

Sophomores Melvin Daniels and Donnell Daniels decide to come as mirror images. Melvin and Donnell are first cousins and best friends.

The Spring Dance was not only attended by freshmen and sophomore but people from several other grades were invited. Even eighth graders found the time to come and join the fun at a high school dance.

“The Spring Dance, my first, was very interesting. I look forward to next year’s Spring Dance and hope to have even more fun.”

— Freshman Curtis Magwood

Freshman Jeanine Green struts her stuff in a different way with a tuxedo instead of an evening dress. Jeanine was a member of the Band of Blue Color Guard.

Freshman Patrick Jones enjoys the refreshments. The refreshments were a quick supply of energy for the party goers.
