As Chris Brownlee watches in the distance, Andy Hughes kicks the ball down the field to one of his team mates. Andy has been on the soccer team since he was in eighth grade.

Before a game, Coach Len Frederick offers some advice to the team. The talks before the game gave coaches an opportunity to give players some last minute advice.

During a time out, Johnny Thomas takes a moment to drink a cup of water while Andy Hughes fills a cup with water for himself. Timeouts were opportune moments to refresh oneself.
