

Juniors Micheal Berry, Marvin Tucker, and Kevin Moore try to get some studying done before a Biology II test. Students often crammed during the minutes before class.

With a huge grin, freshman James Riley turns to show off his balloon in the Vocational Hall. Several band members received flowers and balloons before state contest.

“There should be an Olympic event for changing classes.”

— Junior Renelle Newton

