

"My favorite memory from this year was winning mock homecoming queen. It was fun acting wild and crazy and dressing up like a girl, even if the clothes were REALLY tight!"

-senior Micheal Bostic-Jones

Shake it fast... Junior Erin Driggers does a little dance in the Bulldog suit to get the cheerleaders pepped up and ready for the game against Berkeley. Erin wore the suit to most of the games all season, getting tons of laughs and attention from the faithful fans.

Showin' their Dog Spirit... Juniors Jowe Nettles and Shushanna Taylor take a second to pose before the big game one Friday night. Jowe helped lead the dogs that night to their victory over Battery Creek.
