot Andy Wilson takes a break from the heat and watches the band perform its show. Because the season started in late August, fans, bandmen, cheerleaders, and football players had to suffer through heat and humidity.

While in Mr. Stephen's first semester Applied Economics class, Carlos Chisolm, Tanique Rabb, Kelly Holmes, and Cokeitha James make posters for the class business. This ninth period class organized a business and sold Bulldog Boxer shorts for $8 per pair.

