

WAL-MART[®]
 ALWAYS THE LOW PRICE
 ON THE BRANDS YOU TRUST.
 ALWAYS.SM

CONGRATULATIONS
 Class of '91

*Sassafras
 Cafe*

WE TAKE PRIDE IN OUR QUALITY, PRESENTATION & SERVICE

125 1/2 WASHINGTON ST.
 WALTERBORO, SC 29488

GPS

GALLMAN PERSONNEL
 SERVICES, INC.

P.O. Box 408
 330 North Lucas Street
 Walterboro, SC 29488

(803) 549-1829
 FAX (803) 549-6086

"THE TEMPORARY SERVICE WITH LASTING APPEAL"

Students Participate in Festival

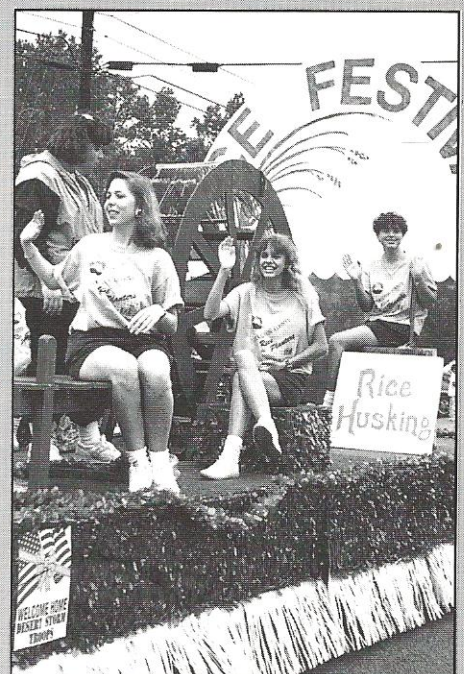

The annual Rice Festival was held in Colleton County April 26-28. The Rice planters, the official hostesses and ambassadors of the festival, were chosen from Ruffin High School, Walterboro High School and Colleton Preparatory Academy. Those selected were Latonya Fryar, Kristen Nettles, Blythe Buchanan, Nicole Ray, Debbie Jones, Kimbe Carter, Stephanie McCarter, Karyn Davis, Cope Johnston, Holly Davenport. They took turns providing information, helping at organized events, welcoming visitors and making posters for the parade. Sponsored by Cami Hiers and Beth Howard, the Rice planters also traveled to other festivals to publicize the Rice Festival. They participated in parades at the Flowertown festival, Summerville; Gritz festival, St. George; Shutzenfest, Ehrhardt; Watermelon Festival, Hampton; Water Festival, Beaufort.

The Rice planters were selected by a committee according to personality, dependability and interest in the Rice Festival itself. Twelve girls were picked from 32 applicants.

WHS chorus members also participated in the Rice Festival. They sang in the opening ceremony.

Rice Planters Nicole Ray, Stephanie McCarter, and Holly Davenport wave to the crowd in the Rice Festival Parade.