

Celebrating after the James Island game, seniors Clarence Robinson and Norman Hand share a congratulatory hug.

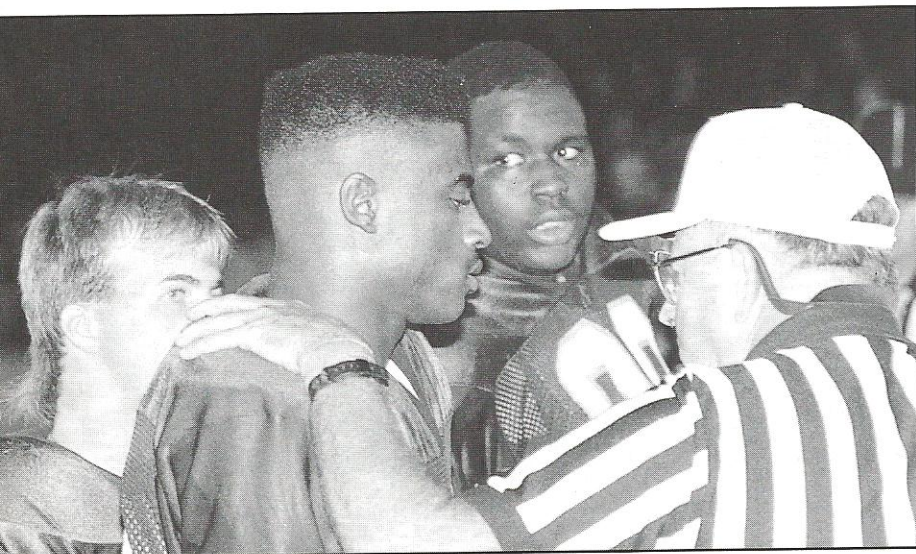

Attempting to return the kickoff, junior Jason Herndon attempts to dodge oncoming opponents. Jason will be returning next year to help fill the void left by the seniors.

“Winning was important, but we achieved the main goal of team unity.”

— Senior Jody McLaine

Preparing for the toss of the coin, seniors Gianni Garrett, Norman Hand, and Bo Jessen receive information from the referee. Gianni and Norman served as the team captains and Bo served as the honorary captain for that game.

After Lancaster kicked its winning field goal, Harry Adams and Jerome Bryan stare at the goal post with the realization that the season is over.

