

Broken beyond repair! Emily Peeler and two of her friends totalled her dad's truck after running into a tree down a country dirt road. There were no injuries except for a few scratches and bruises.

Totalled! "We were going to the store, and my friend pulled out in front of truck, and she totalled the car," said sophomore Shera Brown. Another passenger in the car broke his arm in the car crash.

This Year's Worst Wreck:

"When I was driving down Bulldog Avenue, I ran head-on into a truck and spun completely around and went into the ditch!"

-senior Jenni Brush

Just a scratch. Senior Morgan Harrell bumped into the back of a school bus on Bulldog Avenue. Because of this accident, the headlights barely worked at all for the rest of the year.
