

Two Cute

On Valentine's Day, the two senior queens were named. Barbara Russell was chosen as Miss Senior, and Stacy Manigo was selected as Miss WHS.

Barbara Russell was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winston and Louise Russell. Barbara said that being named Miss Senior has, "given her a great feeling of accomplishment." A positive attitude and a dedication to the school, she felt, was the reason for her win.

"I was very nervous and scared when I walked out on the stage. There was some good competition, but when I walked out, I had a feeling that I was going to win," said Barbara.

Stacy Manigo was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph and Theodosia Manigo. The title was given to the girl with the most votes from the senior class. The court was presented at the pagaent, and the winner announced.

"At first, I wasn't too sure about even entering the contest. I was pretty nervous, but after the voting, I felt pretty confident about the whole thing," said Stacy Manigo.

— Wendy J. Garrett

Stacy Manigo and her escort, Patrick Middleton, await the results of Miss WHS. Stacy was a member of the Science Club.

In the evening wear competition, Barbara Russell models a lovely black, sequined gown. The pagaent also included a casual wear competition.